ANNEXURE - 2 TO OUR AUDIT REPORT

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS UNDER CLAUSE (I) OF SUB-SECTION 3 OF SECTION 143 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013 (“THE ACT”)

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Spectrum Infotech Private Limited (“the Company”) as of 31 March 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

MANAGEMENT’S RESPONSIBILITY FOR INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS

The Company’s management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (‘ICAI’). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

AUDITORS’ RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

MEANING OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that

(1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;

(2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and

(3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements. Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

OPINION

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

NOTE 31 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Preparation:

The financial statements comply in all material aspects with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) [Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015] and other relevant provisions of the Act.

For all periods up to and including the year ended 31 March 2016, the Company prepared its financial statements in accordance with accounting standards notified under the section 133 of the Companies Act 2013, read together with paragraph 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 (Indian GAAP). These financial statements are the first financial statement of the Company under Ind AS. Refer Note 32.23 for information on how the Company adopted Ind AS.

These financial statements have been presented in India Rupees and all values are rounded off to the nearest rupee, except when otherwise indicated.

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for the following assets and liabilities which have been measured at fair value:

(a) Certain financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value (refer accounting policy regarding financial instruments).

(b) Defined benefit plan assets.

2. Current versus non-current classification

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current / non-current classification. An Asset is treated as current when it is:

- Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading
- Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle

- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents. The Company has identified twelve months as its operating cycle.

3. Foreign currency translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

These financial statements are presented in INR, which is also the Company's functional currency. Items included in the financial statements of are measured using the functional currency.

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are recorded on initial recognition in the reporting currency, using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency spot rates of exchange at the reporting date.

Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of foreign currency transaction and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in profit or loss.

Foreign exchange differences regarded as an adjustment to borrowing costs are presented in the statement of profit and loss, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the statement of profit and loss on a net basis.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value is determined. The gain or loss arising on translation of non-monetary items measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on the change in fair value of the item (i.e. translation differences on items whose fair value gain or loss is recognised on other comprehensive income (OCI) or profit or loss are also recognised in OCI or profit or loss, respectively).

4. Revenue Recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Amounts disclosed as revenue are inclusive of excise duty and net of returns, liquidated damages, trade allowances, rebates, value added taxes and amounts collected on behalf of third parties.

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the entity and the revenue can be reliably measured.

The specific recognition criteria described below must also be met before revenue is recognised.

Sale of Goods

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have passed to the buyer under the terms of the contract, usually on delivery of the goods. Revenue from the sale of goods is measured at the fair value of the consideration received and receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discounts and liquidated damages.

Rendering of Services

Revenue from services is recognised by reference to the stage of completion (percentage completion method) of the transaction at the end of the reporting period. Hence revenue is recognised in the period in which the services are rendered. The stage of completion of a transaction is determined on the basis of the proportion that costs incurred to date bear to the estimated total costs of the transaction.

Interest

Interest income is recognised on time proportionate basis

5. Research and Development

Revenue expenditure on research and development is charged under respective heads of account in the year in which it is incurred. Capital expenditure on research and development is included as part of fixed assets and depreciated on the same basis as other fixed assets.

6. Employee Benefits

All employee benefits falling due wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short term employee benefits. The benefits like salaries, wages, short term compensated absences, etc. and the expected cost of PLR, bonus, ex-gratia, are recognised in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

The Company's state governed provident fund scheme and insurance scheme are defined contribution plans. The contribution paid / payable under the schemes is recognised during the period in which the employee renders the related service. The above benefits are classified as Defined Contribution Schemes as the Company has no further obligations beyond the periodic contributions.

The employees' gratuity fund scheme is the Company's defined benefit plan. The cost of providing benefits under such defined benefit plans is determined based in actuarial valuation using the projected Unit Credit Method.

Remeasurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income. They are included in retained earnings in the statement of changes in equity and in the balance sheet. Resmeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Changes in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from plan amendments or curtailments are recognised immediately in profit or loss as past service cost.

The obligation for long term employee benefits such as long terms compensated absences is recognised in the similar manner as in the case of defined benefit plans.

7. Property, plant and equipment

All items of property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Transition to Ind AS

On transition to Ind AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its property, plant and equipment recognised as at 1 April, 2015 measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as the deemed cost of the property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation methods, estimated useful lives and residual value

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives mandated by Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 for all the assets.

An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on depreciation of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in profit or loss.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses.

Computer Software:-

The Cost incurred in acquiring specialized software programmes are initially measured at cost. They have finite useful life and are subsequently carried at cost less accumulated amortization & impairment losses

Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the asset is derecognised.

Useful life and amoritsation:-

Computer Software: 6 years

8. Leases (As lessee)

At the inception of a lease, the lease arrangement is classified as either finance lease or an operating lease based on the terms and substance of the lease arrangement.

Operating Leases:-

Assets acquired on leases where a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases are recognised as an expense in the statement of profit and loss on a straight-line bases over the lease term.

9. Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account. If no such transactions can be identified, and appropriate valuation model is used. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflow form other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units).

10. Inventories

Raw materials, components, stores, spares and loose tools, work-in-progress and finished goods are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of raw materials and components, stores, spares and loose tools comprises cost of purchases. Cost of work-in-progress and finished goods comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overhead expenditure, the latter being allocated on the basis of normal operating capacity. Cost of inventories also include all other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Costs are assigned to individual items of inventory on weighted average basis.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

11. Financial instruments

Non-derivative financial instruments

Non-derivative financial instruments consist of:

(a) Financial assets, which include cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, employee and other advances, security deposits, investments in mutual funds and eligible current and non-current assets

(b) Financial liabilities, which include trade payables, eligible current and non-current liabilities

Non-derivative financial assets

The Company classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

(a) Those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income, or through profit or loss)

(b) Those measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

Initial recognition

At initial recognition, the Company measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit and loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

Subsequent measurement

Subsequent to initial recognition, non-derivative financial instruments are measured as described below:

(a) Financial assets measured at amortised cost

Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. They are presented as current assets, except for those maturing later than 12 months after the reporting date which are presented as non-current assets. They are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment losses.

This category generally applies to trade and other receivables.

(b) Financial Assets measured at fair value through OCI (FVTOCI)

Instruments included within the FVTOCI category are measured initially as well as at each reporting date at fair value. Fair value movements are recognised in other comprehensive income (OCI) and impairment gains and losses, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit and loss. Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income using the effective interest rate method.

The Company does not have any financial asset under this category.

(c) Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost are measured at fair value through profit or loss. These are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the Profit &Loss a/c.

The Company has classified investments in liquid mutual funds under this category.

Impairment of financial assets

In accordance with Ind AS 109, the Company applied expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the following assets and credit risk exposure.

(a) Trade receivables and retention money

The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables and retention money. The application of simplified approach does not require the Company to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognises impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition.

As a practical expedient, to measure ECL on trade receivables, a provision matrix is used by the Company. The historical credit loss experience and forward looking information for trade receivables is used to estimate expected credit losses considering the type of customers and a judgemental evaluation of the collectability of the receivables based on the ageing of the receivables.

In balance sheet, ECL is presented as an allowance with the respective asset represented at gross. ECL impairment loss allowance (or reversal) is recognised as expense in the statement of profit and loss under the head 'other expenses'.

Non-derivative financial liabilities

Initial recognition

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables, etc. as appropriate. All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, as described below:

Financial liabilities at fair value though profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss. Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. This category also includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Company that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by Ind AS 109 gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in the profit or loss.

The Company has not designated any financial liability as at fair value through profit and loss.

Financial liabilities measured at amortised cost

This is the category most relevant to the Company. After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the EIR amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

This category generally applies to trade payables and PLR.

Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

12. Cash and Cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, balance with banks and bank deposits that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

13. Borrowing Costs

There is no borrowing costs which is attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset, and to be capitalised as part of cost of such asset till such time as the asset is ready for its intended use or sale. A qualifying asset is an asset that necessarily requires a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale.

14. Income Tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount in the financial statements. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

15. Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses. Reimbursement expected in respect of expenditure required to settle a provision is recognised only when it is virtually certain that the reimbursement will be received. The expense relating to a provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

In the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

Warranty provisions

Provisions for warranty related costs are recognised when the product is sold to the customer. Initial recognition is based on historical experience.

16. Fair value measurement

The Company measures financial instruments, such as, derivatives at fair value at each balance sheet date.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either.

(a) In the principal market for the asset or liability or

(b) In the absence of a practical market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability. The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Company.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

The Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole.

(a) Level 1 – Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

(b) Level 2 – Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable

(c) Level 3 – Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

Valuation process

The finance department of the Company includes a team that performs the valuations of financial assets and liabilities required for financial reporting purposes, including level 3 fair values. This team reports directly to the chief financial officer (CFO). Discussions of valuation processes and results are held between the CFO, AC and valuation teams regularly.

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Company has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the asset or liability and the level of the fair value hierarchy as explained above.

This note summarises accounting policy for fair value. Other fair value related disclosures are given in the relevant notes.

17. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to ordinary holders by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the period.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to ordinary equity holders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.

32 19) Financial Risk Management Framework

The Company's activities expose it to market risk, liquidity risk and credit risk. The Company's focus is to foresee the unpredictability of financial markets and seek to minimize potential adverse effects on its financial performance. These risk is overseen by Risk management committee headed by Head-Operations of the company. The risk management committee ensures that the company's financial risk activies are governed by appropriate policies and procedures and that financial risks are identified, measured and managed in accordance with the company's policies and risk objective.

This note explains the sources of risk which the entity is exposed to and how the entity manages the risk.

Risk	Exposures arising from	Measurement	Management
Credit Risk	Cash and cash equivalents, mutual funds, trade receivables, financial assets measured at amortized cost	Ageing analysis	Diversification of bank deposits, credit limits and letter of credit
Liquidity risk	Other liabilities	Rolling cash flow forecast	Availability of committed credit lines
Market risk	Future commercial transactions, recognised financial assets and liabilities not denominated in indian rupee	Sensitivity analysis	Foreign exchange forward contracts are entered based on significance of the exposure

Credit Risk

Credit Risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the company. The company is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables) and from its financing activities, including deposits with bank, foreign exchange transactions and other financial instruments.

Trade receivables

The company evalutes the concentration of risk with respect to trade receivables as low as its major customers are Government organizations like DRDO labs and defence public sector companies. Outstandings are regularly monitored.

As a practical expedients, to measure ECL on trade receivables, a provision matrix is used by the company. The historical credit loss experience and forward looking information for trade receivables is used to estimate expected credit losses considering the type of customers and a judgemental evaluation of the collectability of the receivables based on the ageing of the receivables. The company estimate the following provision matrix at the reporting date.

Expected credit losses	0 - 6 months	6 - 12 months	12 - 24 months	24 - 36 months	36 - 48 months	> 48 months
Default rate due to delay in payments	0%	3%	15%	30%	60%	60%

Refer note 28 for detail of allowance for expected credit losses charged to statement of profit and loss

Financial Instruments and cash deposits

The credit risk on liquid funds and financial instruments is limited because the counter parties are scheduled banks and mutual fund companies with high credit-ratings assigned by credit-agencies.

The maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date is the carrying value of the each class of financial assets disclosed in note 4, 7, 8,9,10,11 & 12

Additional provision/ (Reversal)	(116,089)	(253,022)
Closing Balance	463,703	579,792

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and marketable securities and availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to meet obligations when due. The company manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves and banking facilities by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows, and by matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

Market Risk

Currency Risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair value or the future cash flows of an exposure will fluctuate because of change in foreign exchange rate. Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities denominated in a currency that is not the company's functional currency (INR). The company manages its foreign currency risk by hedging through foriegn currency forward contracts based on the significance of the exposure

The carrying amounts of the Company's foreign currency denominated monetary assets and monetary liabilities at the end of the reporting period are as follows.

Interest Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flow of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of change in the market interest rates. The company's exposure to the risk of change in market interest rate relates primarily to the company's short term investment in liquid mutual funds. The company manages its interest rate risk by depositing the surplus money with scheduled banks & mutual fund companies with high credit rating by credit rating agencies.

Interest rate risk exposure

The exposure of the company's Investment to interest rate changes at the end of reporting period are as follows:

Warranty Claims:

The Company is required to provide warranty on the products sold towards repair or replacement of item that fails to perform satisfactorily during the warranty period. The provision for warranty made as on March 31, 2017 represents the amount of the expected cost of meeting such obligation of rectification or replacement. The estimte has been made based on historical warranty trends and may vary as a result of new materials, altered manufacturing process or other events. It is expected that most of these costs will be incurred in the next financial year and all will have been incurred within maximum three years after the reporting date. Assumptions used to calculate the provision for warranties were based on current sales levels and current information available about returns based on the maximum three-year warranty period for products sold.

32 23) Disclosure pursuant to Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 101 - First-time adoption of Ind-AS

1 First-time adoption of Ind-AS

These are the Company's first financial statements prepared in accordance with Ind AS. The accounting policies set out in note 31 have been applied in preparing the financial statements for the year ended 31st March 2017, the comparative information presented in these financial statements for the year ended 31st March 2016 and in the preparation of opening Ind AS Balance Sheet as at 1st April 2015 (date of transition). In preparing its opening Ind AS Balance Sheet, the Company has adjusted the amounts reported previously in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting standards notified under Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules,2006 (as ammended) and other relevant provisions of the Act (previous GAAP or Indian GAAP or IGAAP).

An explanation of how the transition from previous GAAP to Ind AS has affected the Company's financial position, financial performance and cash flow is set out in the following tables and notes.

2. Exemptions applied

Ind AS 101 allows first-time adopters certain exemptions from the retrospective application of certain requirements under Ind AS.

The Company has applied the following exemptions :

Deemed Cost - Ind AS 101 permits a first time adopter to elect to continue with the carrying value for all of its property, plant and equipment as recognised in the financial statements as at the date of transition to Ind AS measured as per IGAAP and use that as its deemed cost as at the date of transition. Accordingly the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its property, plant and equipment recognised as at 1st April 2015 measured as per IGAAP and use that carrying value as deemed cost of the property, plant and equipment.

3. Estimates

The estimates as at 1st April 2015 and at 31st March 2016 are consistent with those made for the same dates in accordance with Indian GAAP (After adjustments to reflect any differences in accounting policies) apart from impairment of financial assets based on expected credit loss model where application of indian GAAP did not required estimation.

The estimates used by the Company to present these amounts in accordance with Ind AS reflect conditions at 1st April 2015, the date of transition to Ind AS and as of March 31, 2016

4. Effect of Ind AS adoption for financial statements

The effect of the company's transition to IND AS is summarized in this note as follows:

A Trade Receivables

1 Under I GAAP, The company made impairment provision on trade receivables only in respect of specific amount of incurred losses. As per Ind AS 109, the company is required to apply expected credit loss model for recognising the allowance for doubtful debts. As a result the amount of expected credit loss as on 31st March 2016 was ₹.579,792/- (1st April 2015 is ₹ 832,813/-).

2 Under IGAAP, all contractual retentions and milestone billings were captured in Trade receivables, however, as per Ind AS requirement, Trade receivables under financial assets will include only those billings which are due or which will become due only subject to the credit terms and there is no further performance obligation pending. Contractual Retention Money not due because of pending performance obligation is not a financial asset and is accordingly shown under other current assets. The contractual retention amount as on 31st March 2016 was ₹ 3,877,973/- (1st April 2015 is ₹ 6,093,700).

B Other Financial Liability & Other Current liability

Under Ind AS, Performance Linked Rewards (PLR) payable to employees is considered as a constructive obligation and provided accordingly. PLR provision as on 31st March 2016 is ₹ 4,449,720/- (1st April 2015 is ₹ 3,869,320/-)

C Trade Payables

The company gets debit note for stock options granted by the parent company to the employees of the company. Under I GAAP, the cost of equity settled employee share-based plan were recognised using the intrinsic value method. Under Ind AS, the cost of equity settled share-based plan is recognised based on the fair value of the options as at the grant date. Consequently the amount recognised in the share option outstanding account reimbursible to the parent company in ₹ 431,947/- as on 31st March 2016 (on 1st April 2015 ₹ 255,261/-)

D General

The I GAAP figures have been reclassified to conform to Ind AS presentation requirements for the purposes of this note.

A. Excise Duty

Under I GAAP, revenue from sale of products was presented exclusive of excise duty. Under Ind AS, revenue from sale of goods is presented inclusive of excise duty. The excise duty paid is presented on the face of the statement of profit & loss as part of expenses. This change has resulted in an increase in total revenue & total expenses for the year 2015-16 by ₹ 10,463,833/-. There is no impact on profit or loss.

B. Sales, administration and other expenses

Under I GAAP, the company made impairment provision on trade receivables only in respect of specific amount of incurred losses. As per Ind AS 109, the company is required to apply expected credit loss model for recognising the allowance for doubtful debts. As a result expected credit loss is recognised for ₹ 253,022/- (gain) for FY 2015-16 (net of provision of ₹.579,792/- as at 31st March 2016 and reversal of provsion of ₹ 832,813/-as on 1st April 2015). Consequently the profit for 31st March 2016 increased by ₹ 253,022/- for the year end 31st March 2016.

C. Employee benefit expense

The company gets debit for stock options granted by the parent company to the employees of the company. Under the previsous GAAP, the cost of equity settled employee share based were recognised using the intrinsic value method. Under Ind AS, the cost of equity settled share based plan is recognised based on the fair value of the option as at the grant date. Consequently the amount recognised in the share option outstanding account reimbursible to the parent increased and profit for FY 2015-16 decreased by ₹ 176,687/-.

D. Remeasurement of post employment benefit obligation

Under Ind AS, remeasurements i.e, actuarial gain and losses and the return on plan assets, excluding amounts included in the net interest expense on the net defined benefit liability are recognised in other comprehensive income instead of profit or loss. Under I GAAP, these remeasurements were forming part of the profit & loss for the year. As a result of this change, the profit for the year ended 31st march 2016 increased by 50,633/-.

E Under Ind AS, Performance Linked Rewards (PLR) payable to employees is considered as a constructive obligation and provided accordingly. As a result Employee benefit expenses increased by ₹ 580,400/- as on 31st March 2016 (net of provision of ₹ 4,449,720/- as on 31st March 2016 and reversal of provision of ₹ 3,869,320/- as on 1st April 2015)

F General

The I GAAP figures have been reclassified to conform to Ind AS presentation requirements for the purposes of this note.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the members of CHENNAI VISION DEVELOPERS PRIVATE LIMITED

Report on the Ind AS Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying Ind AS financial statements of Chennai Vision Developers Private Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31 March 2017, and the Statement of Profit and Loss including Other Comprehensive Income, the Statement of Cash Flows and the Statement of Changes in Equity for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Ind AS financial statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards(Ind AS) prescribed under Section 133 of the Act, read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud and error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these Ind AS financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Ind AS financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the Ind AS financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Ind AS financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on these Ind AS financial statements.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us subject the aforesaid Ind AS financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the financial position of the Company as at 31 March 2017, and its financial performance including other comprehensive income, its cash flows and the changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

ANNEXURE 'B' TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

[Referred to in paragraph 2(f) of our Report of even date]

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Chennai Vision Developers Private Limited ("the Company") as of 31 March 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the Ind AS financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ("the Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act").

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable, to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operate effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that

(1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;

(2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and

(3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.

NOTES ACCOMPANYING THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Statement of compliance

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 issued by Ministry of Corporate Affairs in respect of sections 133 read with section 469 of the Companies Act, 2013. These are the Company's first Ind AS financial Statements. The date of transition to Ind AS is April 1, 2015.

2. Basis of accounting

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values, the provisions of the Companies Act , 2013 ('Act') (to the extent notified). The Ind AS are prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2016.

The Company has adopted all the Ind AS standards and the adoption was carried out in accordance with Ind AS 101 First time adoption of Indian Accounting Standards. The transition was carried out from Indian Accounting Principles generally accepted in India as prescribed under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 (IGAAP), which was the previous GAAP. Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

3. Presentation of financial statements

The Balance Sheet and the Statement of Profit and Loss are prepared and presented in the format prescribed in the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"). The Cash Flow Statement has been prepared and presented as per the requirements of Ind AS 7 "Statement of Cash flows". The disclosure requirements with respect to items in the Balance Sheet and Statement of Profit and Loss, as prescribed in the Schedule III to the Act, are presented by way of notes forming part of the financial statements along with the other notes required to be disclosed under the notified Accounting Standards.

4. Operating cycle for current and non-current classification

Operating cycle for the business activities of the Company covers the duration of the specific project/contract/product line/service including the defect liability period, wherever applicable and extends up to the realisation of receivables (including retention monies) within the agreed credit period normally applicable to the respective lines of business.

5. Revenue recognition:

Revenue from operations

(i) Income from project management and advisory services is accounted on time proportionate basis / proportionate completion method based on the agreements / arrangements with customers. However, certain claims, which are not ascertainable / acknowledged by customers,are not taken into account.

(ii) Other operating revenue, other than Dividend income, is accounted based on the agreements / arrangements with customers.

(iii) Dividend income is accounted when the right to receive the same is established.

Other income

(i) Interest income is accrued at applicable interest rate on time proportionate basis.

(ii) Other items of income are accounted as and when the right to receive arises.

6. Exceptional items

On certain occasions, the size, type or incidence of an item of income or expense is such that its disclosure improves an understanding of the performance of the Company. Such income or expense is classified as an exceptional item and accordingly disclosed in the notes to accounts.

7. Property, plant and equipment (PPE)

PPE is recognised when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can measured reliably. PPE is stated at original cost net of tax/duty credits availed, if any, less accumulated depreciation and cumulative impairment. Property, plant and equipment acquired on hire purchase basis are stated at their cash values. Cost includes professional fees and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Company's accounting policy.

For transition to Ind AS, the carrying value of PPE under i-GAAP as on April 1, 2015 is regarded as its deemed cost. The carrying value was original cost less accumulated depreciation and cumulative impairment.

Administrative and other general overhead expenses that are specifically attributable to construction or acquisition of PPE or bringing the PPE to working condition are allocated and capitalised as a part of the cost of the PPE.

PPE not ready for the intended use on the date of the Balance Sheet are disclosed as "capital work-in-progress". (Also refer to policy on leases, borrowing costs, impairment of assets and foreign currency transactions stated below.)

Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line method on the basis of the useful life as specified in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013, except in certain assets where the useful life was determined by technical evaluation. Depreciation method is reviewed at each financial year end to reflect expected pattern of consumption of the future economic benefits embodied in the asset.

Where cost of a part of the asset ("asset component") is significant to total cost of the asset and useful life of that part is materially different from the useful life of the remaining asset, useful life of that significant part is determined separately and such asset component is depreciated over its separate useful life.

8. Intangible assets and amortisation

Intangible assets are stated at original cost net of tax/duty credits availed, if any, less accumulated amortization and cumulative impairment. Intangible assets are recognised when it is probable that the future economic benefits that are attributable to the asset will flow to the enterprise and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably. Administrative and other general overhead expenses that are specifically attributable to acquisition of intangible assets are allocated and capitalised as a part of the cost of the intangible assets.

Intangible assets are amortised over their estimated useful life. Amortisation on impaired assets is provided by adjusting the amortisation charges in the remaining periods so as to allocate the asset's revised carrying amount over its remaining useful life.

9. Impairment of assets

As at each Balance Sheet date, the carrying amount of asset is tested for impairment so as to determine :

a) the provision for impairment loss, if any; and

b) the reversal of impairment loss recognised in previous periods, if any,

Impairment loss is recognised when the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount

Recoverable amount is determined:

a) In the case of individual asset, at higher of the net selling price and value in use.

b) In the case of a cash generating asset, (a group of assets that generates identifiable independent cash flows), at higher of the cash generating unit's net selling price and the value in use.

(Value in use is determined as the present value of the estimated future cash flows from the continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life.)

10. Employee benefits

The following are the accounting policies of the Company with respect to Employee benefits:

Short term employee benefits

All employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering the services are classified as short term employee benefits. Benefits such as salaries, wages, short term compensated absences etc. and the expected cost of bonus, exgratia are recognized in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

11. Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. All financial assets are initially measured at fair value. Further, in case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial assets are also included in the initial measurement.

Financial assets are subsequently measured either at amortised cost or fair value.

(a) Investments in debt Instruments that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortised cost :

1) the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and

2) The contractual terms of instrument give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

All other debt instruments are recognised in profit or loss

(b) Investments in equity instruments are classified as at FVTPL, unless the Company irrevocably elects on initial recognition to present subsequent changes in fair value in Other Comprehensive Income for equity instruments which are not held for trading.

(c) All other financial assets are measured at amortised cost.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs except for government loans which are concessional or interest free) existing on the date of transition to Ind AS which are carried at their existing carrying value as per the previous Indian GAAP.

12. Inventories

Inventories representing project related work-in-progress, are valued after providing for obsolescence, at lower of cost or net realisable value.

NOTES ACCOMPANYING THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Contd..)

13. Foreign currencies

(i) The reporting currency of the Company is the Indian Rupee.

(ii) Foreign currency transactions are recorded on initial recognition in the reporting currency, using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. At each Balance Sheet date, foreign currency monetary items are reported using the closing rate. Non-monetary items carried at historical cost denominated in a foreign currency, are reported using the exchange rate on the date of the transaction.

(iii) Exchange differences that arise on settlement of monetary items or on reporting of monetary items at each Balance Sheet date at the closing rate are recognized as income or expense in the period in which they arise.

14. Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs include interest expense calculated using the effective interest method, finance charges in respect of assets acquired on finance lease and exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings, to the extent they are regarded as an adjustment to interest costs.

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised / inventoried as part of cost of such asset till such time the asset is ready for its intended use or sale. A qualifying asset is an asset that necessarily requires a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

15. Taxes on income

Tax on income for the current year is determined on the basis of taxable income and tax credits computed in accordance with the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961, and based on expected outcome of assessments / appeals.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the Company's financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in computation of taxable profit and quantified using the tax rates and laws enacted or substantively enacted as on the Balance Sheet date.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, and interests in joint ventures, except where the Company is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets relating to unabsorbed depreciation/business losses/losses under the head "capital gains" are recognised and carried forward to the extent of available taxable temporary differences or where there is convincing other evidence that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

Other deferred tax assets are recognised and carried forward to the extent it is probable that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

Transaction or event which is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or in equity, is recorded along with the tax as applicable.

16. Leases

The determination of whether an agreement is, or contains, a lease is based on the substance of the agreement at the date of inception.

17. Cash and Bank Balances

Cash and bank balances also include fixed deposits, margin money deposits, earmarked balances with banks and other bank balances which have restrictions on repatriation. Short term and liquid investments being not free from more than insignificant risk of change in value, are not included as part of cash and cash equivalents.

18. Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognised for liabilities that can be measured only by using a substantial degree of estimation, if :

i) the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event.

ii) it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; and

iii) the amount of the obligation can be reliably estimated.

Reimbursement expected in respect of expenditure required to settle a provision is recognized only when it is virtually certain that the reimbursement will be received.

Contingent liability is disclosed in the case of :

i) a present obligation arising from a past event, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation.

ii) a present obligation, arising from the past events when no reliable estimate is possible;

Contingent assets are disclosed where an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

NOTES ACCOMPANYING THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Contd..)

19. Commitments

Commitments are future liabilities for contractual expenditure.

Commitments are classified as and disclosed as follows:

i) Estimated amount of contracts remaining to be executed on capital account and not provided for.

ii) Uncalled liability on shares and other investments partly paid.

iii) Funding related commitment to Subsidiary, Associate and Joint Venture Companies.

iv) Other non-cancellable commitments, if any, to the extent they are considered material and relevant in the opinion of the management.

Other commitments related to sales/procurements made in the normal course of business are not disclosed to avoid excessive details.

20. Non-current assets held for sale

Non-current assets (and disposal groups) classified as held for sale are measured at lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell.

21. Cash Flow Statement

Cash Flow Statement is prepared segregating the cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities. Cash flow from operating activities is reported using indirect method. Under the indirect method, the net profit is adjusted for the effects of:

(i) transactions of a non-cash nature

(ii) any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments; and

(iii) items of income or expense associated with investing or financing cash flows.

Cash and cash equivalents (including bank balances) are reflected as such in the Cash Flow Statement . Those cash and cash equivalents which are not available for general use as on the date of Balance Sheet are also included under this category with a specific disclosure.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF L&T SAPURA OFFSHORE PRIVATE LIMITED

Report on the Ind AS financial statements

We have audited the accompanying Ind AS financial statements of L&T Sapura Offshore Private Limited ('the Company'), which comprise the balance sheet as at 31 March 2017, the statement of profit and loss (including other comprehensive income), the cash flow statement and the statement of changes in equity for the year then ended, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (herein after referred to as 'Ind AS financial statements').

Management's responsibility for the Ind AS financial statements

The Company's board of directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') with respect to the preparation of these Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with relevant rules issued thereunder.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these Ind AS financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit of the Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Ind AS financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the Ind AS financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Ind AS financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Ind AS financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Ind AS financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India including the Ind AS, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31 March 2017, its financial performance including other comprehensive income, its cash flows and the changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

ANNEXURE B TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT OF EVEN DATE ON THE IND AS FINANCIAL STATEMENT OF L&T SAPURA OFFSHORE PRIVATE LIMITED

(Referred to in paragraph 2(f) of our report of even date)

Report on the internal financial controls under clause (i) of sub-section (3) of section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act')

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of L&T Sapura Offshore Private Limited ('the Company') as of 31 March 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the Ind AS financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's responsibility for internal financial controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ('the Guidance Note') issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('the ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable, to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involved performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of internal financial controls over financial reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of Ind AS financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that: (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of Ind AS financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the Ind AS financial statements.

Inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.

1) SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A. COMPANY OVERVIEW

L&T Sapura Offshore Private Limited (LTSOPL) is a joint venture between Limited L&T Hydrocarbon Engineering Limited and Sapura Kencana Petroluem Berhad, Malaysia (Sapura) who has invested through it's wholly owned subsidiary Nautical Power Pte Limited, Singapore (Nautical). L&T Hydrocarbon Engineering Limited holds 60% of the share capital and Nautical holds 40%. Company provides engineering and installation services for installation of offshore platforms and laying of pipes and cables under the sea for the Hydrocarbon Upstream industry.

B. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of accounting

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values, the provisions of the Companies Act , 2013 ('Act') (to the extent notified). The Ind AS are prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2016.

The Company has adopted all the Ind AS standards and the adoption was carried out in accordance with Ind AS 101 First time adoption of Indian Accounting Standards. The transition was carried out from Indian Accounting Principles generally accepted in India as prescribed under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 (IGAAP), which was the previous GAAP. Reconciliations and descriptions of the effect of the transition has been summarized in note 2.1. Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

2. Revenue recognition

(a) Revenue from construction/project related activity is recognised as follows:

(i) Cost plus contract: Contract revenue is determined by adding the aggregate cost plus proportionate margin as agreed with the customer

(ii) Fixed price contract: Contract revenue represent the cost of work performed on the contract plus proportionate margin using the percentage completion method. Percentage of completion is determined as a proportion of cost of work performed to date to the total estimated contract cost.

(b) Income from Engineering services is recognised on accrual basis

(c) Interest Income is recognised on accrual basis

3. Foreign currency

Functional Currency

The functional currency of the company is the Indian rupee. These financial statements are presented in Indian rupees.

Transactions and translations

Foreign-currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated into the relevant functional currency at exchange rates in effect at the balance sheet date. The gains or losses resulting from such translations are included in net profit in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Non-monetary assets and non – monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at fair value are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at historical cost are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date of the transaction.

Transaction gains or losses realized upon settlement of foreign currency transactions are included in determining net profit for the period in which the transaction is settled. Revenue, expense and cash-flow items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the relevant functional currencies using the exchange rate in effect on the date of the transaction.

4. Property Plant & Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and impairment, if any. Costs directly attributable to acquisition are capitalized until the property, plant and equipment are ready for use, as intended by management. The company depreciates property, plant and equipment over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives of assets are as follows:

NOTES FORMING PART OF FINANCIAL STATEMENT (Contd.)

Office Equipment	4-5 Years
Computers	3 Years
Furniture Fixture	10 Years
Intangible Assets	6 Years

Depreciation is provided in the accounts based on useful life of assets as per schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013.

Depreciation for additions to /deductions is calculated pro rata from / to the month of additions / deductions.

Assets with acquisition value less than ₹ 5,000 will be depreciated fully during the financial year.

5. Financial instruments

5.1 Initial recognition

The Company recognizes financial assets and financial liabilities when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All financial assets and liabilities are recognized at fair value on initial recognition, except for trade receivables which are initially measured at transaction price. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities,that are not at fair value through profit or loss, are added to the fair value on initial recognition. Regular way purchase and sale of financial assets are accounted for at trade date.

5.2 Subsequent Measurement:

i) Financial assets carried at amortised cost

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortised cost if it is held with in a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

ii) Financial Liabilities

Financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method, except for contingent consideration recognized in a business combination which is subsequently measured at fair value through profit and loss. For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the Balance Sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

5.3 Derecognition of financial instruments

The company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition under Ind AS 109. A financial liability (or a part of a financial liability) is derecognized from the Company's Balance Sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

6. Impairment of assets

As at each balance sheet date, the carrying amount of assets is tested for impairment so as to determine:

A) the provision for impairment loss, if any, required ; or

B) the reversal of impairment loss recognized in previous periods.

Impairment loss is recognized when the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount.

Recoverable amount is determined in the case of an individual asset, at the higher of the net selling price and the value in use;

(Value in use is determined as the present value of estimated future cash flows from the continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life.)

7. Taxes on income

Tax on income for the current year is determined on the basis of taxable income and tax credits computed in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act 1961, and based on the expected outcome of assessments / appeals.

Deferred tax is recognised on timing differences between the income accounted in financial statement and the taxable income for the year, and quantified using the tax rates and laws enacted or substantively enacted as on the Balance Sheet date.

Deferred tax assets relating to unabsorbed depreciation / business losses / losses under the head "Capital Gains" are recognised and carried forward to the extent there is virtual certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

Other deferred tax assets are recognised and carried forward to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

8. Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognised for liabilities that can be measured only by using a substantial degree of estimation, if

A) the Company has a present obligation as a result of a past event,

B) a probable outflow of resources is expected to settle the obligation and

C) the amount of the obligation can be reliably estimated.

Reimbursement expected in respect of expenditure required to settle a provision is recognised only when it is virtually certain that the reimbursement will be received.

Contingent liability is disclosed in case of:

A) a present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation

B) a present obligation arising from past events when no reliable estimate is possible;

C) a possible obligation arising from past events where the probability of outflow of resources is not remote.

Contingent assets are neither recognised nor disclosed.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

9. Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, where by profit for the period is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

2) NOTES TO THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2017

2.1 First time adoption of Ind-As

These financial statements of L&T Sapura Offshore Private Limited for the year ended March 31, 2017 have been prepared in accordance with Ind AS. For the purposes of transition to Ind AS, the Company has followed the guidance prescribed in Ind AS 101 - First Time adoption of Indian.

Accounting Standard, with April 1, 2015 as the transition date and IGAAP as the previous GAAP.

The transition to Ind AS has not resulted in changes in the presentation of the financial statements, disclosures in the notes thereto and accounting policies and principles.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Report No: 251/01/DPL/III/TI-3/17

Shareholders, Board of Commissioners and Directors
PT TAMCO INDONESIA

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of PT Tamco Indonesia (the "Company), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2016 and the statements of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the year then ended and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of such financial statements in accordance with Indonesian Financial Accounting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

AUDITORS' RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on such financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Standards on Auditing established by the Indonesian Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of PT Tamco Indonesia as of December 31, 2016 and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Indonesian Financial Accounting Standards.

EMPHASIS OF MATTER

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 24 to the accompanying financial statements, the Company has been experiencing recurring losses and has accumulated deficit and capital deficiency amounting to Rp 101,555,572,119 and Rp 75,727,761,169, respectively, as of December 31, 2016. Note 24 also disclosed management's plans to overcome these matters. Our opinion is not modified respect to this matter.

a. Adding illustrative examples to clarify that the temporary differences are deductible arise when the carrying amount of assets debt instruments measured at fair value and the fair value is less than the taxable base, regardless of whether the entity estimates to recover the carrying amount of a debt instrument through sale or use of, for example, to have and receive contractual cash flows, or a combination of both.

b. Clarifying that to determine whether the taxable income will be available so that the deductible temporary differences can be utilized, the valuation deductible temporary differences would be in line with tax regulations.

c. Adding that the tax reduction from the reversal of deferred tax assets is excluded from the estimate of future taxable income. Then the entity compares deductible temporary differences to the estimated future taxable income that does not include tax reduction resulting from the reversal of deferred tax assets to assess whether the entity has a sufficient future taxable income.

d. Estimate of the most likely future taxable income can include recovery of certain assets of the entity exceeds its carrying amount if there is sufficient evidence that it is likely that the entity will achieve.

- PSAK No. 58 (Improvement 2016), "Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations" which is effective for the period beginning on or after January 1, 2017. This PSAK No. 58 (Improvement 2016) clarifies that the change from one method of disposal to other disposal methods to be regarded as the beginning of a sustainable plan and not as a new disposal plan. This improvement also clarifies that the change in the method of this disposal does not change the date of classification as an asset or disposal group.
- PSAK No. 60 (Improvement 2016), "Financial Instruments: Disclosures", which is effective for the period beginning on or after January 1, 2017. This PSAK No. 60 (Improvement 2016) clarifies that an entity must assess the nature of the contract in exchange for services as provided in paragraph PP30 and paragraphs 42C to determine whether the entity has a continuing involvement in financial assets and whether the disclosure requirements related to continuing involvement are met.
- PSAK No. 69, "Agriculture" which is effective for the period beginning on or after January 1, 2018. This PSAK No. 69 stipulates that a biological asset or agricultural products are recognized when fulfilling some of the same criteria as the criteria for asset recognition. Such assets are measured at initial recognition and at the end of each financial reporting period at fair value less costs to sell. Differences arising from changes in fair value of assets recognized in profit and loss incurred. Exceptions are granted if the fair value clearly cannot be measured reliably. PSAK No. 69 also provides an exception for assets which are excluded from scope. Accounting arrangements for such productive assets refers to PSAK No. 16, "Property, Plant and Equipment". PSAK No. 69 does not regulate the processing of agricultural products after harvest.
- ISAK No. 31, "Interpretation to Scope under PSAK No. 1, "Investment Property" which is effective for the period beginning on or after January 1, 2017. This ISAK No. 31 provides an interpretation of the characteristics of the building that is used as part of the definition of investment property under PSAK No. 13, "Investment Property". The building referred to in the definition of investment property refers to structures that have physical characteristics that are generally associated with a building on its walls, floors, and roofs embedded to the asset.

Several SAKs and ISAKs including amendments and annual improvements that became effective in the current year and are relevant to the Company operation have been adopted as disclosed in the "Summary of Significant Accounting Polices".

Other SAKs and ISAKs that are not relevant to the Company operation or might affect the accounting policies in the future are being evaluated by the management the potential impact that might arise from the adoption of these standards to the financial statements.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies have been applied consistently in the preparation of financial statements except for the adoption of several new and revised SAKs and ISAKs that effective on January 1, 2016, as follows:

a. Compliance Statements

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with SAK, which comprises the Statements and Interpretations issued by the Board of Financial Accounting Standards of the Indonesian Institute of Accountants, including applicable new and revised standards, effective on January 1, 2016.

b. Basis for the Preparation of Financial Statements

The measurement in the financial statements is historical cost concept, except for certain accounts which are measured on the bases described in the related accounting policies of respective account.

The statements of cash flows, which have been prepared using the indirect method, present cash receipts and payments classified into operating, investing and financing activities.

The reporting currency used in the preparation of the financial statements is Rupiah (Rp) which also represents functional currency of the Company.

When the company adopts accounting policy retrospectively or restates items in its financial statements or the company reclassifies the items in its financial statements, the financial statements at the beginning of comparative period are presented.

c. Cash on Hand and Cash in Banks

Cash is the means of payment that ready and free to be used to finance the activities of the Company.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT AS OF AND FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 2016 (Contd.)

Cash and cash equivalents consists of cash on hand and cash in bank and which are not collateralized for the loans and all unrestricted investment with maturities of three months or less from the date of placements.

d. Inventory

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or not realizable value. Cost is determined by “the moving average method”. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the costs of completion and selling expenses.

e. Prepaid Expenses

Prepaid expenses are amortized over their beneficial using the straight line method.

f. Property, Plant and Equipment

The Company has chosen the cost model for measurement of their property, plant and equipment.

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the useful life of the assets. Estimated useful lives as follows:

	Year
Building	20
Plant and equipment	10
Office equipment	5
Motor vehicle	5

At the end of each financial year, management reviewed the residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation, and if appropriate, adjusted prospectively.

Land is stated at cost and not depreciated, unless it can be proven that the land has a certain useful life. Certain cost associated with the acquisition of land at the time of acquisition was first recognized as part of the acquisition of land.

ISAK No. 25, “Land Rights”, the costs associated with the extension of land rights are deferred and amortized over the life of legal rights to land or economic life of the land (if it can be determined), which is shorter. Such costs are presented as part of “Deferred Charges” as intangible assets component in the statement of financial position.

The cost of repairs and maintenance is charged to the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income as incurred; replacement or inspection costs are capitalized when incurred, and if it is probable future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company, and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably.

The carrying amount of plant, property and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income in the year the asset is derecognized.

Construction in progress is presented in the “Property, Plant and Equipment” and is stated at cost. The accumulated cost for the construction in progress is transferred to respective property, plant and equipment when the assets are completed and ready for intended use.

g. Transaction with Related Parties

The Entity deals transactions with related parties as defined in PSAK No. 7 (Revised 2010), “Related Party Disclosures” and PSAK No. 7 (Improvements 2015), “Related Party Disclosures”.

This PSAK requires disclosure of relationships, transactions and balances related parties, including commitments in the financial statements and separate financial statements of the parent entity also applies to individual financial statements.

This PSAK also introduces an exemption from the general related party disclosure requirements for transactions with government and entities that are controlled, jointly controlled or significantly influenced by the same Government as the reporting entity (Government related entities).

Related party is a person or an company related to the company that prepares financial statements (the reporting company).

a. A person or a close member of that person’s family is related to the reporting company if that person:
   (i) has control or joint control over the reporting company;
   (ii) has significant influence over the reporting company; or
   (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the reporting company or of a parent of the reporting company.

b. A company is related to the reporting company if any of the following conditions applies:
   (i) the company and the reporting Company are members of the same Company (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others);

(ii) one company is an associate or joint venture of the other company (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a Company of which the other company is a member);

(iii) both company are joint ventures of the same third party;

(iv) one company is a joint venture of a third company and the other company is a associate in third company;

(v) the company is a post-employment defined benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the reporting company or an company related to the reporting company. If the reporting company in itself such a plan, the sponsoring employers are also related to the reporting company;

(vi) the company is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in a;

(vii) a person identified in a (1) has significant influence over the company or is a member of the key management personnel of the company (or of a parent of the company).

The transaction was conducted on terms agreed by both parties, which terms may not be the same as other transactions conducted by parties who are not related.

All transactions and balances with significant related parties, whether or not conducted with the terms and conditions, as was done with the parties that have no relation to related parties, have been disclosed in the relevant notes to the financial statements.

h. Financial Instruments

The Company adopted PSAK No. 50 (Revised 2014), “Financial Instruments: Presentation”, PSAK No. 55 (Revised 2014), “Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement”, and PSAK No. 60 (Revised 2014), “Financial Instruments: Disclosures”. In addition, the Company also adopted ISAK No. 13, “Hedges of a Net Investment in a Foreign Operation” and ISAK No. 26 (Revised 2014), “Reassessment of Embedded Derivatives”.

PSAK 50 (Revised 2014), “Financial Instruments: Presentation”, outlines the accounting requirements for the presentation of financial instruments, particularly as to the classification of such instruments into financial assets, financial liabilities and equity instruments. The standard also provide guidance on the classification of related interest, dividends and gains/losses, and when financial assets and financial liabilities can be offset.

The principles in this standard complement the principles for recognizing and measuring financial assets and financial liabilities in PSAK No. 55 (Revised 2014), Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement”, and for disclosing information about them in PSAK No. 60 (Revised 2014), “Financial Instruments: Disclosures”

PSAK No. 55 (Revised 2014) deals with, among other things, initial recognition of financial assets and liabilities, measurement subsequent to initial recognition, impairment, derecognition, and hedge accounting.

PSAK No. 60 (Revised 2014) requires quantitative and qualitative disclosures in the financial statements that enable users to evaluate the significance of financial instruments on the financial position and performance, and the nature and extent of risks arising from financial instruments to which the company is exposed during the period and at the end of the reporting period and how the company manages such risks. In addition, this standard describes the requirement for disclosure of liquidity risk.

ISAK No. 26 (Revised 2014) confirms the treatment in PSAK No. 55 (Revised 2014) that a company should assess whether an embedded derivative is required to be separated from the host contract and accounted for as a derivative when the company first becomes a party to the contract.

(1) Financial Assets

Initial Recognition and Measurement

Financial assets are recognized on the financial position when the company becomes a party to the contractual provision of the instrument.

Financial assets within the scope of PSAK No. 55 (Revised 2014) are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL), held-to-maturity investments (HTM), loan and receivables, or available-for-sale (AFS) financial assets. The Company determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition and, where allowed and appropriate, re-evaluates the classification of the assets at each reporting date.

Financial assets are initially measured at fair value, in the case of investments not classified as at FVTPL, fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issuance of financial assets.

Subsequent Measurement

Subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

- Financial Assets at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL)

  Financial assets are classified as FVTPL when the financial assets acquired for trading or designated upon initial recognition as FVTPL. Financial assets are classified as held for trading if acquired for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near future. Derivative assets are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as derivative assets effective hedging instruments.

Financial assets at FVTPL include financial assets held for trading and financial assets designated upon initial recognition as FVTPL are presented in the statement of financial position at fair value with gains or losses from changes in fair value recognized in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income include dividends or interest earned on financial assets without deducting transaction costs that may occur upon the sale or other disposal.

- Held-to-Maturity Investments (HTM)

  Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and maturity are classified as HTM investments when the Company has the positive intention and ability to hold them until maturity.

  After initial measurement, investments HTM are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method (EIR).

  This method uses the EIR for discounted estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the net carrying amount of the financial asset.

  Gains and losses are recognized in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income when the investments are derecognized or impaired, as well as through the amortization process.

- Loans and Receivables

  Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and have no quotations in an active market.

  After initial recognition, the financial assets are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method (EIR).

  Gains and losses are recognized in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income when the loans and receivables are derecognized or impaired, as well as through the amortization process.

- Available-for-Sales (AFS) Financial Assets

  AFS financial assets are non-derivative financial assets that are designated as AFS or are not classified into the three preceding categories. Financial assets are classified as non-current assets unless the asset is intended to be released within twelve months from the date of the financial position.

  After initial measurement, AFS financial assets are measured at fair value without deducting transaction costs that may occur when a sale or other disposal, with unrealized gains or losses recognized as OCI in equity component until the investment is derecognized.

  At that time, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognized in equity component until the financial asset is derecognized or until to be determined impaired and at the same time the cumulative gain or loss previously recognized in equity should be recognized to the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income as a reclassification adjustment.

(2) Financial Liabilities

Initial Recognition and Measurement

Financial liabilities are recognized on the financial position when the company becomes a party to the contractual provision of the instrument.

Financial liabilities within the scope of PSAK No. 55 (Revised 2014) are classified as financial liabilities measured at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL), financial liabilities that are measured at amortized cost (other payables and derivatives designated as effective hedging instruments, which appropriate). The Company determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition.

Financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value and in the case of financial liabilities not classified as at FVTPL, fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issuance of financial liabilities.

Subsequent Measurement

Subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

- Financial Liabilities at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL)

  Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near future. Derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as derivative liabilities effective hedging instruments. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognized in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

  Financial liabilities that are designated as financial liabilities at FVTPL include financial liabilities held for trading and designated upon initial recognition as FVTPL are presented in the statement of financial position at fair value with gains or losses from changes in fair value recognized in statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

- Financial Liabilities at Amortized Cost

  After initial recognition, financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost using the EIR.

Amortized cost is calculated by using the EIR method less any allowance for impairment and financing or principal reduction. The calculation takes into account any premium or discount on acquisition and includes transaction costs and fees that are an integral part of the effective interest rate.

Gains and losses are recognized in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income when the liabilities are derecognized as well as through the amortization process.

(3) Offsetting of Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the statement of financial position if, and only if, there is a legal right to offset the carrying amount of financial assets and financial liabilities and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

(4) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair value of financial instruments that are actively traded in organized financial markets is determined by reference to their quoted prices in an active market at the close of business on the financial position date without any deduction for transaction costs. For financial instruments with no active market, fair value is determined using valuation techniques.

Such techniques may include the use of fair market transactions between the parties who understand and are willing to (arm's length transactions), referring to the current fair value of another instrument that is substantially the same, discounted cash flow analysis or other valuation models as required in PSAK No. 68 "Fair Value Measurement".

Credit Risk Adjustment

The Company adjusts the price in the more advantageous market to reflect any differences in counterparty credit risk between instruments traded in that market and the instruments being valued for financial asset positions. In determining the fair value of financial liabilities position, the Company's credit risk associated with the instrument should be taken into account.

(5) Impairment of Financial Assets

The Company evaluates at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial assets has been impaired.

- Financial Assets Measured at Amortized Cost

  For loans and receivables carried at amortized cost, the Company determines individually for impairment based on objective evidence of impairment exists.

  The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account and the amount of the loss is recognized in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income. Interest income is recognized further at the carrying reduced value, based on the beginning EIR of the asset. Loans and receivables, together with the associated allowance are written-off when there is no realistic possibility of future recovery and all collateral has been realized or has been transferred to the Company.

  If, in a subsequent period, the estimated value of the financial asset impairment loss increases or decreases because of an event occurring after the impairment was recognized, the impairment loss previously recognized increased or reduced by adjusting the allowance account. If future removal can be recovered, the recovery amount is recognized in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

- Available-for-Sales (AFS) Financial Assets

  In this case the equity instruments are classified as AFS financial assets, objective evidence of impairment, including the significant or long-term decline in the fair value of the investment below its acquisition cost.

(6) Derecognition of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities

Financial Assets

Financial assets (or whichever is appropriate, part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) are derecognized when: (1) the contractual rights to receive the cash flows from the asset have ceased to exist; or (2) the Company has transferred its contractual rights to receive the cash flows from the financial asset or an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without significant delay to a third party in the pass-through; and either (a) the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the assets, or (b) the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

Financial Liabilities

Financial liabilities are derecognized when the liability is terminated or canceled or expired. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another financial liabilities from the same lender on substantially different terms, or substantially modify the terms of a liability that currently exists, an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the initial liability and the recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the carrying amount of each liability recognized in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

(7) Reclassification of Financial Instruments

The Company does not classify financial assets as held-to-maturity investments, if in the current year or during the two previous years, sold or reclassified as held to maturity investments in amounts of more than an insignificant amount before maturity (more than the insignificant amount compared to the total value of investments held to maturity), except for sales or reclassifications that:

- done when the financial asset is approaching maturity or date of redemption in which changes in interest rates will not significantly affect the fair value of the financial asset;
- occurred after the Company has acquired substantially all of the principal amount of the financial asset in accordance with the payment schedule or accelerated settlement; or
- associated with certain events that are beyond the control of the Company, non-recurring and could not have been reasonably anticipated by the Company.

Reclassification of financial assets held-to-maturity to available-for-sale is recorded at fair value. Unrealized gains or losses are recognized in the equity until the financial asset is derecognized, and the cumulative gain or loss previously recognized in equity should be recognized in the statements of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

i. Revenues and Expenses Recognition

The Company applied PSAK No. 23 (Revised 2010), “Revenue”. This Revised PSAK identifies the circumstances in which the criteria on revenue recognition will be met and, therefore revenue may be recognized and prescribes the accounting treatment of revenues arising from certain types of transactions and even and also provides practical guidance on application of the criteria on revenue recognition. Expenses are recognized when incurred (accrual basis).

j. Transaction of Foreign Currencies

The Company adopted PSAK No. 10 (Revised 2010), “The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates”

This revised standard sets up measurement and presentation currency of an entity in which the measurement currency should use a functional currency as the presentation currency may use a currency other than the functional currency.

In determining the functional currency of the entity to consider the following factors:

a. Currency that most influences the selling price for goods and services, or from a country whose competitive forces and legislation largely determine the selling price of goods and services;
b. Currency that most influences the cost of labor, material and other costs of the procurement of goods or services;
c. The currency in which funds from financing activities (i.e. issuing debt and equity instruments) are produced;
d. The currency in which receipts from operating activities are usually retained.

The Company’s using the Rupiah currency as the functional and the reporting.

Transactions in foreign currencies are recorded into Rupiah using the exchange rate at the transactions incurred. On the date of the statement of financial position, monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are adjusted to Rupiah using the middle rate set by Bank Indonesia on the last banking day of the period. Gains or losses are credited or charged to the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

The exchange rates used are the middle exchange rate announced by Bank Indonesia, as follows:

December 31, 2016	Rp13,436/ 1 USD
December 31, 2015	Rp13,795/ 1 USD

k. Employee Benefits

The Company adopts an unfunded defined benefit plan and records employee benefits to cover adequately the benefits under the Law No. 13 year 2003.

Recognition

The cost of providing employee benefits should be recognized in the period in which the benefit is earned by the employee, rather than when it is paid or payable.

The components of defined benefit cost are recognized as follows:

1. Service cost attributable to the current and past periods is recognized in profit or loss;
2. Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset, determined using the discount rate at the beginning of the period is recognized in profit or loss;
3. Remeasurements of the net defined benefit liability or asset, comprising:
   - actuarial gains and losses;
   - return on plan assets;

- Any changes in the effect of the asset ceiling, excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability (asset).

is recognized in OCI (not reclassified to profit or loss in a subsequent period).

Measurement

The measurement of a net defined benefit liability or assets requires the application of an actuarial valuation method, the attribution of benefits to periods of service, and the use of actuarial assumptions. The fair value of any plan assets is deducted from the present value of the defined benefit obligation in determining the net deficit or surplus.

The present value of an entity's defined benefit obligations and related service costs is determined using the "Projected Unit Credit" method, which sees each period of service as giving rise to an additional unit of benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately in building up the final obligation. This requires an entity to attribute benefit to the current period (to determine current service cost) and the current and prior periods (to determine the present value of defined benefit obligations). Benefit is attributed to periods of service using the plan's benefit formula, unless an employee's service in later years will lead to a materially higher of benefit than in earlier years, in which case a straight-line basis is used.

Past service cost is the change in a defined benefit obligation for employee service in prior periods, arising as a result of changes to plan arrangements in the current period (i.e. plan amendments introducing or changing benefits payable, or curtailments which significantly reduce the number of covered employees).

Past service cost is recognized as an expense at the earlier of the date when a plan amendment or curtailment occurs and the date when a company recognizes any termination benefits, or related restructuring costs under PSAK No. 57," Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets".

Gains or losses on the settlement of a defined benefit plan are recognized when the settlement occurs.

Before past service costs are determined, or a gain or loss on settlement is recognized, the net defined benefit liability or asset is required to be remeasured, however a company is not required to distinguish between past service costs resulting from curtailments and gains and losses on settlement where these transactions occur together.

l. Income Tax

The Company adopted PSAK No. 46 (Revised 2014), "Income Taxes". Besides, the Company also adopted ISAK No. 20, "Income Taxes: Changes in the Tax Status of an Enterprise or its Shareholders".

Recognition

Current tax for current and prior periods, to the extent unpaid, is recognized as a liability. If the amount already paid in respect of current and prior periods exceeds the amount due for those periods, the excess is recognized as an asset.

Deferred tax liability is recognized for all taxable temporary differences unless the deferred tax liability arises from:

a. initial recognition of goodwill;

b. the initial recognition of an asset/liability

   i. other than in a business combination which,

   ii. at the time of the transaction, does not affect either the accounting or the taxable profit.

c. temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, branches, and associates, and interests in joint arrangements, but only to the extent that the Company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the differences and it is probable that the reversal will not occur in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax asset is recognized for deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilized unless the deferred tax asset arises from:

a. the initial recognition of an asset or liability

   i. other than in a business combination,

   ii. at the time of the transaction, does not affect accounting profit or taxable profit (loss).

b. deductible temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, branches and associates, and interests in joint arrangements, are only recognized to the extent that:

   i. it is probable that the temporary difference will reverse in the foreseeable future and

   ii. that taxable profit will be available against which the temporary difference will be utilized.

Measurement

Current tax liabilities (assets) for the current and prior periods is measured at the amount expected to be paid to (recovered from) the taxation authorities, using the tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted for the reporting period.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT AS OF AND FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 2016 (Contd.)

Deferred tax assets and liabilities shall be measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted for the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities cannot be discounted.

The carrying amount of a deferred tax asset shall be reviewed at the end of each reporting period. The Company shall reduce the carrying amount of a deferred tax asset to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow the benefit of part or all of that deferred tax asset to be utilized. Any such reduction shall be reversed to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available.

Allocation

For transactions and other events recognized in profit or loss, any related tax effects are also recognized in profit or loss. For transactions and other events recognized outside profit or loss (either in OCI or directly in equity), any related tax effects are also recognized outside profit or loss (either in OCI or directly in equity, respectively). Similarly, the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities in a business combination affects the amount of goodwill arising in that business combination or the amount of the bargain purchase gain recognized.

Offset

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if, and only if, legally enforceable right exists to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities, or deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to the same taxable company, or the Company intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

m. Tax amnesty Assets and Liabilities

The Company applies PSAK No. 70, “Accounting Treatment for Tax Amnesty Assets and Liabilities”.

PSAK No. 70 provides accounting policy options for an entity who recognizes assets and liabilities in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Amnesty Law based on its Assets Declaration Letter for Tax Amnesty (Surat Pernyataan Harta untuk Pengampunan Pajak/Surat Pernyataan Harta (SPHPP) or Tax Amnesty Approval Letter (Surat Keterangan Pengampunan Pajak/Surat Keterangan (SKPP).

The alternative accounting options are:

a. To use the existing applicable standards under Indonesia Financial Accounting Standards (“PSAK”) (General Approach) as regulated in paragraph 6 PSAK No.70 ; or

b. To use the specific provisions in paragraphs 10-23 of the PSAK No. 70 (Optional Approach).

Initially the entity recognizes the difference between the tax amnesty assets and the related tax amnesty liabilities as additional paid-in capital (APIC) account in equity. The amount shall not be recycled to profit or loss or reclassify to retained earnings subsequently.

The Company recognizes the redemption money (the amount of tax paid in accordance with Tax Amnesty Law) directly to profit or loss in the period when the SKPP is received.

The Company adjusts any balances of claim, deferred tax assets and provisions into profit and loss in the period when SKPP received according to Tax Amnesty Law as a result of waivers of tax dues that have been recognized as a claim for tax refund, deferred tax assets on accumulated tax losses that have not been compensated and tax provision before applying this PSAK.

a. General Approach

Recognition and Measurement

The Company recognizes and measures, either initial or subsequent measurement as well as derecognition and presentation on tax amnesty assets and liabilities if such assets and liabilities recognition criteria are required by relevant Financial Accounting Standards (SAK) and measurement, derecognize and presentation apply each associated relevant SAK.

Under this approach, the provision of paragraph 41-53 of PSAK No. 25, “Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors” shall be applied.

b. Optional Approach

Recognition

The recognition criteria in accordance with that of the accounting standards to be applied to the tax amnesty assets and liabilities in a similar way to the General Approach. This approach provides an exception specific, alternative, and the specific requirements in terms of measurement, presentation and disclosure of tax amnesty assets and liabilities in accordance with the provisions in paragraph 10-23 of PSAK No. 70.

Initial Measurement

Tax amnesty assets are measured at cost of tax amnesty assets, the amount reported in SPHPP or SKPP and constituting as deemed cost.

Tax amnesty liabilities are measured at contractual obligation to deliver cash and cash equivalents to settle the obligations directly related to the acquisition of assets of tax amnesty.

Subsequent Measurement

i. Optional Re-measurement

The Company is allowed, but is not required, to re-measure tax amnesty assets and liabilities at fair value in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards (SAK) as at the date of the SKPPP. The difference re-measurement between the fair value on the date of the SKPP and the cost of tax amnesty assets and liabilities that has been recognized previously is adjusted into the balance of the additional paid-in capital. There measurement amount becomes a new basis for the entity in applying the provisions of measurement subsequent to initial recognition.

ii. Mandatory Re-measurement

If the Company concludes that the tax amnesty has resulted in obtaining control over the investee in accordance with PSAK No. 65, “Consolidated Financial Statements”, the entity is required to re-measure assets and liabilities at the date of the SKPP, during the re-measurement period that begins after the date of Tax Amnesty Approval Letter (SKPP) until December 31, 2017. The entity applies consolidation procedures in accordance with PSAK No. 65 once the re-measurement is performed. During the date of the SKPP until the re-measurement is made, the entity is required to measure investments in subsidiaries using the cost method.

In the event that the investee is not an entity under common control, it shall apply the provisions of measurement under PSAK No. 22, “Business Combinations” on the date of SKPP.

If the investee is an entity under common control, it applies the provisions of measurement under PSAK No. 38, “Business Combinations Under Common Control” on the date of SKPP.

Derecognition

Tax amnesty assets and liabilities are derecognized in accordance with the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards (SAK) for each type of asset and the liability.

Presentation

Tax amnesty assets and liabilities, if it does not implement the re-measurement, are presented separately from other assets and liabilities (different line items for assets and liabilities) in the statement of financial position.

The entity presents current assets and non-current and short-term and long-term as a separate classification in its statement of financial position, an entity can present separately tax amnesty assets - current and non-current and tax amnesty liability - short term and long term, if, and only if, the entity has sufficient information to carry out the separation of the classification. If the basis for selecting these classifications are arbitrary, then the entity presents as part of non-current assets and long-term liabilities in the statement of financial position.

If a Company applies re-measurement either optional remeasurement or mandatory re-measurement, then Company reclassifies tax amnesty assets and liabilities which previously presented separately, into similar assets and liabilities. The Company restates the nearest period of previous financial statements, only if such financial statements are after the date of the SKPP.

The Company shall not offset between tax amnesty assets and liabilities.

Under this optional approach, the application provisions of PSAK No. 70 is prospective and restatement of the pior period financial statements is not required.

The Company has chosen optional approach and did not re-measure the tax amnesty assets and liabilities and concluded the absence of acquisition of control over investee, business combination or business combination under common control arising from tax amnesty.

4. ESTIMATES AND JUDGMENTS OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING

Judgments, Estimates and Assumptions

The preparation of financial statements requires management of the Company to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Uncertainty about the judgment, estimates and assumptions could result in material adjustments to the carrying value of assets and liabilities in-future period.

The key assumptions of the future and the other key source of uncertainty in estimation at the reporting date that have a significant risk of material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for the future period described below.

The Company bases its estimates and assumptions on the parameters available at the time the financial statements are prepared. Assumptions and situation concerning the future development may change due to market changes or circumstances beyond the control of the Company. The changes are reflected in the related assumptions as incurred.

The following judgments, estimates and assumptions made by management in implementing accounting policies of the Company has the most significant effect on the amount recognized in the financial statements.

Determining Classification of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities

The Company determines classification of certain assets and liabilities as financial assets and financial liabilities by considering the definitions set forth in PSAK No. 55 (Revised 2014) are met. Accordingly, financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized in accordance with the Company's accounting policies as disclosed in the note 26.

Determining Fair Value and Calculation of Cost Amortization of Financial Instruments

The Company records certain assets and financial liabilities at fair value and at amortized cost, which requires the use of accounting estimates. While significant components of fair value measurement and assumptions used in the calculation of cost amortization is determined using verifiable objective evidence, the amount of the fair value or amortized cost may differ if the Company uses different valuation methodologies or assumptions.

Determining of Functional Currency

The functional currency is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates. The management considers the currency that mainly influences the revenue and cost of sales and other indicators in determining the currency that most faithfully represents the economic effects of the underlying transactions, events and conditions.

Determining Recoverable Amount of Financial Assets

The Company evaluates specific accounts where it has information that a particular customer cannot meet its financial liabilities. In this case, the Company uses judgment based on available facts and circumstances, including but not limited to, terms and relationships with customers and the credit status of customers based on available credit records from third parties and known market factors, to record specific allowance for the customer against the amount owed in order to reduce the amount of the receivables that the Company expects to collect. Specific allowance is re-evaluated and adjusted if additional information received affects the amount of allowance for impairment of receivables. More detailed information is disclosed in note 6.

Determining Recoverable Amount of Non-Financial Assets

Provision for decline in market value and obsolescence of inventories is estimated based on available facts and circumstances, including but not limited to, the physical condition of inventory on hand, the selling price of the market, estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs incurred for the sale.

Provision re-evaluated and adjusted if additional information that affect the estimated amounts.

The recovery amounts of property plant and equipment are based on estimates and assumptions especially about market prospects and cash flows associated with the asset. Estimates of future cash flows include estimates of future revenues. Any changes in these assumptions may have a material impact on the measurement of recoverable amount and could result in adjustments to the allowance for impairment already booked.

Determining Depreciation Method and Estimated Useful Lives of Property, Plant and Equipment

The Company estimates the useful lives of property, plant and equipment based on the expected utilization of assets and supported by plans and business strategy and market behavior. Estimation of useful lives of property plant and equipment are provided based on the Company's evaluation on industry practice, internal technical evaluation and experience for assets equivalent.

The estimated useful lives are reviewed at least at each year end reporting and updated if expectations differ from previous estimates due to physical wear and tear, technical or commercial obsolescence and legal or other restrictions on the use of assets as well as technological developments. However, it is possible, future results of operations could be materially affected by changes in the estimates due to changes in the factors mentioned above, and therefore the future depreciation charges may be revised.

The cost of property plant and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated economic useful lives. Management estimates the useful lives of property plant and equipment 5 to 20 years. This is the age that is generally expected in the industry in which the Company does business. More detailed information disclosed in the note 9 for property, plant and equipment.

Determining Income Taxes

Significant judgments made in determining the provision for income tax. There are certain transactions and computations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business activities. The Company recognizes a liability for corporate income tax based on estimates of whether there will be an additional income tax.

In certain situations, the Company cannot determine the exact amount of their current or future tax liability due to ongoing investigation, or the negotiations with tax authorities. Uncertainties arise concerning the interpretation of complex tax regulations and the amount and timing of the taxable income in the future. In determining the amount to be recognized related to uncertain tax liabilities, the Company applies the similar consideration that they will use in determining the amount of provision that must be recognized in accordance with PSAK No. 57 (Revised 2009), "Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets". The Company makes the analysis to all tax positions related to income taxes to determine if tax liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recognized.

The Company reviews the deferred tax assets at each reporting date and reduces the carrying amount to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable income will be available to allow for part or all of the deferred tax assets to be utilized. The Company also reviews the expected timing and tax rates on the reversal of temporary differences and adjusts the impact of deferred tax accordingly. More detailed information is disclosed in note 16.

Estimated Pension Costs and Employee Benefits

The determination of liability for pension and employee benefits obligation and net employee benefits expense is subject to the selection of certain assumptions used by independent actuaries in calculating such amounts. Those assumptions include, among others, the discount rate, annual salary increase, the annual rate of resignation of employees, level of disability, retirement age and mortality and the expected rate of return of plan assets.

While the Company believes that the assumptions are reasonable and appropriate, significant differences in actual results or significant changes in assumptions defined by the Company can materially affect the estimated liability for employee benefits and pensions and net employee benefits expense. More detailed information disclosed in the note 15.

25. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Company principal financial assets comprise cash on hand and cash in banks, trade receivables and other receivables. The Company also has various financial liabilities such as trade payables, bank loan, due to related parties, accrued expenses, other current liabilities and other payables.

In 2016, the Company policy is that no hedging in financial instruments shall be liquidity. The main risks arising from the Company financial instruments are foreign currency risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Board of Directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks, which are described in more details as follows:

Foreign currency risk

The Company reporting currency is the Rupiah. The Company faces foreign exchange risk as its sales and purchases are either denominated in foreign currency (mainly the US Dollars) or whose price is significantly influenced by their benchmark price movements in foreign currencies. Currently, the Company does not have a formal hedging policy for foreign currency exposures. However, the Company main products prices would fluctuate in prices depending on the prices traded in international markets denominated in US Dollars. Such correlation in price fluctuations naturally minimizes the Company foreign currency exposures.

Credit Risk

The Company has credit risk arising from the credits granted to the customers, but it has policies in place to ensure that whole sales of products are made only to credit worthy customers with proven track records or good credit history. It is the Company's policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures. For export sales, the Company requires cash against the presentation of documents of title. The Company has policies that limit the amount of credit exposure to any particular customer. In addition, receivable balances are monitored on an ongoing basis to reduce the Company's exposure to bad debts.

When a customer fails to make payment within the granted credit terms, the Company will contact the customer to act on overdue receivable. If the customer does not settle the overdue receivable with a reasonable time, the Company will proceed with the legal actions. Depending on the Company's assessment, specific, provisions may be made if the debt is deemed uncollectible. To mitigate its credit risk, the Company will cease the supply of all products to customers in the event of late payment and/or default.

At the financial reporting date, the Company's maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each class of financial assets recognized on the statement of financial position.

The Company has no concentration of credit risk.

Liquidity risk

The Company manages its liquidity profile to be able to finance its capital expenditures and service its maturing debts by maintaining sufficient cash and cash equivalents, and the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT AS OF AND FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 2016 (Contd.)

The Company regularly evaluates its projected and actual cash flow information and continuously assesses conditions in the financial markets for opportunities.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF L&T CASSIDIAN LIMITED

REPORT ON THE IND AS FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

We have audited the accompanying Ind AS financial statements of L&T Cassidian Limited (the 'Company'), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2017 and the Statement of Income and Expenditure (including other comprehensive income), during the pre-operational period and the Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE IND AS FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act') with respect to the preparation of these Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs (financial position) and statement of income and expenditure (financial performance including other comprehensive income) of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under Section 133 of the Act read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these Ind AS financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit of the Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Ind AS financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the Ind AS financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Ind AS financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidences we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Ind AS financial statements.

OPINION

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Ind AS financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Ind AS, of the state of affairs (financial position) of the Company as at 31st March, 2017, and its excess expenditure over income during the pre-operational period (financial performance including other comprehensive income) and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

1 As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2016 (the 'Order') issued by the central government of India in terms of Section 143 (11) of the Act, we give in the Annexure 'A' a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Order to the extent applicable.

2 As required by Section 143 (3) of the Act, we report that:

ANNEXURE 'B' TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

(Referred to in paragraph 2(f) of our report of even date)

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS UNDER CLAUSE (I) OF SUB-SECTION (3) OF SECTION 143 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013 ('THE ACT')

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of L&T Cassidian Limited (the 'Company') as of 31st March, 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the Ind AS financial statements of the Company during the pre-operational period for the year ended on that date.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ('the Guidance Note') issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the 'ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act').

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act to the extent applicable, to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involved performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting during the pre-operational period.

MEANING OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

Company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that: (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of Ind AS financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that the receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the Ind AS financial statements.

INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, Company has, in all material respect, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

G. Significant accounting policies

(i) Statement of Compliance

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 issued by Ministry of Company Affairs in respect of Section 133 read with Section 469 of the Companies Act, 2013. These are the Company's first Ind AS financial statements. The date of transition to Ind AS is 1 April 2015.

(ii) Basis of accounting

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values, the provisions of the Companies Act , 2013 ('Act') (to the extent notified). The Ind AS are prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2016.

The Company has adopted all the Ind AS standards and the adoption was carried out in accordance with Ind AS 101 First time adoption of Indian Accounting Standards. The transition was carried out from Indian Accounting Principles generally accepted in India as prescribed under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 (IGAAP), which was the previous GAAP. Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

(iii) Presentation of financial statements

The Balance Sheet and the Statement of Income and Expenditure are prepared and presented in the format prescribed in the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") and Ind AS. The Cash Flow Statement has been prepared and presented as per the requirements of Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 7 Statement of Cash Flows. The disclosure requirements with respect to items in the Balance Sheet and Statement of Income and Expenditure, as prescribed in the Schedule III to the Act, are presented by way of notes forming part of accounts along with the other notes required to be disclosed under Ind AS.

(iv) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires that the management of the Company makes estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of income and expenses of the period, the reported balances of assets and liabilities and the disclosures relating to the contingent liabilities as of the date of the financial statements. Any revisions to accounting estimates are recognised prospectively in the current and future periods. Wherever changes in presentation are made, comparative figures of the previous year are regrouped accordingly.

(v) Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognised for liabilities that can be measured only by using a substantial degree of estimation, if

a) the Company has a present obligation as a result of a past event;

b) a probable outflow of resources is expected to settle the obligation; and

c) the amount of the obligation can be reliably estimated.

Reimbursement expected in respect of expenditure required to settle a provision is recognised only when it is virtually certain that the reimbursement will be received.

Contingent liability is disclosed in case of

a) a present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation;

b) a present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible; and

c) a possible obligation arising from past events where the probability of outflow of resources is not remote.

Contingent assets are neither recognised, nor disclosed.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF L&T DECCAN TOLLWAYS LIMITED

REPORT ON THE IND AS FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

We have audited the accompanying Ind AS financial statements of L&T Deccan Tollways Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March 2017, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the statement of Changes in Equity, the Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (herein after referred to as "Ind AS financial statements").

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE IND AS FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 4 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these Ind AS financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Ind AS financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the Ind AS financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Ind AS financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Ind AS financial statements.

OPINION

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Ind AS financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India including the Ind AS, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March 2017, its financial performance including Other Comprehensive Income, changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

ANNEXURE - B TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

(Referred to in our Report of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of L&T Deccan Tollways Limited ("the Company") as of March 31, 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the Ind AS financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the "Guidance Note"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

11) Disclosure as per Ind AS 1 - "Presentation of Financial Statements"

For the purpose of the company's capital management, capital includes issued equity capital, convertible preference shares, share premium and all other equity reserves attributable to the equity holders of the parent. The primary objective of the company's capital management is to maximise the shareholder value.

(Ind AS 1 requires the company to make quantitative and qualitative disclosures regarding objectives policies and processes for managing capital. Also, if comparitive amounts are reclassified, nature amount and reason to be disclosed and not just the fact of reclassification.)

12) First time adoption of Ind AS

These financial statements, for the year ended 31 March 2017, are the first the Company has prepared in accordance with Ind AS. For periods up to and including the year ended 31 March 2016, the Company prepared its financial statements in accordance with accounting standards notified under section 133 of the Companies Act 2013, read together with paragraph 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 (Indian GAAP).

Accordingly, the Company has prepared financial statements which comply with Ind AS applicable for periods ending on 31 March 2016, together with the comparative period data as at and for the year ended 31 March 2015, as described in the summary of significant accounting policies. In preparing these financial statements, the Company's opening balance sheet was prepared as at 1 April 2014, the Company's date of transition to Ind AS. This note explains the principal adjustments made by the Company in restating its Indian GAAP financial statements, including the balance sheet as at 1 April 2014 and the financial statements as at and for the year ended 31 March 2015.

13) Transition adjustments

The following is a brief summary of the GAAP adjustments made by the Company on account of transition to IndAS from the previous GAAP.

(i) Borrowings

Under Indian GAAP, transaction costs incurred in connection with borrowings are amortised over the tenor of the loan. For transition to IndAS, such transaction costs are adjusted with the fair value of the borrowings on initial recognition. Interest on the borrowings is accounted under the Effective Interest Rate method (EIR). Accordingly borrowings as at 31 March 2015 have been reduced by ₹38,76,004.

Consequently an amount of ₹38,76,004 has been derecognised from intangibles under development.

(ii) Current investments

Under Indian GAAP, investment in mutual funds were stated at lower of cost and fair value. Any gain/loss on disposal was accounted for in the statement of profit and loss. For transition, mutual fund investments are categorised as Financial instruments at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL). Any unrealised gains/losses are included in the carrying amount of such investments as at the reporting date. Consequently the carrying amount of mutual fund investments is increased by ₹ 42,076 with a corresponding increase in the reserves.

H NOTES FORMING PART FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

19) Financial Risk Management

The company's activities expose it to variety of financial risks : market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The company's focus is to foresee the unpredictability of financial markets and seek to minimize potential adverse effects on its financial performance. The Board of Directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Company's risk management framework. The Board of Directors has established a risk management policy to identify and analyze the risks faced by the Company, to set appropriate risk limits and controls, and to monitor risks and adherence to limits. Risk management systems are reviewed periodically to reflect changes in market conditions and the Company's activities. The Board of Directors oversee compliance with the Company's risk management policies and procedures, and reviews the risk management framework.

A) Market risk

The market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk.

i Foreign Currency Risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rate.

The company is not exposed to foreign currency risk as it has no borrowing or no material payables in foreign currency.

ii Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

The Interest risk arises to the company mainly from Long term borrowings with variable rates. The company measures risk through sensitivity analysis.

Currently, Lending by Commercial Banks is at variable rate, which is an inherent business risk.

The company's exposure to interest rate risk due to variable interest rate borrowings is as follows:

B) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial assets.

The company is exposed to liquidity risk due to bank borrowings and trade and other payables.

The company measures risk by forecasting cash flows.

The Company's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Company's reputation. The Company ensures that it has sufficient fund to meet expected operational expenses, servicing of financial obligations.

Since the loan has not been fully drawn and the project is still under progress, the period/ year wise due of contractual maturities have not been disclosed.

C) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation.

The company generally does not have trade receivables as collection of toll income coincide as and when the traffic passes through toll - plazas. Hence, the management believes that the company is not exposed to any credit risk.

I. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This note provides a list of the significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

1 Basis of preparation

(a) Compliance with IndAS

The Company's financial statements comply in all material respects with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) [Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015] and other relevant provisions of the Act.

The financial statements upto to the year ended 31 March 2016 were prepared in accordance with the accounting standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standard) Rules, 2006 as amended and other relevant provisions of the Act.

These financial statements are the first financial statements of the Company under IndAS.

(b) Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for the following items

Items	Measurement basis
Certain financial assets and liabilities	Fair value
Net defined benefit (asset)/liability	Fair value of plan assets less present value of defined benefit obligations
Assets held for sale	fair value less costs to sell

(c) Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with IndAS requires the management to make estimates and assumptions considered in the reported amounts of assets, liabilities (including contingent liabilities), income and expenses. The Management believes that the estimates used in preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Actual results could differ due to these estimates and the differences between the actual results and the estimates are recognised in the periods in which the results are known / materialize. Estimates include the useful lives of property plant and equipment and intangible fixed assets, allowance for doubtful debts/ advances, future obligations in respect of retirement benefit plans, provisions for resurfacing obligations, fair value measurement etc.

(d) Measurement of fair values

"A number of the accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values for both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities. Fair value measurements are categorized into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that entity can access at measurement date
- Level 2 inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (as prices) or indirectly (derived from prices); and
- Level 3 inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs)."

2 Presentation of financial statements

The Balance Sheet and the Statement of Profit and Loss are prepared and presented in the format prescribed in Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"). The Cash Flow Statement has been prepared and presented as per the requirements of Ind AS 7 "Statement of Cash Flows". The disclosure requirements with respect to items in the Balance Sheet and Statement of Profit and Loss, as prescribed in Schedule III to the Act, are presented by way of notes forming part of accounts along with the other notes required to be disclosed under the notified Accounting Standards and the SEBI (Listing Obligations & Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

Amounts in the financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees rounded off to two decimal places in line with the requirements of Schedule III. Per share data are presented in Indian Rupees to two decimal places.

3 Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Amounts disclosed as revenue are inclusive of duties and taxes and net of discounts, rebates and other similar allowances.

The Company recognises revenue when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured, it is probable that the future economic benefits would flow to the entity and specific criteria have been met for each of the activities described below. The Company bases its estimates on historical results, taking into consideration the type of customer, type of transaction and specifics of the arrangement.

a) Toll collections from the users of the infrastructure facility constructed by the Company under the Service Concession Arrangement is accounted for based on actual collection, net of revenue share payable under the Concession agreement wherever applicable. Revenue from sale of smart cards is accounted on cash basis.

b) Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the applicable rate.

c) Fair value gains on current investments carried at fair value are included in Other income.

d) Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive the same is established by the reporting date.

e) Other items of income are recognised as and when the right to receive arises.

4 Cash and bank balances

Cash and bank balances also include fixed deposits, margin money deposits, earmarked balances with banks and other bank balances which have restrictions on repatriation. Short term highly liquid investments being not free from more than insignificant risk of change are not included as part of cash and cash equivalents. Bank overdrafts which are part of the cash management process is included as part of cash and cash equivalents.

5 Cash flow statement

Cash flow statement is prepared segregating the cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities. Cash flow from operating activities is reported using indirect method. Under the indirect method, the net profit/(loss) is adjusted for the effects of:

(a) transactions of a non-cash nature;

(b) any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and,

(c) all other items of income or expense associated with investing or financing cash flows.

The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on the available information. Cash and cash equivalents (including bank balances) are reflected as such in the Cash Flow Statement. Those cash and cash equivalents which are not available for general use as on the date of Balance Sheet are also included under this category with a specific disclosure.

Freehold land is carried as historical cost. All other items of property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and cumulative impairment. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to acquisition of the items. Land acquired under long term lease is classified as "Property, Plant and equipment" and is depreciated over the period of lease.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the entity and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. Properties in the course for production, supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss. Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable and for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Company's accounting policy. Such properties are classified to the appropriate categories of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for intended use. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets (other than freehold land and assets under construction) less their residual values over their useful lives using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives and residual values are reviewed at the end of each year, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

Depreciation on additions / deductions is calculated pro-rata from / to the month of additions / deductions. For the assets that are transferred / sold within the group companies, depreciation is calculated up to the month preceding the month of transfer / sale within the group.

The estimated useful lives of the assets as per management evaluation are as follows:

Category of Property, plant and equipment	Estimated useful life (in years)
Buildings including ownership flats	50
Plant and equipment:
Toll equipment	7
DG Sets	12
Air-conditioning and refrigeration equipment	12
Split AC and Window AC	4
Furniture and fixtures	10
Vehicles:
Motor cars (other than those under the Company owned car scheme)	7
Motor cars (under the Company owned car scheme)	5
Motor cycles, scooters and other mopeds	10
Tractors and other vehicles	8
Office equipment:
Multifunctional devices, printers, switches and projectors	4
Other office equipments	5
Computers:
Servers and systems	6
Desktops, laptops, etc,	3
Electrical installations	10

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal of an item of property plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the statement or profit and loss.

For transition to IndAS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all its property, plant and equipment recognised as of April 01, 2015 (transition date) measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as its deemed cost on the transition date.

Depreciation charge for impaired assets is adjusted in future periods in such a manner that the revised carrying amount of the asset is allocated over its remaining useful life.

7 Amortisation of intangible assets

Carriageways consisting Toll Colletion Rights is still under development (under intangibles under development). Upon successful completion of the project, the assets would be capitalized and amortized under straight line method on a proportionate basis over the life of the asset till end of the concession period.

8 Exceptional items

On certain occasions, the size, type or incidence of an item of income or expense is such that its disclosure improves an understanding of the performance of the Company. Such income or expense is classified as an exceptional item and accordingly disclosed in the notes to accounts.

9 Intangible assets

a) Rights under Service Concession Arrangements

Intangible assets are recognised when it is probable that future economic benefits that are attributable to the asset will flow to the enterprise and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably. Intangible assets are stated at original cost net of tax/duty credits availed, if any, less accumulated amortisation and cumulative impairment.

Toll Projects (Right to charge users)

Toll collection rights obtained in consideration for rendering construction services, represent the right to collect toll revenue during the concession period in respect of Build-Operate-Transfer (“BOT”) project undertaken by the Company. Toll collection rights are capitalized as intangible assets upon completion of the project at the cumulative construction costs plus the present value of obligation towards negative grants and additional concession fee payable to National Highways Authority of India (“NHAI”)/State authorities, if any. Till the completion of the project, the same is recognised under intangible assets under development. The revenue from toll collection/other income during the construction period is reduced from the carrying amount of intangible assets under development.

The cost incurred for work beyond the original scope per Concession agreement (normally referred as “Change of Scope”) is capitalized as intangible asset under development as and when incurred. Reimbursement in respect of such amounts from NHAI/State authorities are reduced from the carrying amount intangible assets to the extent of actual receipts.

Extension of concession period by the authority in compensation of claims made are capitalised as part of Toll Collection Rights at the time of admission of the claim or when there is a contractual right to extension at the estimated amount of claims admitted or computed based on average collections whichever is more evident.

Pre-operative expenses including administrative and other general overhead expenses that are directly attributable to the development or acquisition of intangible assets are allocated and capitalized as part of cost of the intangible assets.

Intangible assets that not ready for the intended use on the date of the Balance Sheet are disclosed as “Intangible assets under development”.

10 Foreign currency transactions and translations

a) Transactions in foreign currencies entered into by the Company are accounted at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction or at rates that closely approximate the rate at the date of the transaction.

b) Exchange differences that arise on settlement of monetary items or on reporting of monetary items at each Balance Sheet date at the closing rate are:

(i) adjusted in the cost of fixed assets specifically financed by the borrowings contracted, to which the exchange differences relate.

11 Investments

Investments, which are readily realizable and are intended to be held for not more than one year, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long term investments.

12 Employee benefits

Employee benefits include provident fund, superannuation fund, employee state insurance scheme, gratuity fund, compensated absences, long service awards and post-employment medical benefits.

(i) Short term employee benefits

All employee benefits falling due wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short term employee benefits. The benefits like salaries, wages, short term compensated absences etc. and the expected cost of bonus, ex-gratia are recognised in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees are recognised during the year when the employees render the service. These benefits include performance incentive and compensated absences which are expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service.

The cost of short-term compensated absences is accounted as under :

(a) in case of accumulated compensated absences, when employees render the services that increase their entitlement of future compensated absences; and

(b) in case of non-accumulating compensated absences, when the absences occur.

(ii) Post employment benefits

(a) Defined contribution plans:

The Company’s superannuation scheme and State governed provident fund linked with employee pension scheme are defined contribution plans. The contribution paid/ payable under the scheme is recognised during the period in which the employee renders the related service.

(b) Defined benefit plans:

The employees’ gratuity fund scheme and the provident fund scheme managed by the trust of the Holding Company are the Group’s defined benefit plans. The present value of the obligation under such defined benefit plans is determined based on actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method, which recognizes each period of service as giving rise to additional unit of employee benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows. The discount rate used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plans, is based on the market yield on government securities of a maturity period equivalent to the weighted average maturity profile of the related obligations at the Balance Sheet date. Actuarial gains and losses are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Remeasurement, comprising actuarial gains and losses, the return on plan assets (excluding net interest) and any change in the effect of asset ceiling (if applicable) are recognised in other comprehensive income and is reflected immediately in retained earnings and is not reclassified to profit & loss.

The interest element in the actuarial valuation of defined benefit plans, which comprises the implicit interest cost and the impact of changes in discount rate, is classified under finance cost. The balance charge is recognised as employee benefit expenses in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

In case of funded plans, the fair value of the plan assets is reduced from the gross obligation under the defined benefit plans to recognise the obligation on a net basis.

Gains or losses on the curtailment or settlement of any defined benefit plan are recognised when the curtailment or settlement occurs. Past service cost is recognised as expense at the earlier of the plan amendment or curtailment and when the Company recognises related restructuring costs or termination benefits.

(iii) Other long term employee benefits:

The obligation for other long term employee benefits such as long term compensated absences, liability on account of Retention Pay Scheme are recognised in the same manner as in the case of defined benefit plans as mentioned in (ii)(b) above.

13 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs include interest calculated using the effective interest method, amortisation of ancillary costs incurred and exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent they are regarded as an adjustment to the interest cost. Borrowing costs, allocated to and utilized for acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, pertaining to the period from commencement of activities relating to construction / development of the qualifying asset up to the date of capitalization of such asset are added to the cost of the assets.

The determination of whether an agreement is, or contains, a lease is based on the substance of the agreement at the date of inception.

Operating leases:

(a) Property, plant and equipment acquired on leases where a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Lease rentals are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight line basis over the term of the relevant lease.

(b) Property, plant and equipment leased out under operating leases are continued to be capitalised by the Company. Rental income is recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease.

15 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit / (loss) for the year by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit / (loss) for the year as adjusted for dividend, interest and other charges to expense or income (net of any attributable taxes) relating to the dilutive potential equity shares, by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and the weighted average number of equity shares which could have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. Potential equity shares are deemed to be dilutive only if their conversion to equity shares would decrease the net profit per share from continuing ordinary operations. Potential dilutive equity shares are deemed to be converted as at the beginning of the period, unless they have been issued at a later date. The dilutive potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the shares been actually issued at fair value (i.e. average market value of the outstanding shares). Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented. The number of equity shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted for share splits / reverse share splits and bonus shares, as appropriate.

The income tax expense or credit for the year is the tax payable on current year's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses. The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period. Management periodically evaluates, positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation and provisions are established where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives future economic benefits in the form of adjustment to future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the entity will pay normal income tax. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as an asset when it is highly probable that future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the entity.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. However deferred income tax is not accounted if it arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability that at the time of the transaction affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit (tax loss). Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset/liability is realised or settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset, when the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances related to the same authority.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity wherein the related tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

17 Impairment of assets

The carrying values of assets / cash generating units at each balance sheet date are reviewed for impairment if any indication of impairment exists. The following intangible assets are tested for impairment each financial year even if there is no indication that the asset is impaired:

(a) an intangible asset that is not yet available for use; and (b) an intangible asset that is amortized over a period exceeding ten years from the date when the asset is available for use.

If the carrying amount of the assets exceed the estimated recoverable amount, an impairment is recognised for such excess amount. The impairment loss is recognised as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss, unless the asset is carried at revalued amount, in which case any impairment loss of the revalued asset is treated as a revaluation decrease to the extent a revaluation reserve is available for that asset.

The recoverable amount is the higher of the fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects the current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimated future cash flows have not been adjusted.

When there is indication that an impairment loss recognised for an asset (other than a revalued asset) in earlier accounting periods no longer exists or may have decreased, such reversal of impairment loss is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, to the extent the amount was previously charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss. In case of revalued assets such reversal is not recognised.

18 Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material)

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognsied as an asset if it is virtually certain that the reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed in notes in case of a present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible . Contingent assets are disclosed in the financial statements where an inflow of economic benefits are probable.

19 Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

a) Financial Assets

All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either amortised cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets

Investments in debt instruments that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortised cost (unless the same are designated as fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)):

- The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- The contractual terms of instrument give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

A financial asset is primarily derecognised when:

i. the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or

ii. the group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a pass-through arrangement; and with a)the group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or b) the group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

Impairment of financial assets: The Company applies the expected credit loss model for recognising impairment loss on financial assets measured at amortised cost, debt instruments at FVTOCI, lease receivables, trade receivables and other contractual rights to receive cash or other financial asset and financial guarantees not designated as at FVTPL. For the purpose of measuring expected credit loss allowance for businesses other than financial services for trade receivables, the Company has used a provision matrix which takes into account historical credit loss experience and adjusted for forward looking information as permitted under Ind AS 109.

b) Financial Liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified at initial recognition, as financial liabilities as fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate. All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

Loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised costs using Effective Interest Rate method.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL) are subsequently measured at fair value.

Financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires."

20 Insurance claims

Insurance claims are accounted for on the basis of claims admitted / expected to be admitted and to the extent that the amount recoverable can be measured reliably and it is reasonable to expect ultimate collection.

21 Operating Cycle

Based on the nature of products / activities of the Group and the normal time between acquisition of assets and their realization in cash or cash equivalents, the Group has determined its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of classification of its assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

22 Claims

Claims against the Company not acknowledged as debts are disclosed under contingent liabilities. Claims made by the company are recognised as and when the same is approved by the respective authorities with whom the claim is lodged.

23 Commitments

Commitments are future liabilities for contractual expenditure. Commitments are classified and disclosed as follows:

(i) Estimated amount of contracts remaining to be executed on capital account and not provided for

(ii) Uncalled liability on shares and other investments partly paid

(iii) Funding related commitment to subsidiary, associate and joint venture companies and

(iv) Other non-cancellable commitments, if any, to the extent they are considered material and relevant in the opinion of management.

Other commitments related to sales/procurements made in the normal course of business are not disclosed to avoid excessive details.

Note A: First time adoption of Ind AS

"The Company has prepared opening balance sheet as per Ind AS as of April 1, 2015 (transition date) by recognising all assets and liabilities whose recognition is required by Ind AS, not recognising items of assets or liabilities which are not permitted by Ind AS, by reclassifying items from previous GAAP to Ind AS as required under Ind AS, and applying Ind AS in measurement of recognised assets and liabilities. However, this principle is subject to certain exceptions and certain optional exemptions availed by the Company as detailed below:

1. The Company has applied the derecognition requirements of financial assets and financial liabilities prospectively for transactions occurring on or after 01 April 2015 (transition date).
2. The Company has opted to continue with the carrying value for all of its PPE & investment property as recognised in its previous GAAP financial as deemed cost at the transition date.
3. The company has assessed all contracts and arrangements for embedded leases based on conditions in place as at the date of transition.
4. The estimates as at 01 April 2015 and at 31 March 2016 are consistent with those made for the same dates in accordance with the Indian GAAP.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the members of L&T Western India Tollbridge Limited

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying Ind AS financial statements of L&T Western India Tollbridge Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31 March 2017, the Statement of Profit and Loss, the Statement of Cash Flows and the Statement of changes in Equity for the year then ended, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these Ind AS financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Ind AS financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the Ind AS financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Ind AS financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on these Ind AS financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Ind AS financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, the financial position of the Company as at 31 March 2017 and its financial performance including other comprehensive income, its cash flows and the changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

1) As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2016 ("the Order") issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (11) of Section 143 of the Act, we give in "Annexure A" to this Report, a statement on the matters specified in para 3 and 4 of the said Order.

2) As required by Section 143 (3) of the Act, we report that:

   (a) We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit.

   (b) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as it appears from our examination of those books.

   (c) The Balance Sheet, the Statement of Profit and Loss, the Statement of Cash Flows and the Statement of Changes in Equity dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account.

   (d) In our opinion, the aforesaid Ind AS financial statements comply with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act, read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015.

   (e) On the basis of the written representations received from the directors as on 31 March 2017 taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the directors is disqualified as on 31 March 2017 from being appointed as a director in terms of Section 164 (2) of the Act.

   (f) With respect to the adequacy of the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company and the operating effectiveness of such controls, refer to our separate Report in "Annexure B".

(g) With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, amended vide the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Amendment Rules, 2017, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us:

ANNEXURE 'B' TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

[Referred to in paragraph 2(f) of our Report of even date]

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of L&T Western India Tollbridge Limited ("the Company") as of 31 March 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the Ind AS financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ("the Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act").

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. Our audit is conducted in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the ICAI and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of Ind AS financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of Ind AS financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the Ind AS financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.

7) Arbitration

a) During the concession period, the Company had claimed for loss of revenue due to riots, strikes, closures and compensation for execution of variances to project facilities beyond the scope of concession agreement envisaged at the time of tendering. Since the claims could not be settled amicably, they were referred to the Arbitral Tribunal constituted as per the terms of the Concession agreement. The Tribunal unanimously passed the Award in favour of the Company against which the GOI/GOG had appealed to the District Court of Kheda at Nadiad(Gujarat) . The matters were listed for a number of times and finally on 4th April, 2015, the Honourable Court dismissed the appeals on account of non-persuasion by GOI/GOG. The Company has filed execution petition against GOI before Hon'ble High Court, Delhi and the Hon'ble Court heard the parties and has adjourned the matter to 2nd May 2017. Meanwhile the restoration applications filed by GOI and GOG have been transferred to the Commercial Court and will be heard on merits as to whether the Appeal dismissed by the Nadiad Court is to be restored.

b) Meanwhile pursuant to the decisions taken by the Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs (CCEA) for the revival of construction sector, the NITI Aayog had issued OM No 14070/14/2016 PPPAU dated 5th September 2016 titled "Measures to revive the Construction Sector" which requires the work executing agencies to pay an amount equal to 75% of the total pay-out in cases where the Arbitral Awards are passed in favour of the Concessionaire against a bank guarantee without prejudice to the rights and stand of the Agency and subject to the final order of the court in the matter under challenge. In case the legal challenge is settled in favour of the Agency, it would be entitled to recover the said amount along with interest . Accordingly a sum of ₹ 69,76,92,000 has been received from GOI towards 75% of the arbitral award against a bank guarantee provided by the Company.

8) There was no cash in hand and hence Specified Bank Note disclosure as per MCA Notification G.S.R 308(E) dated 30 March, 2017 is not applicable to the Company.

9) Disclosure as per Ind AS 1 - "Presentation of Financial Statements"

For the purpose of the company's capital management, capital includes issued equity share capital, all other equity reserves attributable to the equity holders of the parent. The primary objective of the company's capital management is to maximise the shareholder value.

10) First time adoption of Ind AS

These financial statements, for the year ended 31 March 2017, are the first the Company has prepared in accordance with Ind AS. For periods up to and including the year ended 31 March 2016, the Company prepared its financial statements in accordance with accounting standards notified under section 133 of the Companies Act 2013, read together with paragraph 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 (Indian GAAP).

Accordingly, the Company has prepared financial statements which comply with Ind AS applicable for periods ending on 31 March 2017, together with the comparative period data as at and for the year ended 31 March 2016, as described in the summary of significant accounting policies. In preparing these financial statements, the Company's opening balance sheet was prepared as at 1 April 2015, the Company's date of transition to Ind AS.

The transition adjustment is with regard to the valuation of current investments. Under Indian GAAP, investment in mutual funds were stated at lower of cost and fair value. Any gain/loss on disposal was accounted for in the statement of profit and loss. For transition, mutual fund investments are categorised as Financial instruments at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL). Any unrealised gains/ losses are included in the carrying amount of such investments as at the reporting date. Consequently the carrying amount of mutual fund investments is increased by ₹ 62,05,138 with a corresponding increase in the reserves as ar 31 March 2015.

I. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This note provides a list of the significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

1. Basis of preparation

(a) Compliance with IndAS

The Company's financial statements comply in all material respects with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) [Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015] and other relevant provisions of the Act.

The financial statements upto to the year ended 31 March 2016 were prepared in accordance with the accounting standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standard) Rules, 2006 as amended and other relevant provisions of the Act.

These financial statements are the first financial statements of the Company under IndAS. Refer Note 10 for an explanation on how the transition from previous GAAP to IndAS has affected the Company's financial position.

(b) Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for certain financial assets and liabilities which are measured at fair value

(c) Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with IndAS requires the management to make estimates and assumptions considered in the reported amounts of assets, liabilities (including contingent liabilities), income and expenses. The Management believes that the estimates used in preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Actual results could differ due to these estimates and the differences between the actual results and the estimates are recognised in the periods in which the results are known/materialize. Estimates include the useful lives of property plant and equipment, allowance for doubtful debts/ advances, fair value measurement etc.

(d) Measurement of fair values

A number of the accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values for both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities. Fair value measurements are categorized into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that entity can access at measurement date
- Level 2 inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (as prices) or indirectly (derived from prices); and
- Level 3 inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

2 Presentation of financial statements

The Balance Sheet and the Statement of Profit and Loss are prepared and presented in the format prescribed in Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"). The Cash Flow Statement has been prepared and presented as per the requirements of Ind AS 7 "Statement of Cash Flows". The disclosure requirements with respect to items in the Balance Sheet and Statement of Profit and Loss, as prescribed in Schedule III to the Act, are presented by way of notes forming part of accounts along with the other notes required to be disclosed under the notified Accounting Standards and the SEBI (Listing Obligations & Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

Amounts in the financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees rounded off to two decimal places in line with the requirements of Schedule III. Per share data are presented in Indian Rupees to two decimal places.

3 Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Amounts disclosed as revenue are inclusive of duties and taxes and net of discounts, rebates and other similar allowances.

The Company recognises revenue when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured, it is probable that the future economic benefits would flow to the entity and specific criteria have been met for each of the activities described below. The Company bases its estimates on historical results, taking into consideration the type of customer, type of transaction and specifics of the arrangement.

a) Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the applicable rate.

b) Fair value gains on current investments carried at fair value are included in Other income.

c) Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive the same is established by the reporting date.

d) Other items of income are recognised as and when the right to receive arises.

4 Cash and bank balances

Cash and bank balances also include fixed deposits, margin money deposits, earmarked balances with banks and other bank balances which have restrictions on repatriation. Short term highly liquid investments being not free from more than insignificant risk of change are not included as part of cash and cash equivalents. Bank overdrafts which are part of the cash management process is included as part of cash and cash equivalents.

5 Cash flow statement

Cash flow statement is prepared segregating the cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities. Cash flow from operating activities is reported using indirect method. Under the indirect method, the net profit/(loss) is adjusted for the effects of:

(a) transactions of a non-cash nature;

(b) any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and,

(c) all other items of income or expense associated with investing or financing cash flows.

The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on the available information. Cash and cash equivalents (including bank balances) are reflected as such in the Cash Flow Statement. Those cash and cash equivalents which are not available for general use as on the date of Balance Sheet are also included under this category with a specific disclosure."

6 Investments

Trade investments comprise investments in entities in which the Group has strategic business interest.

Investments, which are readily realizable and are intended to be held for not more than one year, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long term investments.

7 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs include interest calculated using the effective interest method, amortisation of ancillary costs incurred and exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent they are regarded as an adjustment to the interest cost. Costs in connection with the borrowing of funds to the extent not directly related to the acquisition of qualifying assets are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss over the tenure of the loan. Borrowing costs, allocated to and utilized for acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, pertaining to the period from commencement of activities relating to construction/development of the qualifying asset up to the date of capitalization of such asset are added to the cost of the assets. Capitalization of borrowing costs is suspended and charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss during extended periods when active development activity on the qualifying assets is interrupted.

8 Segment reporting

The Company identifies primary segments based on the dominant source, nature of risks and returns and the internal organization and management structure. The operating segments are the segments for which separate financial information is available and for which operating profit/loss amounts are evaluated regularly by the executive Management in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance.

The accounting policies adopted for segment reporting are as per Indian Accounting Standard 108 "Operating Segments" (IND AS 108). Segment revenue, segment expenses, segment assets and segment liabilities have been identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the segment. The identification of operating segments and reporting of amounts is consistent with performance assessment and resource allocation by the management.

Inter-segment revenue is accounted on the basis of transactions which are primarily determined based on market/fair value factors.

9 Leases

The determination of whether an agreement is, or contains, a lease is based on the substance of the agreement at the date of inception.

Finance leases:

(a) Property, plant and equipment acquired under leases where the Company has substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Finance leases are capitalised at the inception of the lease at the lower of the fair value or the present value of minimum lease payments and a liability is created for an equivalent amount. Each lease rental paid is allocated between the liability and the interest cost, so as to obtain a constant periodic rate of interest on the outstanding liability for each period.

(b) Property, plant and equipment given under a finance lease are recognised as a receivable at an amount equal to the net investment in the lease. Lease income is recognised over the period of the lease so as to yield a constant rate of return on the net investment in the lease.

Operating leases:

(a) Property, plant and equipment acquired on leases where a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Lease rentals are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight line basis over the term of the relevant lease.

(b) Property, plant and equipment leased out under operating leases are continued to be capitalised by the Company. Rental income is recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease.

10 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit/(loss) for the year by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit/(loss) for the year as adjusted for dividend, interest and other charges to expense or income (net of any attributable taxes) relating to the dilutive potential equity shares, by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and the weighted average number of equity shares which could have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. Potential equity shares are deemed to be dilutive only if their conversion to equity shares would decrease the net profit per share from continuing ordinary operations. Potential dilutive equity shares are deemed to be converted as at the beginning of the period, unless they have been issued at a later date. The dilutive potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the shares been actually issued at fair value (i.e. average market value of the outstanding shares). Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented. The number of equity shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted for share splits/reverse share splits and bonus shares, as appropriate.

11 Income taxes

The income tax expense or credit for the year is the tax payable on current year's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses. The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period. Management periodically evaluates, positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation and provisions are established where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives future economic benefits in the form of adjustment to future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the entity will pay normal income tax. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as an asset when it is highly probable that future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the entity.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. However deferred income tax is not accounted if it arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability that at the time of the transaction affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit (tax loss). Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset/liability is realised or settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset, when the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances related to the same authority.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity wherein the related tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

12 Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material)

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognsied as an asset if it is virtually certain that the reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed in notes in case of a present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible. Contingent assets are disclosed in the financial statements where an inflow of economic benefits are probable.

13 Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

a) Financial Assets

All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either amortised cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets.

Investments in debt instruments that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortised cost (unless the same are designated as fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)):

- The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- The contractual terms of instrument give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Debt instruments that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (unless the same are designated as fair value through profit or loss)

- The asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets; and
- The contractual terms of instrument give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Debt instruments at FVTPL is a residual category for debt instruments and all changes are recognised in profit or loss.

Investments in equity instruments are classified as FVTPL, unless the Company irrevocably elects on initial recognition to present subsequent changes in fair value in OCI for equity instruments which are not held for trading.

Interest income, dividend income and exchange difference (on debt instrument) on FVTOCI debt instruments is recognised in profit or loss and other changes in fair value are recognised in OCI and accumulated in other equity. On disposal of debt instruments FVTOCI the cumulative gain or loss previously accumulated in other equity is reclassified to profit & loss. However in case of equity instruments at FVTOCI cumulative gain or loss is not reclassified to profit & loss on disposal of investments.

A financial asset is primarily derecognised when:

i. the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or

ii. the group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a pass-through arrangement; and with a)the group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or b) the group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

Impairment of financial assets: The Company applies the expected credit loss model for recognising impairment loss on financial assets measured at amortised cost, debt instruments at FVTOCI, lease receivables, trade receivables and other contractual rights to receive cash or other financial asset and financial guarantees not designated as at FVTPL. For the purpose of measuring expected credit loss allowance for businesses other than financial services for trade receivables, the Company has used a provision matrix which takes into account historical credit loss experience and adjusted for forward looking information as permitted under Ind AS 109.

b) Financial Liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified at initial recognition, as financial liabilities as fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate. All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

Loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised costs using Effective Interest Rate method.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL) are subsequently measured at fair value.

Financial guarantee contracts are subsequently measured at the higher of the amount of loss allowance determined as per impairment requirements of Ind AS 109 and the amount recognised less cumulative amortisation.

Financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires.

14 Operating Cycle

Based on the nature of products/activities of the Group and the normal time between acquisition of assets and their realization in cash or cash equivalents, the Group has determined its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of classification of its assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

15 Claims

Claims against the Company not acknowledged as debts are disclosed under contingent liabilities. Claims made by the company are recognised as and when the same is approved by the respective authorities with whom the claim is lodged.

16 Commitments

Commitments are future liabilities for contractual expenditure. Commitments are classified and disclosed as follows:

(i) Estimated amount of contracts remaining to be executed on capital account and not provided for

(ii) Uncalled liability on shares and other investments partly paid

(iii) Funding related commitment to subsidiary, associate and joint venture companies and

(iv) Other non-cancellable commitments, if any, to the extent they are considered material and relevant in the opinion of management.

Other commitments related to sales/procurements made in the normal course of business are not disclosed to avoid excessive details.

17 Note A: First time adoption of Ind AS

The Company has prepared opening balance sheet as per Ind AS as of 01 April 2015 (transition date) by recognising all assets and liabilities whose recognition is required by Ind AS, not recognising items of assets or liabilities which are not permitted by Ind AS, by reclassifying items from previous GAAP to Ind AS as required under Ind AS, and applying Ind AS in measurement of recognised assets and liabilities. However, this principle is subject to certain exceptions and certain optional exemptions availed by the Company as detailed below:

1. The Company has applied the derecognition requirements of financial assets and financial liabilities prospectively for transactions occurring on or after 01 April 2015 (transition date).
2. The Company has determined the classification of debt instruments in terms of whether they meet the amortised cost criteria or the FVTOCI criteria based on the facts and circumstances that existed as of the transition date.
3. The estimates as at 01 April 2015 and at 31 March 2016 are consistent with those made for the same dates in accordance with the Indian GAAP.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF BHILAI POWER SUPPLY COMPANY LIMITED

REPORT ON THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

We have audited the standalone financial statements of Bhilai Power Supply Company Limited (the 'Company'), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2017, the Statement of Profit and Loss and the Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act, read with relevant rules issued thereunder.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these standalone financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the standalone financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the standalone financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statements.

OPINION

ANNEXURE – B TO THE AUDITORS' REPORT

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act. 2013 ("Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Bhilai Power Supply Company Limited (the 'Company') as of 31st March, 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the 'Guidance Note') issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act').

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable, to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that: (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Statement of compliance

In accordance with the notification issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, the Company has adopted Indian Accounting Standards (referred to as “Ind AS”) notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 with effect from April 1, 2016. Previous period have been restated to Ind AS. In accordance with Ind AS 101.

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Ind AS as notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 read with Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013.

2. Method of Accounting

The company maintains its accounts on accrual basis.

3. Foreign Currencies

Actual foreign currency expenditure is booked at the exchange rate prevailing on the date of the transaction. Outstanding foreign currency liabilities are translated at exchange rate prevailing at the year end. The exchange variations, if any, arising out of such transactions is adjusted in pre-operative expenditure.

NOTES FORMING PART OF ACCOUNTS

1. All the expenditure incurred by the company from time to time has been agreed to be borne by the promoters and the said arrangement has been effected by reduction of liabilities of the company towards the promoters.

   In line with the aforesaid arrangement, pre-operative expenses amounting to ₹ 56,495/-(Previous Year ₹ 59,196/-) have been adjusted against the liability towards Larsen & Toubro Limited during the year as shown in Schedule ‘C’ as these expenses are agreed to be reimbursed by the Parent Company.

   No profit and loss account is prepared as there are no items of income earned or expenses incurred which are to be borne by the company.

2. Auditors’ Remuneration (excluding Service Tax) and expenses charged to the accounts includes:-

	2016-17	2015-16
Audit Fee	₹ 25,000	₹ 25,000

3. The Board of Directors of the company in their meeting held on the 29th June 2000, has not accepted the notice of termination of 25th May 2000 given to them by Steel Authority of India Ltd. The treatment in the accounts for SAIL’s share as a continuing partner for the year ended on 31st March 2017 is given accordingly as in past. L&T vide letter dated 16th October 2006 has sent the proposal to SAIL to consider for transferring their minority stake of 0.1% in the company in favour of L&T, which is under consideration of SAIL since then.

4. The company has decided to accrue interest on the Security Deposit only upto 26.02.2007 and hence no interest income has been computed on outstanding dues from MPSEB/CSEB amounting to ₹ 8,46,57,085/- in the accounts during the year. As the company has back-to-back arrangement to pay interest with its promoters, there will not be any material impact of this to preoperative expenses or any other heads.

5. In the hearing held on 17.02.2008 for release of balance amount of ₹ 8,46,57,085/- due to BPSCL, the Hon’ble Supreme Court has directed that the decision on this would be taken after the Original Suit No. 6/2004 between MPSEB and CSEB, also pending in the Hon’ble Supreme Court, was decided. The order was passed on 9th July, 2014. However, the Hon’ble Supreme Court is yet to list the matter for hearing related to release of balance amount to BPSCL.

6. The company continues to be a prospective investment vehicle for development of power generation projects. Management expects that the company would be used as a special purpose vehicle company for its power development business. These financial statements are therefore continued to be prepared on a “Going Concern Basis”.

7. Larsen & Toubro Limited, the Holding Company entered into an agreement with PSEG Bhilai Energy Company Limited to acquire their shareholding (45 Equity Shares of ₹ 10/- each) in the Company and made an application in July 2003 to Reserve Bank of India for their approval, which is still pending.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

1. ASSIGNMENT

The management of Larsen & Toubro Infotech GmbH,

Leipzig,

- authorised signatory hereinafter referred to as "Larsen" as well as the "Company"- appointed us (confirmation of order dated April 4, 2017) by the shareholders resolution dated, April 20, 2016 to audit the financial statements and the accounting records for the year ended March 31, 2017.

The maintenance of the books and records and the preparation of the annual financial statements in accordance with the German Commercial Code (HGB) and the additional regulations of the articles of association are on the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the annual financial statements based on our audit.

We carried out our audit in accordance with the general conditions of assignment for Wirtschaftsprüfer und Wirtschaftsprüfungsgesellschaften of the "Institut der Wirtschaftsprüfer" in Germany e.V. (IDW), dated January 01, 2017 (added in appendix 3). Our responsibility and our liability, especially to third parties, is based on these conditions of assignment.

We report about our audit in accordance with § 321 German Commercial Code (HGB) and in accordance with the reporting standards of IDW PS 450. Our report is directed to the audited Company and consists of a main part, which includes all essential statements summarized and four appendices, which are an essential part of our report.

We certify in accordance with § 321 par. 4 a German Commercial Code (HGB) that we have observed the Audit Independence Rules.

2. GENERAL STATEMENTS

2.1. SITUATION OF THE COMPANY

The Company, as a small company with regard to § 267 par. 1 German Commercial Code used its right to choose according to § 264 par. 1 sent. 4 German Commercial Code and did not prepare a management report. The evaluations of the management about the situation of the Company and the risks of the future development affect disclosure and valuation decisions already within the scope of the preparation of the annual financial statements by the legal representatives. As far as the judgement of the situation of the Company by the legal representatives was considered in the annual financial statements in the form of the audited papers and documents as well as additionally given information we make the following statements:

Within the scope of the audit of the annual financial statements as well as the business situation of the Company we noted no facts which argue against the judgement of the situation of the Company according to the submitted annual financial statements.

2.2. STATEMENTS ACCORDING TO § 321 PAR. 1 SENT. 3 GERMAN COMMERCIAL CODE IRREGULARITIES

In the course of our audit no irregularities have been found.

3. SUBJECT, CHARACTER AND AUDIT SCOPE

The subject of our audit was the Company's accounting and the financial statements.

The Company is a small sized company in accordance with § 267 par. 1 German Commercial Code (HGB). Therefore the Company is not obliged by applicable law to be audited with regard to § 316 pf. German Commercial Code (HGB). The Company applies the statutory accounting requirements in Germany.

The audit was carried out in accordance with § 317 German Commercial Code (HGB) and the auditing Standards promulgated in the statement of IDW PS 200 pf. by the German "Institut der Wirtschaftsprüfer" (IDW). We have audited, whether the regulations of the German Commercial Code and additional regulations of the articles of association of the Company and the regulations and standards of accounting were noticed. The audit covers other regulations only in so far as these regulations contain rules with which the financial statements have to comply. This audit does neither cover any specific information on criminal offences such as breach of public trust or embezzlements nor any offences committed beyond accounting.

The audit was performed by defining an audit strategy, taking a risk-orientated approach. Based on this approach, significant criteria for the determination of audit procedures is the risk of errors and violations of statutory provisions. Knowledge of the business activities and the economic and legal environment of the Company and evaluations of possible misstatements are taken into account in the determination of audit procedures.

On the basis of this determination we have planned our audit procedures.

The effectiveness of the internal control system and the evidence supporting the disclosures in the books and records, the annual financial statements are examined primarily on a test basis within the framework of the audit. We focused on economic importance of each part of the audit and the type of accounting principles. Because of this assurance of the proper business transactions the scope of the individual audit procedures could be cut down. The audit procedures included plausibility checks and the audit of evidence of individual business transactions.

Provided that materiality limits were not exceeded no adjustments have been made.

We carried out our audit in April 2017 in our office premises in Munich. Our auditor's functions were essentially finished on April 21, 2017.

Our audit was focused on:

- Valuation of accruals
- Reconcile and evaluation of trade receivables and trade payables including affiliated companies

We have requested confirmations of affiliated companies concerning trade receivables and trade payables. Amounts due from and to affiliated companies have been agreed upon with the companies concerned.

The cash in banks and liabilities due to banks are in accordance with confirmations and statement of accounts.

AUDITOR'S REPORT (Contd.)

Details about the audit scope and methods are included in our working papers.

All requested documents had been at our entire disposal. Necessary explanations were given to us by:

- Warth & Klein Grant Thornton AG, the tax adviser of the Company (Munich)
- Ms. Rupali Hatle, Larsen & Toubro Infotech Ltd. (Mumbai/India).

We have received the Letter of Representation by the managing director. In the Letter of Representation the management promised that the bookkeeping contains all assets, liabilities and risks and that the information given to us is complete.

4. STATEMENTS AND EXPLANATION TO ACCOUNTING

4.1. ADEQUACY OF THE ACCOUNTING

4.1.1 ACCOUNTING AND OTHER REVIEWED DOCUMENTS

The accounting of the Company including the wage and salary accounting of the reporting year are performed outside by Warth & Klein Grant Thornton AG Wirt-schaftsprüfungsgesellschaft (tax consultant company), Munich, by the use of a data processing program called DATEV.

We have convinced ourselves of the adequacy and procedure of the accounting as a whole and its practical use. The vouchers are orderly and conclusive. Journal and ledger accounts are properly recorded. The accounting records documents handling is in accordance with the general accepted accounting principles. Assets and liabilities were properly proved. When we finished our audit all accounts were closed.

In the course of our audit and due to the information given to us we did not find any indications that the safety of the data processed for the purposes of accounting is not guaranteed.

4.1.2 FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The balance sheet as of March 31, 2017 and the profit and loss account for the period from April 1, 2016 to March 31, 2017 were correctly deduced from the accounting. The balance sheet format complies with the German Commercial Code. The assets were proven by balance files, confirmations, correspondences of the Company and other documents.

We audited the financial statements as of March 31, 2016 and supplied it with the auditors' opinion on April 22, 2016. The financial statements as of March 31, 2016 were approved at the shareholders' meeting on April 22, 2016.

The financial statements of Larsen & Toubro Infotech GmbH, Leipzig, were prepared in accordance with §§ 242-256 German Commercial Code (HGB) and the complementing regulations of §§ 264-288 German Commercial Code (HGB). Furthermore the regulations in the German GmbH Law were noticed.

The valuation of assets and liabilities applied to the German Commercial Code. The used accounting and valuation methods are presented in the notes to the financial statements (appendix 1.3).

Valuation methods and classifications of the financial statements as of March 31, 2016 are applied. The standards of § 252 of German Commercial Code (HGB) were followed by the Company and the German Accounting Directive Implementation Act.

The notes to the financial statements are in accordance with the applicable law and regulations. The notes to the financial statements especially contain all necessary disclosures, representations, analysis, explanations and reasons with regard to recording methods of the accounting and valuation of the individual items in the balance sheet and profit and loss account as well as the other necessary disclosures. We examined the individual disclosures of the notes to the financial statements within our audit of the individual items in the balance sheet and profit and loss account.

4.2. OVERALL PICTURE CONVEYED BY THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

4.2.1 RESULT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

According to the result of our audit the financial statements, in compliance with generally accepted accounting principles, present overall a true and fair view of its net worth, financial position and results of operations.

4.2.2 SUBSTANTIAL VALUATION METHODS

Tangible assets and intangible assets stated at purchase costs reduced by systematic depreciation. Fixed assets are depreciated on a straight-line method. Low value items up to EUR 410 are completely written-off in their first year.

The inventories are evaluated with the original purchase or production costs. As far as there were lower values at the day of the balance sheet, those were stated.

Receivables are stated at nominal value. Receivables denominated in a foreign currency are converted into EURO at the average spot exchange rate at the balance sheet date. Risks on receivables are taken into account by lump-sum valuation adjustments to appropriate extent.

Other accruals are set up for uncertain liabilities and are stated at the amount required based on sound business judgement.

Liabilities are stated at their settlement amounts. Liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are converted into EURO at the average spot exchange rate at the date of the balance sheet.

4.2.3 CHANGE IN ACCOUNTING AND EVALUATION METHODS

The application of accounting and evaluation choices of the German Commercial Code (HGB) as well as other bases of evaluation for the financial statements are unchanged compared to prior year. A change in accounting and evaluation methods as well as basic influences on the reporting of the net assets, financial position and results of operations by a changed practice of the scope of discretion are, according to our assessment, not existing.

Due to the initial application of the German Commercial Code (HGB) as revised by the German Accounting Directive

AUDITOR'S REPORT (Contd.)

Implementation Act (BilRUG) the structure differs from last year's in the following points: deletion of the items "extraordinary income", "extraordinary expenses" as well as "results of ordinary activities" and "extraordinary results", insertion of the item "result after taxes" between the items "taxes on income" and "other taxes". Restructuring to ensure compatibility of sales revenues were not necessary for the year 2016/ 2017.

4.2.4 STATEMENTS CONCERNING SINGLE ITEMS OF THE BALANCE SHEET

We refer to the notes of financial statements (Appendix 1.3).

As requested we did not give a detailed report about the net assets, financial position and results of operations of the Company.

5. REPETITION OF THE AUDITORS' OPINION

Based on the results of our audit of the financial statements as of March 31, 2017 of Larsen & Toubro Infotech GmbH, Leipzig, we render the following

AUDITORS' OPINION:

We have audited the annual financial statements, comprising the balance sheet, the income statement and the notes to the financial statements, together with the bookkeeping system of Larsen & Toubro Infotech GmbH, Leipzig, for the period from April 1, 2016 to March 31, 2017. The bookkeeping system and the preparation of these documents in accordance with German commercial law and supplementary articles of incorporation are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the annual financial statements, together with the bookkeeping system based on our audit.

We conducted our audit of the annual financial statements in accordance with § 317 HGB ("German Commercial Code") and German generally accepted standards for the audit of financial statements promulgated by the Institut der Wirtschaftsprüfer [Institute of Public Auditors in Germany] (IDW). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit such that misstatements materially affecting the presentation of the net assets, financial position and results of operations in the annual financial statements in accordance with German principles of proper accounting are detected with reasonable assurance. Knowledge of the business activities and the economic and legal environment of the Company and expectations as to possible misstatements are taken into account in the determination of audit procedures. The effectiveness of the accounting related internal control system and the evidence supporting the disclosures in the books and records, the annual financial statements and the management report are examined primarily on a test basis within the framework of the audit.

The audit includes assessing the accounting principles used and the evaluation of significant estimates made by management and evaluating the overall presentation of the annual financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Our audit has not led to any reservations.

In our opinion, based on the findings of our audit, the annual financial statements comply with the legal requirements and supplementary provisions of the shareholder agreement and give a true and fair view of the net assets, financial position and results of operations of the Company in accordance with German principles of proper accounting.

Munich, April 21, 2017

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS OF MARCH 31, 2017

1. KEY FIGURES, CLASSIFICATION, PREVIOUS YEAR'S FIGURE

The Larsen & Toubro Infotech GmbH – hereinafter referred to as the Company – with its seat in Leipzig, was founded by notarial record agreement dated June 14, 1999 and has a capital stock of EUR 25,000.00. The Company was registered at the commercial register Leipzig (HRB 15958) on July 28, 1999.

The parent company is Larsen & Toubro Infotech Limited with its domicile in Mumbai, India.

Object of the Company is the provision of consulting services in the area of information technology as well as the trade with products and rights of every type, particularly with assets, devices and fittings regarding information technology as well as software.

The company is a small company according to § 267 HGB (German Commercial Code), as the characteristics of size with regard to § 267 par. 1 HGB are not reached. The financial statements are set up according to the HGB and the GmbHG (Limited liability company law).

The structure of the balance sheet and profit and loss summary is according to the regulations of the HGB. The profit and loss account was set up in total expenditure format according to § 275 Abs. 2 HGB. The notes were prepared under consideration of the alleviation of § 288 HGB.

Due to the initial application of the German Commercial Code (HGB) as revised by the German Accounting Directive Implementation Act (BilRUG) the structure differs from last year's in the following points: deletion of the items "extraordinary income", extraordinary expenses" as well as "results of ordinary activities" and "extraordinary results", insertion of the item "result after taxes" between the items "taxes on income" and "other taxes". Restructuring to ensure compatibility of sales revenues were not necessary for the year 2016/ 2017.

Due to the initial application of HGB rules as revised by the BilRUG, sales revenues in the financial year 2016/2017 are not comparable to the sales revenues in the financial year 2015/2016. In regard to the disclosure of revenue results there have been no changes in 2016/2017 compared to 2015/2016.

2. ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES AND STANDARD OF VALUATION AND NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT

The applied accounting principles and valuation methods of the annual financial statements are in accordance with §§ 238 ff. HGB as well as with §§ 264 ff. HGB for corporations and the German Accounting Directive Implementation Act (BilRuG).

Fixed assets are capitalized at acquisition or production costs less normal depreciation. Moveable assets are depreciated using the straight-line method. Low value items up to EUR 410.00 are completely written-off in their first year.

The inventories are evaluated with the original purchase or production costs. As far as there were lower values at the day of the balance sheet, those were stated.

Receivables are stated at nominal value. Receivables denominated in a foreign currency are converted into EURO at the average spot exchange rate at the balance sheet date. Risks on receivables are taken into account by lump-sum valuation adjustments to appropriate extent.

Other assets and liabilities are considered with the nominal face respectively settlement value.

Liabilities are stated at their settlement amounts. Liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are converted into EURO at the average spot exchange rate at the date of the balance sheet.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Shareholder

L&T Infotech Canada Ltd / Infotech Larsen & Toubro Canada LTEE

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of L&T Infotech Canada Ltd / Infotech Larsen & Toubro Canada LTEE ("the Company") which comprise the balance sheets as at March 31, 2017 & March 31, 2016 and the related statements of income and retained earnings and statements of cash flows for the years ended March 31, 2017 & March 31, 2016, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of L&T Infotech Canada Ltd / Infotech Larsen & Toubro Canada LTEE as at March 31, 2017 & March 31, 2016 and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years ended March 31, 2017 & March 31, 2016 in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises.

1. Description of business

Larsen & Toubro Infotech Canada Ltd. / Infotech Larsen & Toubro Canada LTEE (the "Company") is incorporated under the Canada Business Corporations Act (Ontario). The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Larsen & Toubro Infotech Ltd., an India company ("Parent"). The Company is engaged in software consulting and development services.

2. Basis of presentation

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared by the management in accordance with Part II of the Chartered Professional Accountants in Canada Handbook -Accounting standards for private enterprises ("GAAP") which sets out generally accepted accounting principles for non-publicly accountable enterprises in Canada and includes the significant accounting policies described hereafter.

3. Basis for measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on going concern and historical cost basis.

4. Functional and presentation currency

The Company's functional and presentation currency is the Canadian dollar.

5. Significant accounting policies

a) Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Management bases the estimates on a number of factors, including historical experience, current events and actions that the Company may undertake in the future and other assumptions that the Company believes are reasonable under the circumstances. Estimates are used in accounting for items and matters such as revenues, provision for doubtful accounts, useful lives of non-current assets, legal and tax contingencies, employee compensation plans, income taxes and investment tax credit.

The estimates and judgments that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below:

i. Income taxes: Management uses estimates when determining current and deferred income taxes. These estimates are used to determine the recoverability of tax loss carry forward amounts, research and development expenditures and investment tax credits.

b) Foreign currency transactions

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the Canadian dollar at the rate of exchange in effect at the time of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities are translated into Canadian dollars at the year-end exchange rate. Non-monetary items are translated at historical rates. All exchange gains and losses are included in net income.

c) Revenue recognition

The Company recognizes revenues across all the revenue streams when they are earned, specifically when all the following conditions are met:

a) Services are provided to customers;
b) There is clear evidence that an arrangement exists;
c) Amounts are fixed or can be determined; and
d) The ability to collect is reasonably assured.

The Company recognizes revenue for different revenue streams as follows:

- Time and material service: Revenue with respect to time-and-material contracts is recognized as related services are performed applying the contracted rates.
- Development service: Revenue from development service is recognized on a percentage completion method. Percentage completion is measured based upon the efforts incurred to date in relation to the total estimated efforts to complete the contract. The Company monitors estimates of total contract revenue and cost on a routine basis through the delivery period. The cumulative impact of any change in estimates of the contract revenue or costs is reflected in the period in which the changes become known. In the event that a loss is anticipated on a particular contract, provision is made for the estimated loss.
- Revenue recognized under above methods is included in accrued income if it is not invoiced by the year end.

d) Provision for doubtful debts

The Company follows specific identification method for providing for doubtful debts. Management analyses accounts receivable and the composition of the accounts receivable ageing, historical bad debts, when evaluating the adequacy of the provision for doubtful debts.

e) Financial instruments

Financial instruments are measured at fair value on initial recognition. After initial recognition, financial instruments are measured at their fair values, except for loans and receivables and other financial liabilities, which are measured at cost or amortized cost using the effective interest rate method.

The Company has made the following classifications:

- Cash and cash equivalents are classified as assets held for trading and are measured at fair value. Gains and losses resulting from the periodic revaluation are recorded in net income;
- Accounts receivable are classified as loans and receivables and are initially recorded at fair value and subsequent measurements are recorded at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method; and
- Accounts payable and accrued liabilities are classified as other financial liabilities and are initially measured at their fair value. Subsequent measurements are recorded at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method.

f) Income taxes

The Company follows asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income taxes are recognized for the future income tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying values and their respective income tax basis [temporary differences]. Future income tax assets and liabilities are measured using substantively enacted income tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years during which temporary differences are expected to be realized or settled. The effect on future income tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is included in income in the period that includes the enactment date. A valuation allowance is provided to the extent that it is more likely than not; that future income tax asset will not be realized.

g) Investment tax credits

The Company is entitled to investment tax credits, which are earned as a percentage of eligible research and development expenditures incurred in each taxation year. Income tax investment tax credits related to expensed research and development costs are recorded as a reduction of the total expenditure. Income tax investment tax credits related to property and equipment are accounted for as a reduction in the cost of the related asset.

h) Dividend

Dividends are recognized as a liability in the period in which they are declared. The income tax consequences of dividends are recognized when a liability to pay the dividend is recognized.

i) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents, including cash on account, demand deposits and short-term investments with original maturities of three months or less, are recorded at cost, which approximates market value.

j) Computers, furniture and office equipment

Computers, furniture and office equipment are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. Capital assets are amortized over their estimated useful lives at the following rates and methods:

Equipment	:	20% declining balance method
Mobile phones	:	30% declining balance method
Computer equipment	:	30% declining balance method
Furniture and fixtures	:	20% declining balance method

The Company regularly reviews its capital assets to eliminate obsolete items.

18. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

In the normal course of business, the Company is exposed to financial risks that may potentially impact its operating results. The Company employs risk management strategies with a view to mitigating these risks on a cost-effective basis.

Credit risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to credit risk consist of cash equivalents and accounts receivable. The carrying amount of assets included on the balance sheet represents the maximum credit exposure.

No asset-backed commercial paper products were held. The Company has deposited the cash equivalents with a reputable financial institution, from which management believes the risk of loss to be remote.

As at March 31, 2017, two customers accounted for 61% [March 31, 2016 - three customers accounted for 78%] of the accounts receivable.

Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. Company's 27% sales are denominated in U.S. dollars. As at March 31, 2017, the accounts receivable denominated in U.S. dollars amounted to USD 182,993 [March 31, 2016 – USD 481,709]. The Company's cash and cash & cash equivalents denominated in U.S dollars amounted to USD 15,958 [March 31, 2016 – USD 157,975)

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company may encounter difficulties in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. Accounts payable are primarily due within 90 days and will be satisfied from current working capital.

Other price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk or currency risk), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual financial instrument or its issuer, or factors affecting all similar financial instruments traded in the market. The Company manages other price risk through asset allocation and maintaining a portfolio that is well diversified on both a geographic and industry sector basis

19. ECONOMIC DEPENDENCE

During the year ended March 31, 2017 a contract with one of the Company's major customers provided 67% of total revenues (March 31, 2016: 46%).

20. COMPARATIVE FIGURES

Certain comparative figures have been reclassified to conform to the presentation adopted in the current year. The reclassification has no impact on the reported net income and retained earnings.

21. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company evaluated all events and transactions that occurred after March 31, 2017 through April 26, 2017, the date the financial statements are issued. Based on the evaluation, the Company is not aware of any events or transactions that would require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

Gentlemen:

We audited the accompanying Balance Sheet of Larsen & Toubro Infotech, LLC as of March 31, 2017 and the related statements of Income, Retained Earnings and Cash Flows for the twelve months ended March 31, 2017. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. These standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement preparation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Larsen & Toubro Infotech LLC as of the twelve months ended and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended are in conformity with the generally accepted accounting principles.

Respectfully

For Ramesh Sarva, C.P.A. , P.C.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Shareholder

L&T Infotech Financial Services Technologies Inc.

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of L&T Infotech Financial Services Technologies Inc. ("the Company") which comprise the balance sheets as at March 31, 2017 & March 31, 2016 and the related statements of income and retained earnings and statements of cash flows for the years ended March 31, 2017 and March 31, 2016, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of L&T Infotech Financial Services Technologies Inc. as at March 31, 2017 & March 31, 2016 and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years ended March 31, 2017 and March 31, 2016 in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(All amounts in Canadian Dollars, unless otherwise stated)

1. Description of business

   L&T Infotech Financial Services Technologies Inc. (the “Company” or “LTIFST”) is incorporated under the Canada Business Corporations Act. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Larsen & Toubro Infotech Ltd., India (“Parent”). The Company commenced operations on January 1, 2011 with the acquisition of the information technology operations business of Citigroup Fund Services Canada Inc. (“Citi” or “CFSC”) by the Company’s Parent.

2. Basis of presentation

   The financial statements of the Company have been prepared by the management in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises (“GAAP”).

3. Basis for measurement

   The financial statements have been prepared on historical cost basis.

4. Functional and presentation currency

   The Company’s functional and presentation currency is the Canadian dollar.

5. Significant accounting policies

   Use of estimates

   The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

   Management bases the estimates on a number of factors, including historical experience, current events and actions that the Company may undertake in the future and other assumptions that the Company believes are reasonable under the circumstances. Estimates are used in accounting for items and matters such as revenues, allowance for doubtful accounts, useful lives of non-current assets, legal and tax contingencies, employee compensation plans, income taxes and investment tax credit.

   The estimates and judgments that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below

   i. Estimated useful lives and valuation of intangible assets: Management estimates the useful lives of intangible assets based on the period during which the assets are expected to be available for use and also estimates their recoverability to assess if there has been an impairment. The amounts and timing of recorded expenses for amortization and impairments of intangible assets for any period are affected by these estimates. The estimates are reviewed at least annually and are updated if expectations change as a result of technical or commercial obsolescence, threats and legal or other limits to use. It is possible that changes in these factors may cause significant changes in the estimated useful lives of the Company’s intangible assets in the future.

   ii. Income taxes: Management uses estimates when determining current and deferred income taxes. These estimates are used to determine the recoverability of tax loss carry forward amounts, research and development expenditure and investment tax credits.

   Foreign currency transactions

   Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the Canadian dollar at the rate of exchange in effect at the time of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities are translated into Canadian dollars at the period-end exchange rate. Non-monetary items are translated at historical rates. All exchange gains and losses are included in net income.

   Dividend

   Dividends are recognized as a liability in the period in which they are declared. The income tax consequences of dividends are recognized when a liability to pay the dividend is recognized.

   Revenue recognition

   The Company recognizes revenues across all the revenue streams when they are earned, specifically when all the following conditions are met:

   a) Services are provided to customers;

   b) There is clear evidence that an arrangement exists;

   c) Amounts are fixed or can be determined; and

   d) The ability to collect is reasonably assured.

The Company recognizes revenues for different revenue streams as follows:

- Application Service Provider ("ASP") Service: Revenue is recognized by applying the contracted rates on the total number of active and inactive fund accounts across all client customer environments.
- Time and Material Service: Revenue with respect to time-and-material contracts is recognized as related services are performed applying the contracted rates.
- Development Service: Revenue from development service is recognised on accomplishment of milestone. Milestone is measured based upon the time and material efforts incurred to date. The Company monitors estimates of total contract revenue and cost on a routine basis through the delivery period. The cumulative impact of any change in estimates of the contract revenue or costs is reflected in the period in which the changes become known. In the event that a loss is anticipated on a particular contract, provision is made for the estimated loss. Revenue recognised under this method is included in unbilled revenue if it is not invoiced by the year end.
- License Service: Revenue from sale of license is recognized upon delivery of license.

Billings in advance of work performed are included in deferred revenue.

Provision for doubtful debts

The Company follows specific identification method for providing for doubtful debts. Management analyses accounts receivable and the composition of the accounts receivable ageing, historical bad debts, when evaluating the adequacy of the allowance for doubtful debts.

Financial instruments

Financial instruments are measured at fair value on initial recognition. After initial recognition, financial instruments are measured at their fair values, except for loans and receivables and other financial liabilities, which are measured at carrying or exchange amount depending on the circumstances.

The Company has made the following classifications:

- Cash and cash equivalents are classified as assets held for trading and are measured at fair value. Gains and losses resulting from the periodic revaluation are recorded in net income;
- Accounts receivable are classified as loans and receivables and are initially recorded at fair value and subsequent measurements are recorded at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method; and
- Accounts payable and accrued liabilities are classified as other financial liabilities and are initially measured at their fair value. Subsequent measurements are recorded at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method.

Operating lease

Lease payments under operating lease are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term in the statement of income. Certain operating lease agreements provide for scheduled rent increases over the lease term. Rent expense for such lease is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Income taxes

The Company follows asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income taxes are recognized for the future income tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying values and their respective income tax basis [temporary differences]. Future income tax assets and liabilities are measured using substantively enacted income tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years during which temporary differences are expected to be realized or settled. The effect on future income tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is included in income in the period that includes the enactment date. A valuation allowance is provided to the extent that it is more likely than not; that future income tax asset will not be realized.

Investment tax credit

The Company is entitled to investment tax credits, which are earned as a percentage of eligible research and development expenditures incurred in each taxation year. Income tax investment tax credits related to expensed research and development costs are recorded as a reduction of the total expenditure. Income tax investment tax credits related to property and equipment are accounted for as a reduction in the cost of the related asset.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents, including cash on account, demand deposits and short-term investments with original maturities of three months or less, are recorded at cost, which approximates market value. Restricted cash deposits do not form part of cash and equivalents.

Property and equipment

Computers, mobile phones, furniture and office equipment and software are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization is calculated on the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Class of asset	Useful life
Computers	3 to 5 years
Furniture and office equipment	5 years
Acquired software	10 years
Internally developed software	1 to 5 years

Any gain or loss on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognized in profit and loss.

Certain costs are capitalized for the development or enhancement of computer software used internally to process customer transactions or sold externally through software license or service arrangements. Routine software maintenance and customer support costs are expensed when incurred.

Customer relationship intangibles

Customer relationship intangibles, which are comprised of customer contracts and relationships acquired, are stated net of amortization. Customer relationship intangibles are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives of ten years.

Impairment of long-lived assets

Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The carrying amount of a long-lived asset is not recoverable if the carrying amount exceeds the sum of the undiscounted cash flows expected to result from its use and eventual disposition. This assessment is based on the carrying amount of the asset at the date it is tested for recoverability, whether it is in use or under development. In cases where the undiscounted expected future cash flows are less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss shall be recognized when the carrying amount of a long-lived asset is not recoverable and exceeds its fair value. An impairment loss shall be measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of a long-lived asset exceeds its fair value. If an impairment loss is recognized, the adjusted carrying amount becomes the new cost basis.

An impairment loss shall not be reversed if the fair value subsequently increases.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the cost of acquired businesses in excess of the fair value of net identifiable assets acquired. Goodwill is not amortized but is instead tested for impairment if events or changes in circumstances indicate that an impairment loss may have occurred. In the impairment test, the carrying amount of the reporting unit, including goodwill, is compared with its fair value. When the carrying amount of the reporting unit exceeds its fair value, a goodwill impairment loss is recognized, up to a maximum amount of the recorded goodwill related to the reporting unit. Goodwill impairment losses are not reversed.

19. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

In the normal course of business, the Company is exposed to financial risks that may potentially impact its operating results. The Company employs risk management strategies with a view to mitigating these risks on a cost-effective basis.

Credit risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to credit risk consist of cash equivalents and accounts receivable. The carrying amount of assets included on the balance sheet represents the maximum credit exposure.

Cash equivalents consist mainly of short-term investments, such as bank deposits. No asset-backed commercial paper products were held. The Company has deposited the cash equivalents with a reputable financial institution, from which management believes the risk of loss to be remote.

The Company's accounts receivable is from customers engaged in the fund management sector. As at March 31, 2017, five customers accounted for 75% [March 31, 2016 - four customers accounted for 70%] of the accounts receivable.

As at March 31, 2017, one vendor accounted for 63% [March 31, 2016 - one customers accounted for 62%] of the accounts payable.

Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. Certain of the Company's purchases are denominated in U.S. dollars. As at March 31, 2017, the accounts payable and accrued liabilities denominated in U.S. dollars amounted to USD NIL [March 31, 2016 – USD 15,241]

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company may encounter difficulties in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. Accounts payable are primarily due within 90 days and will be satisfied from current working capital.

The Company has non-capital losses in the amount of $ Nil (2016 $ 1,924,575).

Taxation years ended March 31, 2011, March 31, 2012 and March 31, 2013:

The Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") conducted a tax audit of the Company for the three years ended March 31, 2013 and has disallowed/ reallocated certain expenses due to which carry forward non-capital losses have been reduced by $ 382,395 as follows:

Taxation year ended March 31, 2012	$ 282,523

The CRA has charged interest of $ 12,655 on the taxable income as determined by CRA. Since the Company has carry forward losses, the taxable income should have been offset against the carry forward losses resulting in $ Nil taxable income and no interest payable.

A notice of objection ("NOO") has been filed with Chief of Appeals, Canada Revenue Agency and the Company is confident that the disallowed expenses will be allowed as a deductible expense. Consequently, the Company is of the view that income tax may not be payable for the three years ending March 31, 2013.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the shareholders of Larsen & Toubro Infotech South Africa Proprietary Limited

Opinion

We have audited the Annual Financial Statements of Larsen & Toubro Infotech South Africa Proprietary Limited, which comprise the Statement of Financial Position as at 31 March, 2017, and the Statement of Comprehensive Income, Statement of Changes in Equity and Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and notes to the Annual Financial Statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the Annual Financial Statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Larsen & Toubro Infotech South Africa Proprietary Limited as at 31 March, 2017, and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and the requirements of the Companies Act, 71 of 2008.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Annual Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the company in accordance with the Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors Code of Professional Conduct for Registered Auditors (IRBA Code) and other independence requirements applicable to performing audits of financial statements in South Africa. We have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the IRBA Code and in accordance with other ethical requirements applicable to performing audits in South Africa. The IRBA Code is consistent with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (Parts A and B). We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other information

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the Directors' Report as required by the Companies Act, 71 of 2008 of South Africa, which we obtained prior to the date of this report. Other information does not include the Annual Financial Statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the Annual Financial Statements does not cover the other information and we do not express an audit opinion or any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Annual Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Annual Financial Statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the directors for the Annual Financial Statements

The directors are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the Annual Financial Statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and the requirements of the Companies Act, 71 of 2008, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of Annual Financial Statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Annual Financial Statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the Annual Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Annual Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT (Contd.)

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Annual Financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Annual Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Annual Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Annual Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Annual Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES AND APPROVAL

The Directors are required in terms of the Companies Act of South Africa, 2008 to maintain adequate accounting records and are responsible for the content and integrity of the annual financial statements and related financial information included in this report. It is their responsibility to ensure that the annual financial statements fairly present the state of affairs of Larsen & Toubro Infotech South Africa (Pty) Ltd as at the end of the financial period and the results of its operations and cash flows for the period then ended, in conformity with International Financial Reporting Standards. The external auditors are engaged to express an independent opinion on the annual financial statements.

The annual financial statements are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and are based upon appropriate accounting policies consistently applied and supported by reasonable and prudent judgments and estimates.

The directors acknowledge that they are ultimately responsible for the system of internal financial control established by the company and places considerable importance on maintaining a strong control environment.

To enable these responsibilities, the directors set standards for internal control aimed at reducing the risk of error or loss in a cost effective manner. The standards include the proper delegation of responsibilities within a clearly defined framework, effective accounting procedures and adequate segregation of duties to ensure an acceptable level of risk. These controls are monitored throughout the company and all employees are required to maintain the highest ethical standards in ensuring the company's business is conducted in a manner that in all reasonable circumstances is above reproach. The focus of risk management in the company is on identifying, assessing, managing and monitoring all known forms of risk across the company. While operating risk cannot be fully eliminated, the select entity endeavours to minimise it by ensuring that appropriate infrastructure, controls, systems and ethical behaviour are applied and managed within predetermined procedures and constraints.

The directors are of the opinion, based on the information and explanations given by management, that the system of internal control provides reasonable assurance that the financial records may be relied on for the preparation of the annual financial statements. However, any system of internal financial control can provide only reasonable, and not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The directors have reviewed the company's cash flow forecast for the year ended 31 March 2018 and, in the light of this review and the current financial position, they are satisfied that the company has access to adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future.

The external auditors are responsible for independently reviewing and reporting on the company's annual financial statements. The annual financial statements have been examined by the company's external auditors and their report is appended here with.

The annual financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis, were approved by the directors on 26 April 2017 and were signed on its behalf by:

ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1 PRESENTATION OF ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The annual financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and the Companies Act of South Africa. The annual financial statements have been prepared on on the historical cost basis, except for those assets and liabilities stated at fair value, and incorporate the principal accounting policies set out below. They are presented in South African Rands.

1.1 Financial instruments

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial instruments are recognised initially when Larsen and Toubro Infotech South Africa (Pty) Ltd becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Larsen and Toubro Infotech South Africa (Pty) Ltd classifies financial instruments, or their component parts, on initial recognition as a financial asset, a financial liability or an equity instrument in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangement.

Non-derivative financial instruments

Non-derivative financial instruments comprise trade and other receivables, cash and cash equivalents, and trade and other payables.

Non-derivative financial instruments are recognised initially at fair value plus, for instruments not at fair value through profit and loss, any directly attributable transaction costs, except as described below. Subsequent to initial recognition, non-derivative financial instruments are measured as described below.

Trade receivables are measured at initial recognition at fair value, and are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method. Appropriate allowances for estimated irrecoverable amounts are recognised in profit or loss when there is objective evidence that the asset is impaired. The allowance recognised is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition.

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash balances and call deposits.

Trade and other payables are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into.

1.2 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to issue of ordinary shares are recognised as a deduction from equity.

1.3 Income Taxation

Income tax on the profit or loss for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Current tax and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that it relates to a business combination, or items recognised directly in equity or in other comprehensive income, in which case it is recognized in equity or other comprehensive income.

Current tax

Current tax represents the expected tax payable on taxable income for the period, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date, and any adjustments to tax payable in respect of previous reporting periods.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying values for the financial reporting purposes. Deferred tax is not recognised for the following temporary differences:

- the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss, and
- differences relating to investments in subsidiaries and jointly controlled entities to the extent that it is probable that they will not reverse in the foreseeable future.
  In addition, deferred tax is not recognised for taxable temporary differences arising on the initial recognition of goodwill.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax liabilities and assets, and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realised simultaneously.

A deferred tax asset is recognised for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences, to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilised. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Contd.)

1.4 Provisions and contingencies

Provisions are recognised when:

* Larsen and Toubro Infotech South Africa (Pty) Ltd has a present obligation as a result of a past event;
* it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; and
* a reliable estimate can be made of the obligation.

The amount of a provision is the present value of the expenditure expected to be required to settle the obligation.

Where some or all of the expenditure required to settle a provision is expected to be reimbursed by another party, the reimbursement shall be recognised when, and only when, it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received if the entity settles the obligation. The reimbursement shall be treated as a separate asset. The amount recognised for the reimbursement shall not exceed the amount of the provision.

Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.
If an entity has a contract that is onerous, the present obligation under the contract shall be recognised and measured as a provision.

1.5 Revenue

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable and represents the amounts receivable for goods and services provided in the normal course of business, net of trade discounts and volume rebates.

1.6 Adoption of New and Revised Standards

A number of new standards, amendments to standards and interpretations are not yet effective for the period ended 31 March 2017, and have not been applied in preparing these financial statements:

*IFRS 9	Financial Instruments	Annual years beginning on or after 1 January 2018
*IFRS 15	Revenue from contracts with customers	Annual years beginning on or after 1 January 2017

The directors anticipate that all of the above Standards and Interpretations will be adopted in the financial statements of the period in which they become effective and that their adoption will have no material impact on the financial statements in the period of initial application.

1.7 Critical Accounting Judgements and Key Sources of Estimation Uncertainty

Management has not made any judgements or assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

1. MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Company's management is responsible for preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements, such responsibility includes: (i) ensuring that the Financial Statements are properly prepared in conformity with the Accounting Standards for Small Business Enterprises and are presented fairly (ii) designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation of financial statements to ensure the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error.

2. AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the China Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

3. AUDIT OPINION

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of L&T Information Technology Services (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. as at 31 December 2016, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the Accounting Standards for Small Business Enterprises.

(not related to the management of state-run trade goods; involving quota, license management of goods, in accordance with relevant state regulations apply; involving administrative approval, permit to operate).

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises and "Accounting System for Small Business enterprises" as promulgated by the State of the People's Republic of China.

3 PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Accounting period
The company's accounting year starts on 1 January and ends on 31 December.

(b) Recording currency
The recording currency of the Company is the Renminbi (RMB).

(c) Basis of accounting and measurement bases
The Company follows the accrual basis of accounting. Assets are initially recorded at actual costs on acquisition and subsequently adjusted for impairment, if any.

(d) Foreign currency translation
Except for the accounting treatment of paid-in capital, foreign currency transactions are translated into RMB at the exchange rates stipulated by the People's Bank of China ("the stipulated exchange rates") on the day in which the transactions took place. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the balance sheet date are translated into RMB at the stipulated exchange rates at the balance sheet date. Exchange differences arising from these translations are expensed, except for those attributable to foreign currency borrowings that have been made specifically for the construction of fixed assets, which are capitalized as part of the fixed asset costs and those arising in the pre-operating period, which are recorded as long-term deferred expenses.

Contributions to paid-in capital made in foreign currencies are translated into the RMB denominated paid-in capital account at the stipulated exchange rates at the contribution dates. Exchange differences arising from foreign currency capital contribution should be recognized as capital surplus.

(e) Cash and cash equivalents
For the purposes of the cash flow statement, cash refers to all cash in hand and all deposits. Cash equivalents refer to short-term and highly-liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

(f) Receivables and provision for bad debts
Receivables comprise accounts receivable and other receivables. The provision method is used to account for potential bad debts identified by management. Receivables are presented at actual amounts net of provision for bad debts.

(1) Accounts receivable
Accounts receivable comprises related party receivables and receivables from non-related parties.

The Company makes specific bad debts provision on an individual basis for accounts receivable that are distinctively different from any other receivable in recoverability. If there are indications that the balances cannot be recovered, the specific provision will be adjusted accordingly.

(2) Other receivable
Specific provisions are made for other receivables on an individual basis.

NOTES TO THE 2016 FINANCIAL REPORTS (Contd.)

3) Recognition criteria of bad debts loss

Where evidence exists that balances cannot be recovered due to the debtor's de-registration, bankruptcy, insolvent and death, etc., bad debts are recognized and corresponding provision for bad debts is written off after the approval of the Company's general manager or the board pursuant to the authorization policies established in the Company.

(g) Fixed assets and depreciation

Fixed assets are tangible assets that are used in production, including sales of goods, rendering of services and leases, or held for management purposes, which have useful lives of more than one year and have relatively high unit price.

Fixed assets purchased or constructed by the Company are recorded at cost.

Fixed assets are depreciated using the straight-line method to allocate the cost of the assets to their estimated residual values over their estimated useful lives. For the fixed assets being provided for impairment loss, the related depreciation charge is prospectively determined based upon the adjusted carrying amounts over their remaining useful lives.

The estimated useful lives, estimated residual values expressed as a percentage of cost and annual depreciation rates are as follows:

	Estimated Useful Lives	Estimated Residual Value	Annual Depreciation Rate
Office and electronic equipment	3yrs	0%	33.33%

When fixed assets are sold, transferred, disposed of or damaged, gains and losses on disposal are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount of the assets, adjusted by related taxes and expenses, and are included in non-operating income or expenses.

(h) Revenue recognition

Revenue from the rendering of services shall be recognized at the time of service provided and consideration received or receivable.

Interest income should be measured based on the period between the acquisition date and the maturity date and the applicable interest rate.

Subsidy income shall be recognized at the time of receipt.

AUDIT REPORT

To the Management Board of Larsen & Toubro Infotech Austria GmbH
Vienna

We have completed the audit of the financial statements as of March 31, 2017 of

Larsen & Toubro Infotech Austria GmbH
Vienna,
(referred to as "the Company") and provide the results of our audit in the following report:

1. AUDIT CONTRACT AND PERFORMANCE OF THE ENGAGEMENT

The Company, represented by the management board, concluded an audit contract with us to audit the financial statements as of March 31, 2017, including the accounting system pursuant to Sections 269 ff. UGB.

The Company is small sized corporation pursuant to Section 221 UGB.

The audit is a voluntary audit.

The objective of the audit was to examine compliance with legal requirements.

In performing the audit, we adhered to the legal provisions and the relevant professional standards on performing an audit applicable in Austria. We draw attention to the fact that the audit provides reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. Absolute assurance cannot be achieved, since the possibility of errors is inherent in each accounting and internal control system and since the audit is based on samples, there is an unavoidable risk that material misstatements in the financial statements are not detected. Areas which are generally covered in special engagements were not included in our scope of work.

We performed the audit in April 2017. The audit was concluded by the date of this report.

Responsible for the proper performance of the engagement is Mr. Dr. MMag. Sascha Berkovec, Austrian Certified Public Accountant.

Our audit is based on the audit contract concluded with the Company, an integral part of which are the General Conditions of Contract for the Public Accounting Professions issued by the Austrian Chamber of Public Accountants and Tax Advisors. These General Conditions of Contract do not only apply between the Company and the auditor, but also towards third parties. Section 275 UGB applies with regard to our responsibility and liability as auditor towards the Company and towards third parties.

2. DISCLOSURE OF AND NOTES ON SIGNIFICANT ITEMS IN THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

All required disclosures of significant items in the financial statements are included in the attached figures.

3. SUMMARY OF THE RESULTS OF THE AUDIT

3.1. CONCLUSION ON THE COMPLIANCE OF THE ACCOUNTING AND THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In performing our audit procedures, we determined the compliance with statutory provisions and generally accepted accounting principles.

As part of our risk and control oriented audit approach, we included in the audit where we considered it necessary for our audit report the internal controls in parts of the accounting process.

With regard to the legal compliance of the financial statements, we refer to our comments in the auditor's report.

3.2. INFORMATION PROVIDED

All information required was provided by the legal representatives of the Company. A letter of representation signed by the legal representatives has been included in our working papers.

In performing our duties as auditor, we have not determined any facts that might endanger the audited Company's position as a going concern or adversely affect its future development, nor any facts that would constitute a serious breach of the law or of the Company's articles of association by the legal representatives or employees. Material weaknesses in the internal control of the accounting process have not come to our attention. The criteria for assuming a reorganization requirement (Section 22 No. 1 URG (Austrian Reorganization Act)) are not met.

4. AUDITOR'S REPORT

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements, including the accounting of Larsen & Toubro Infotech Austria GmbH Vienna, for the fiscal year from April 1, 2016 to March 31, 2017. These financial statements comprise the balance sheet as of March 31, 2017, the income statement for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Our responsibility and liability as auditor is analogously to Section 275 UGB (liability regulations for the audit of small and medium sized companies) limited with a total of 2 million Euro towards the Company and towards third parties.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements and for the Accounting System

The Company's management is responsible for the accounting and for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Austrian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. This responsibility includes: designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditor's Responsibility and Description of Type and Scope of the Statutory Audit

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with laws and regulations applicable in Austria and Austrian Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we comply with professional guidelines and that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a reasonable basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

Our audit did not give rise to any objections. In our opinion, which is based on the results of our audit, the financial statements comply with legal requirements and give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Company as of March 31, 2017 and of its financial performance for the fiscal year from April 1, 2016 to March 31, 2017 in accordance with Austrian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.

COMPILATION REPORT

We have compiled the financial statements of Larsen & Toubro Infotech Austria GmbH c/o Oberhammer Rechtsanwälte GmbH as of 31.03.2017 consisting of the balance sheet, the profit and loss statement, and the notes on the basis of bookkeeping and inventory and the provisions of the applicable accounting and valuation methods.

The procedures rendered by us (the entire bookkeeping, payroll services and register of assets) and additionally the receipts, books and inventory evidence presented by you as well as other information provided by you, which we did not check regarding regularity or plausibility in accordance with the engagement, form the basis for the preparation of the financial statements. The bookkeeping and the statement of inventory as well as the financial statements prepared in accordance with the Austrian Commercial Code (UGB) and the additional regulations of the articles of association lie within your responsibility.

We have not performed any audit procedures on the financial statements nor any other kind of assurance services or agreed upon procedures and , as a consequence, we do not provide any assurance on these financial statements.

You are responsible for any exhaustiveness of the documentation and the information provided to us, also towards user of the financial statements compiled by us. In this context we refer to the letter of representation signed by you at our request.

The compilation engagement was carried out considering the Expert Opinion KFS/RL 26 “Principles for the Preparation of Financial Statements”. The General Conditions of Contract for the Public Accounting Professions (AAB), issued by the Austrian Chamber of Public Accountants and Tax Advisors (KWT), as of 21 February 2011 shall apply to this compilation engagement.

The disclosure of the financial statements to third parties may only be provided by adding the full compilation report.

If the financial statements compiled by us are distributed to any third parties, the provisions stipulated in section 8. AAB for the Public Accounting Professions of KWT regarding the liability vis-à-vis third parties shall apply.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBER OF L&T INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SPAIN, S.L.:

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of L&T INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SPAIN, S.L., which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2017, the statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Sole administrator Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Sole administrator is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Spanish General Accounting Plan, identified on the note 2 from the summary and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Spanish Audit Law. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of L&T INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SPAIN, S.L. as at March 31, 2017, and its financial performance for the year then ended in accordance with Spanish General Accounting Plan.

4. Accounting and valuation policies

The main accounting and valuation policies used to prepare the annual accounts are as follows:

4.1. Financial instruments

a) The company has acknowledged a financial instrument on its balance sheet when it has become a part of the contract or legal business in accordance with the provisions of the same. Instruments of equity of other companies or contractual rights to receive cash or another financial asset have been considered as financial assets consisting of cash. Contractual rights to exchange assets or financial liabilities with others in potentially favourable conditions have also been considered.

For valuation purposes, the financial assets of the Company are classified as follows:

- Financial assets at amortized cost: this category of financial assets includes on the one hand, trade receivables, arising from the sale of goods and provision of services for trade operations of the company, and on the other hand, other financial assets not being equity instruments or derivatives, they have no commercial origin and their charges are fixed or determinable amount. Financial assets included in this category are initially valued at cost, which equals the fair value of the consideration paid plus transaction costs.

b) The financial instruments are classified as financial liabilities, when they have been for the company an obligation contractual, direct or indirect, to deliver cash or another financial asset, or of exchanging assets or financial liabilities with others in potentially unfavourable conditions, or that gives the holder the right to demand from the issuer their rescue on a date and for a specified amount.

The financial liabilities, for the purposes of its assessment, been classified in the following categories:

-Financial liabilities at amortized cost: they have been included as such, the amounts owed by commercial operations, which originated in the purchase of goods and services by the company trafficking operations, and debits by non-commercial operations, which not being derivative instruments, do not have sales origin. These financial liabilities have been valued initially at value reasonable, and subsequently, at their amortized cost.

4.2. Corporation Tax

In general, it recognized a deferred tax liability for all taxable temporary differences, unless these have arisen from the initial recognition of goodwill, the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a combination of business and also affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable income or investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint always business and when the investor has been able to control the timing of the reversal of the difference and also have been likely that such difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets, in accordance with the principle of prudence, have been recognized as such in so far as it has been likely that the company has disposed off future taxable profits that allow the application of these assets. If the above condition is met, generally it has been considered a deferred tax asset if: there have been deductible temporary differences, rights to offset in subsequent years, tax losses and deductions and other tax benefits not used that have been pending fiscally apply.

Assets and deferred tax liabilities are valued at the expected rates of tax at the time of reversal, as the legislation has been in force or approved and pending publication at the close of the year, and according to the form that is planned rationally recover or settle the asset or liability.

4.3. Income and expenses

Revenue is recognized as a result of an increase in the resources of the company, and where the amount has been reliably determined. Expenses have been recognized as a result of dwindling resources of the company, and where the amount has also been able to assess or estimate reliably.

Revenues from services are recognized when the outcome of the transaction can be estimated reliably, considering the percentage of completion at the year-end date. Only being posted income from the provision of services with the following conditions: when the amount of revenue has been reliably measured, provided the company receives profits or income from the transaction, and this transaction has been valued at close exercise reliably, and finally when the costs incurred in the transaction and the remaining to be incurred have been measured reliably.

4.4. Provisions and contingencies

The company has recognized as provisions liabilities that fulfil the definition and criteria for accounting records contained in the conceptual framework of accounting, have been indeterminate with respect to their amount or the date they will be cancelled. Provisions have been determined by a legal, contractual provision or for an obligation implied or tacit.

Provisions have been valued at the date of closure of the exercise by the present value of the best possible estimate of the amount needed to cancel or transfer to a third party the obligation, registering settings that have emerged for the update of the provision as a financial expense as they have been earning. In the case of provisions with maturity exceeding the year not carried out any type of discount.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of AugmentIQ Data Sciences Private Limited

Report on the standalone Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) financial statements

We have audited the accompanying standalone Ind AS financial statements of AugmentIQ Data Sciences Private Ltd ('the Company'), which comprise the balance sheet as at 31 March 2017, the statement of profit and loss (including other comprehensive income), the cash flow statement and the statement of changes in equity for the year then ended, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (herein after referred to as 'standalone Ind AS financial statements').

Management's responsibility for the standalone Ind AS financial statements

The Company's board of directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') with respect to the preparation of these standalone Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Ind AS prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with relevant rules issued thereunder.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these standalone Ind AS financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit of the standalone Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone Ind AS financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the standalone Ind AS financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the standalone Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the standalone Ind AS financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone Ind AS financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone Ind AS financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India including the Ind AS, of the financial position of the Company as at 31 March 2017, and its financial performance including other comprehensive income, its cash flows and the changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Other Matters

The comparative financial information of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2016 and the transition date opening balance sheet as at 1 April 2015 included in these standalone Ind AS financial statements, are based on the previously issued statutory financial statements prepared in accordance with the Companies Accounting Standards' Rules, 2006 audited by the predecessor auditor whose report for the year ended 31 March 2016 and 31 March 2015 dated 13 August 2016 and 25 September 2015 respectively expressed an unmodified opinion on those standalone financial statements, as adjusted for the differences in the accounting principles adopted by the Company on transition to the Ind AS, which have been audited by us.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of these matters.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT (Contd.)

Accordingly, paragraphs 3(iii) (a), (b) and (c) of the Order are not applicable to the Company.

(iv) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the company has neither given loan to directors or investment made by the company. Accordingly, paragraph 3(iv) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(v) In our opinion and according to information and explanation given to us, the Company has not accepted deposits as per the directives issued by the Reserve Bank of India under the provisions of sections 73 to 76 or any other relevant provisions of the Act and the rules framed there under. Accordingly, paragraph 3(v) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(vi) According to the information and explanations given to us, the central government has not prescribed the maintenance of cost records under section 148(1) of the Act for any of the services rendered by the Company. Accordingly, paragraph 3(vi) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(vii) (a) According to the information and explanations given to us and on the basis of our examination of records of the Company, amounts deducted/ accrued in the books of account in respect of undisputed statutory dues including provident fund, income tax, service tax, cess and other material statutory dues have been regularly deposited during the year by the Company with the appropriate authorities. As explained to us the Company did not have any dues on account of sales tax, duty of customs, duty of excise, employees's state insurance and value added tax.

(b) According to the information and explanations given to us, no undisputed amounts payable in respect of provident fund, income tax, service tax, cess and other material statutory and other material statutory dues were in arrears as at 31 March 2017 for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.

(c) According to the information and explanations given to us and on the basis of our examination of records of the Company, there are no dues of income tax, value added tax, sales tax, service tax, duty of excise and duty of custom that have not been deposited with the appropriate authorities on account of any dispute.

(viii) The Company does not have any loans or borrowings from any financial institution, banks, government or debenture holders during the year. Accordingly, paragraph 3(viii) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(ix) The Company has neither raised money by sale of initial public offer or further public offer (including debt instruments) nor by way of term loans and, accordingly, paragraph 3(ix) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(x) According to the information and explanations given to us, there were no material frauds by the Company or on the Company by its officers or employees that have been noticed or reported during the year.

(xi) According to the records of the Company examined by us and the information and explanations given to us, the Company has not paid any managerial remuneration during the year and accordingly paragraph 3(xi) of the Order is not applicable.

(xii) In our opinion and according to the information and explanation given to us, the Company is not a nidhi company. Accordingly, paragraph 3(xii) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

ANNEXURE A TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT (Contd.)

(xiii) According to the information and explanation given to us and based on our examination of the records of the Company, transactions with the related parties are in compliance with section 177 and 188 of the Act where applicable and details of such transactions have been disclosed in the financial statements as required by the applicable accounting standards.

(xiv) According to the information and explanation given to us and based on our examination of the records of the Company, the Company has not made any preferential allotment or private placement of shares or partly convertible debentures during the year. Accordingly, paragraph 3(xiv) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(xv) According to the information and explanation given to us and based on our examination of the records of the Company, the Company has not entered into non- cash transactions with directors or persons connected with him. Accordingly paragraph 3(xv) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(xvi) The Company is not required to be registered under section 45-IA of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

Report on the internal financial controls under clause (i) of sub-section 3 of section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of AugmentIQ Data Sciences Private Ltd ('the Company') as of 31 March 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's responsibility for internal financial controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of internal financial controls over financial reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

NOTES FORMING PART OF ACCOUNTS

1. Company Overview

AugmentIQ Data Sciences Private Limited is a software development company, wholly owned by Larsen & Toubro Infotech Limited having its registered office at Godrej Eternia A, 5th Floor, Mumbai Pune road, Shivajinagar, Pune – 411 005.

2. Significant accounting policies

a. Basis of Preparation

Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use. Further the guidance notes or announcements issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) are also considered wherever applicable.

Preparation of financial statements in conformity with Accounting Standards requires management of the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the income and expense reported for the period and assets, liabilities and disclosures reported as of the date of the financial statements. Examples of such estimates include useful lives of tangible and intangible assets, provision for doubtful debts, future obligations in respect of retirement benefit plans, etc. Actual results could vary from these estimates.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) as prescribed under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013, read with rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and Companies (Indian Accounting Standards Amendment) Rules 2016.

The Company has prepared its first Ind AS compliant financial statements as on 1 April 2015 (the date of transition). Refer note 3 “First-time adoption of Ind AS” for an explanation of impact of transition from Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India (iGAAP) to Ind AS on the Company’s financial statements.

b. Presentation of financial statements

The statement of financial position and the statement of Profit and Loss are prepared and presented in the format prescribed in Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. The cash flow statement has been prepared and presented as per the requirements of Ind AS 7 “Cash Flow Statements”. The disclosure requirements with respect to items in the balance sheet and statement of profit and loss, as prescribed in Schedule III to the Act, are presented by way of notes forming part of accounts along with the other notes required to be disclosed under the notified Accounting Standards.

c. Property, plant and equipment

Property plant and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. The cost comprises the purchase price and any attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price. Capital work-in-progress includes cost of fixed assets that are not ready to be put to use.

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of fixed asset is added to its book value only if it increases the future benefits from the existing asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance.

All other expenses on existing fixed assets, including day-to-day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss for the period during which such expenses are incurred.

Gains or losses arising from disposal of fixed assets are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss when the asset is disposed.

d. Intangible assets

Assets like customer relationship, computer software, and internally developed software are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation, amortisation and impairment.

e. Depreciation

Considering the applicability of Schedule II, the management has re-estimated useful lives and residual values of all its fixed assets. Accordingly, depreciation on tangible and intangible fixed assets is provided on straight line method at estimated useful life.

f. Impairment of assets

As at each balance sheet date, assets are tested for impairment so as to determine, the provision for impairment loss, if any, and the reversal of impairment loss recognised in previous periods, if any.

An impairment loss, if any, is recognised for the amount by which the asset’s carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset’s fair value less costs of disposal and value in use.

g. Investments

Investments which are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than one year from the date on which such investments are made, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments.

On initial recognition, all investments are measured at cost. The cost comprises purchase price and directly attributable acquisition charges such as brokerage, fees and duties.

Current investments are carried at lower of cost and fair value, determined on category of investment basis. Long-term investments presented as non-current investments are carried at cost.

h. Current and Non-current classification

An asset or a liability is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

i. it is expected to be realized/settled, or is intended for sale or consumption, in the Company's normal operating cycle; or

ii. it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded; or

iii. it is expected to be realized/due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting date; or

iv. it is cash or cash equivalent unless it is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting date; or

v. the Company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting date.

All other assets and liabilities are classified as non-current.

i. Income tax

1) Current tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of taxable income and tax credits computed in accordance with the provisions of the Income-tax Act 1961, any amendments / rules that have been enacted by the end of the reporting period. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

2) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. Deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred tax is computed in accordance with the provisions of the Income-tax Act 1961, and any amendments / rules that have been enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred tax asset is realised or the deferred tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

3) Current and deferred tax for the year

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

j. Leases

Operating Lease:

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are not transferred to the Company as lessee are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease unless the payments are structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for the lessor's expected inflationary cost increases.

k. Financial instruments

A Financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

a) Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

The Company classifies its investments and financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured at cost (investment in subsidiaries)
- those to be measured subsequently at fair value through other comprehensive income, and
- those to be measured subsequently at fair value through profit and loss

In the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset are added to the fair value of those financial assets.

Subsequent measurement

- Fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI): Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI). Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit and loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in other gains/ (losses). Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income using the effective interest rate method.
- Fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL): Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at fair value through profit or loss. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at fair value through profit or loss and is not part of a hedging relationship is recognised in profit or loss and presented net in the statement of profit and loss within other gains/(losses) in the period in which it arises. Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income.

b) Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate. All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Company's financial liabilities include trade and other payables. These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Company prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities on the basis of the operating cycle of the Company.

Subsequent measurement

Fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL): Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss are designated as such at the initial date of recognition, and only if the criteria in Ind AS 109 are satisfied. All changes in fair value of such liability are recognised in the statement of profit or loss. The Company has not designated any financial liability as at fair value through profit and loss.

l. Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, balances with banks and fixed deposits having maturity less than one year.

m. Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized:

Revenue from time and material engagements is recognized on time basis in accordance with the terms of the contracts with customers.

Revenue from services performed on fixed-price basis is recognized over the life of contract using the proportionate completion method.

Revenue from sale of products and licenses is recognized upon delivery when all risks and rewards are transferred.

Unbilled revenue represents value of services performed in accordance with the contract terms but not billed.

n. Other income

I) Interest income is accrued at applicable interest rate.

II) Dividend income is accounted in the period in which the right to receive the same is established.

III) Other items of income are accounted as and when the right to receive arises.

o. Employee benefits

Short term employee benefits

All employee benefits falling due wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short term employee benefits. The benefits like salaries, wages, and short term compensated absences and performance incentives are recognized in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

After Acquisition, all employees are transferred to Larsen & Toubro Infotech Limited, and no further costs are booked in company's books of accounts.

p. Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognized for liabilities that can be measured only by using a substantial degree of estimation, if

I) the Company has a present obligation as a result of a past event;

II) a probable outflow of resources is expected to settle the obligation; and

III) the amount of the obligation can be reliably estimated

Reimbursement expected in respect of expenditure required to settle a provision is recognized only when it is virtually certain that the reimbursement will be received.

Contingent liability is disclosed in case of,

I) a present obligation arising from a past event when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; or

II) a possible obligation unless the probability of outflow of resources is remote.

Contingent assets are neither recognised nor disclosed.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

q. Segment accounting

Operating segments are defined as components of an enterprise for which discrete financial information is used regularly by the Company's Chief Operating Decision Maker in deciding how to allocate resources and assessing performance.

I) Segment revenue is the revenue directly identifiable with or allocable to the segment.

II) Expenses that are directly identifiable with or allocable to segments are considered for determining the segment result. Expenses which relate to the Company as a whole and not identifiable with or allocable to segments are included under "unallocable expenses".

III) Other income which relates to the Company as a whole and not identifiable with or allocable to segments is included in "unallocable income".

IV) Assets and liabilities used in the Company's business are not identified to any of the reportable segment as these are used interchangeably.

r. Cash flow statement

Cash flow statement is prepared segregating the cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities. Cash flow is reported using indirect method as per the requirements of Ind AS 7 ("Cash flow statements").

6. In case the Company has failed to spend the two per cent of the average net profit of the last three financial years or any part thereof, the Company shall provide the reasons for not spending the amount in its Board report.

The objective of our CSR Policy is to create a visible impact in the focus areas for the beneficiaries and not just spending the requisite amount. The Company has made efforts to identify projects in line with its CSR focus areas. In 2016-2017 Company has spent its CSR amount through credible implementing partners such as Indian Institute of Technology (IIT Madras), LabourNet, Aarambh, Arch social consultants, STEM Learning, National Agro Foundation (NAF), Swami Vivekananda Youth Movement (SVYM), Engineers without Borders (EWB) and Sankara Nethralaya. Focus areas such as Innovation and Technology, Education, Skill Development, Health, Water and Environment was given priority as per the CSR Policy of the Company. Many of the project Implementation are long term in nature, so detailed feasibility study on the outcome and impact of the projects have been carried out including in some cases like watershed project in Kolvadi and solar power project in MG Halli village technical feasibility and the social impact and benefit, this has delayed some of the project start date and some of the milestones. The actual spend is lesser than what has been planned for the year FY 2016-17. The details of which are given below:

Excess amount spent:

- Skill development centre at Bangalore, Chennai over achieved the target in terms of training and more schools covered in Mini Science lab kit project at Baroda and Mumbai (Excess ₹ 1.20 million)
- Engineers Without Border (EWB) paid- ₹ 0.60 million

Lesser amount spent:

- Mobile Eye surgery project actual spend was low against original proposal - ₹ 0.25 million
- MG Halli Mysore solar energy project approval from various authorities got delayed- ₹ 3.04 million
- Due diligence process and submission of DPR from National Agro foundation (NAF) got delayed. milestone completed on schedule

Dropped below Projects:

- IITM Research project on Urban infrastructure delivery system-another automotive co has sponsored - ₹ 5.50 million
- IITM Research project on transport service metering project proposal and subsequently milestone got delayed - ₹ 1.80 million
- Stem cell project social impact study conducted its effectiveness was low - ₹ 2.20 million
- The watershed project in Andhra Pradesh, could not get local community support and was dropped - ₹ 3.00 million
- Solar energy project by VJTI was for R&D purpose and could not identify remote village - ₹ 3.50 million
- Total shortfall: ₹ 16.06 million against ₹ 52.80 million. Spent ₹ 36.02 million

7. A responsibility statement of the CSR Committee that the implementation and monitoring of CSR Policy, is in compliance with CSR objectives and Policy of the Company.

The CSR Committee hereby affirms that:

- The Company has duly formulated a CSR Policy Framework which includes formulation of a CSR Theme, CSR budget and roles and responsibilities of the Committee, CSR team formed for implementation of the CSR policy;
- The Company has constituted a mechanism to monitor and report on the progress of the CSR programs;
- The activities undertaken by the Company as well as the implementation and monitoring mechanisms are in compliance with its CSR objectives and CSR policy & its Framework.

COMPLIANCE MONITORING SYSTEM

The statutory compliance has become a catalyst for Corporate Governance. A good statutory compliance system has become vital for effective conduct of business operations. Currently, the compliance system is managed by the Company manually. As a major portion of the Company's business is conducted abroad, apart from ensuring compliance with Indian statutes, the Company also complies with the statutes of the countries where the Company has presence.

With a view to strengthen this system, the Company has taken steps to automate the said manual system and has framed a web based portal which will provide the users a web–based access, controls based on a defined authorization matrix. Besides connecting all the Compliance owners across time zones to a common corporate platform, the portal is expected to serve as a repository of the compliance exercise yielding substantial saving in resources and efforts for tracking compliance. The Company is taking steps to build this Statutory Compliance Monitoring system.

UNCLAIMED SHARES

From the period September 23, 2016, 64 shares were lying under the securities escrow account due to invalid demat account details. During the year under review few shareholders had approached for transfer of 48 shares out of the said shares lying in the escrow account. The Registrar & Transfer Agent (RTA) has validated the said requests and on due diligence transferred 48 shares to the valid shareholder.

As on March 31, 2017, 16 shares are lying under the securities escrow account of the Company. The voting rights on such shares shall remain frozen till the rightful owners of such shares claim the shares.

ANNEXURE-G

DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION POLICY

Introduction

As per Regulation 43A of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, prescribed Listed Companies are required to frame a Dividend Distribution Policy.

Purpose

The purpose of this Policy is to regulate the process of dividend declaration and its pay-out by the Company which would ensure a regular dividend income for the shareholders and long term capital appreciation for all stakeholders of the Company.

Authority

This Policy has been adopted by the Board of Directors of L&T Technology Services Limited ('the Company') at its Meeting held on May 3, 2017. The Policy shall also be displayed in the annual reports and also on the website of the Company.

Forms of Dividend

The Companies Act provides for two forms of Dividend:

Final Dividend

The final dividend is paid once for the financial year after the annual accounts are prepared. The Board of Directors of the Company has the power to recommend the payment of final dividend to the shareholders for their approval at the general meeting of the Company. The declaration of final dividend shall be included in the ordinary business items that are required to be transacted at the Annual General Meeting.

Interim Dividend

This form of dividend can be declared by the Board of Directors one or more times in a financial year as may be deemed fit by it. The Board of Directors shall have the absolute power to declare interim dividend during the financial year, as and when they consider it fit, in line with this policy. The Board should consider declaring an interim dividend after finalization of quarterly/ half yearly financial results.

Quantum of dividend and distribution

Dividend payout in a particular year shall be determined after considering the operating and financial performance of the Company and the cash requirement for financing the Company's future growth. In line with the past practice, the payout ratio is expected to grow in accordance with the profitable growth of the Company under normal circumstances.

Declaration of dividend

Dividend shall be declared or paid only out of-

1) Current financial year's profit:
   a) after providing for depreciation in accordance with law;
   b) after transferring to reserves such amount as may be prescribed or as may be otherwise considered appropriate by the Board at its discretion
   c) after appropriating any other item as mandated by prescribed accounting standards

2) The profits for any previous financial year(s) after providing for depreciation in accordance with law and remaining undistributed; or

3) Out of 1) & 2) both.

   The circumstances under which shareholders may not expect dividend/or when the dividend could not be declared by the Company shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

   A. Due to operation of any other law in force;
   B. Due to losses incurred by the Company and the Board considers it appropriate not to declare dividend for any particular year;
   C. Due to any restrictions and covenants contained in any agreement as may be entered with the Lenders and
   D. Because of any default on part of the company.

Factors affecting Dividend declaration

The Dividend pay-out decision of any company, depends upon certain external and internal factors-

External Factors:

- Legal/ Statutory Provisions: The Board should keep in mind the restrictions imposed by Companies Act, any other applicable laws with regard to declaration and distribution of dividend. Further, any restrictions on payment of dividend by virtue of any regulation as may be applicable to the Company may also impact the declaration of dividend.

- State of Business Environment: The Board will endeavor to retain larger part of profits to build up reserves to absorb future shocks in case of uncertain or recessionary economic conditions.

- Nature of Industry: The nature of industry in which a company is operating, influences the dividend decision, like stability of earnings will influence stable dividend.

- Taxation Policy: The tax policy of a country also influences the dividend policy of a company. The rate of tax directly influences the amount of profits available to the company for declaring dividends.

- Capital Markets: In case of unfavorable market conditions, the Board may resort to a conservative dividend pay-out in order to conserve cash outflows and reduce the cost of raising funds through alternate resources.

Internal Factors:

- Apart from the various external factors, the Board shall take into account various internal factors including the financial parameters while declaring dividend, which inter alia will include -

- Magnitude and Stability of Earnings: The extent of stability and magnitude of the company's earnings will directly influence the dividend declaration. Thus, the dividend is directly linked with the availability of the earnings (including accumulated earnings) with the company.

- Liquidity Position: A company's liquidity position also determines the level of dividend. If a company does not have sufficient cash resources to make dividend payment, then it may reduce the amount of dividend pay-out.

- Future Requirements: If a company foresees some profitable investment opportunities in near future including but not limited to Brand/ Business Acquisitions, Expansion of existing businesses, Additional investments in subsidiaries/associates of the Company, Fresh investments into external businesses, then it may go for lower dividend and vice-versa.

- Leverage profile and liabilities of the Company.

- Any other factor as deemed fit by the Board.

Retained Earnings

The portion of profits not distributed among the shareholders but retained and used in business are termed as retained earnings. It is also referred to as ploughing back of profit. The Company should ensure to strike the right balance between the quantum of dividend paid and amount of profits retained in the business for various purposes. These earnings may be utilized for internal financing of its various projects and for fixed as well as working capital. Thus the retained earnings shall be utilized for carrying out the main objectives of the Company and maintaining adequate liquidity levels.

Parameters that shall be adopted with regard to various classes of shares

The Company does not have different classes of shares and follows the 'one share on vote' principle.

Review & Amendment

The Policy shall be reviewed as and when required to ensure that it meets the objectives of the relevant legislation and remains effective. The Board has the right to change/amend the policy as may be expedient taking into account the law for the time being in force.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

I. Company Overview:

L&T Technology Services Limited (LTTS) is a leading global pure-play ER&D services company. We offer design and development solutions throughout the product development chain and provide services and solutions in the areas of mechanical and manufacturing engineering, embedded systems, engineering analytics and process engineering.

A well-defined Digital Engineering strategy helps us deliver differentiated solutions for building Smart Products, Smart Manufacturing and enabling Smart Services. As part of this strategy, we have developed IP led solutions like our IoT platform UBIQWeise™ and smart building framework i-BEMS that has been launched in the global market.

Our key differentiators are our domain expertise and multi-vertical presence in industry segments like Transportation, Industrial Products, Telecom & Hitech, Process Engineering and Medical Devices. We have been recognized as an Expansive and Established player in Zinnov Zones 2016 Product Engineering Services and in the Leadership Zone across 10 major industries due our best in class solutions, capabilities and offerings that combine digital technology with an innovation led orientation.

LTTS services more than 50 Fortune 500 companies and over 40 of the world's top ER&D spenders. We are well poised to meet future requirements of our customers by investing in new industry segments and state of the art innovation labs, adopting new technology initiatives, expanding into new geographies, and establishing alliances and partnerships.

Our 10,000 + highly-skilled personnel across 12 delivery centres and 27 sales offices globally enable our clients to achieve a sustainable competitive advantage. We have 34 innovation labs spread across key delivery centres in India.

II. Economic and Industry Overview:

This sections sets out the economic and political outlook globally:

Global Economic & Political Environment:

The victory of Donald Trump in the US presidential election and the UK decision to exit the European Union (Brexit) dominated headlines in 2016. These two events will continue to have an influence on growth strategies in 2017 and beyond. Potential policy changes affecting market access could drive cross-border deals as companies look to protect and sustain their globalized operations. Buying innovation will also be a major theme of 2017, as disruptive start-ups challenge existing business models.

Risks to companies' core business models remain, but with a slightly different complexion. Concerns about rising nationalism have transformed into uncertainty about policy, especially immigration. Previous fears about a slowdown in global trade have translated into uncertainties about new barriers being raised. Government intervention and policies — from diplomacy, trade to the movement of labour — now collectively top the macroeconomic concerns of global executives. Leading companies are more carefully accessing geopolitical risks and seeking expert advice to navigate these issues.

Indian Economic & Political Environment:

The Economic Survey 2015-16 had forecasted that the Indian economy will growing by more than seven per cent for the third successive year 2016-17 and can start growing at eight per cent or more in next two years. According to Fitch Ratings Agency, India's Gross Domestic Product (GDP) was likely to grow by 7.7 per cent in FY 2016-17 and slowly accelerate to 8 per cent by FY 2018-19, driven by the gradual implementation of structural reforms, higher disposable income and improvement in economic activity.

Impact of Recent Rupee Appreciation:

All emerging currencies have seen significant volatility against the US Dollar on account of changing political and economic scenario across the globe. For Indian third party service providers in ER&D segment, any appreciation in Rupee will cause a dip in margins on a sequential basis. Short-term rupee appreciation will not have big impact considering the hedging strategies of companies. However, in case the Indian rupee appreciation continues for a long time, companies may have to offset the margin impact by tighter control on cost, execution and delivery-efficiency measures, etc. towards sustainable growth.

India Shining in the Global ER&D Space:

According to Zinnov, corporations spent a total of USD 1,062 billion on research and development and engineering activities such as product and process development, manufacturing engineering and other allied engineering in 2016. Of this amount, the 500 biggest corporate spenders in ER&D globally (the "G500 ER&D spend") contributed USD 621 billion or nearly 58%.

With respect to the total ER&D offshoring market for product engineering services as addressed by offshore third-party service providers and global in-house centres (the "Global Addressed Market"), the overall revenue was USD 85 billion in 2016, of which offshore in-house R&D centres and third-party service providers contributed USD 34 billion and USD 51 billion, respectively. The total R&D offshoring market revenue generated by both India-based third-party service providers and India-based in-house centres to global clients in 2016 was USD 22.3 billion. Of this, the third-party service providers and in-house ER&D centres contributed USD 8.9 billion and USD 13.4 billion of revenue in 2016, respectively.

"Strong sales in emerging markets are leading to a requirement of products that are tailored to the needs of customers, thereby driving engineering towards these markets. Increased product complexity is translating into a greater need for engineering work that needs to be done. Also, the war for talent, especially engineering talent, is real in many mature markets, and this bottleneck has opened up opportunities for players with a strong, well-qualified talent pipeline. All of these trends catalyzed the ER&D industry in India," comments Dr Wilfried Aulbur, Partner, Roland Berger Strategy Consultants GmbH.

India's ER&D services sector has indeed been on a growth path over the past five years. The market, which is expected to reach USD 35-40 billion by 2020, is creating deep impact in verticals such as automotive, avionics, construction and heavy engineering and telecom.

III. Key differentiators for LTTS operations:

This section lists the key differentiators that our management believes will enable LTTS to continue to be a global leader in ER&D segment:

Account Mining and Farming: As a part of our sales strategy, we decided to focus on top 30 customers, which contribute 65% of our revenues. This strategy has been christened as T-30. Under this strategy, as a client relationship matures and deepens, we seek to maximise our revenues and profitability by expanding the scope of services offered to that client with the objective of winning more business from our clients, particularly in relation to our more substantive and value-added services.

Transformation Initiatives: We have initiated few transformational projects to further strengthen our processes, systems and global delivery models to achieve operational excellence. Identifying Account Delivery Managers (ADMs) and Account Relationship Managers (ARMs) to ensure account level leadership, setting up onshore, nearshore strategic and client-led centres in geographies like Poland, Western Europe(Auto), EU & US(CPG & Chemicals), building processes, governance models and leadership development plans are few initiatives of the transformation project.

Investment in Technologies & Innovation Engine: We are focused on driving innovation and adopting solutions in line with technological trends. Our culture of innovation since our establishment has enabled us to expand the range of our offerings to customers and improve the delivery of our solutions and products. We have initiated Proofs of Concepts ("POCs"), which demonstrate the viability of a design concept and we have also set up labs and developed new centres of excellence, where we have invested in new technologies such as engineering analytics, power electronics, IoT and M2M, which has allowed us to capitalise on key growth areas and trends.

Patents: Over the years, sustained investment in R&D has led to the creation of several unique engineering solutions, which we have patented . As of March 31, 2017, we have contributed to 197 customer owned patents and 57 filed exclusively by LTTS. Our patents cover many aspects of our products as well as the processes for making those products and are focused on developing mature solutions such as UbiqWeise™, i-BEMS in emerging technology areas.

Technology Events: We promote annual technology events such as Tech Panorama, which is an initiative by our Technology Solutions and Innovation Centre team which serves as a platform for our employees to participate in technical events and forums to showcase their skill and demonstrate their ideas. Also our open-innovation initiative, TECHgium™ - co-sponsored by our customers, provides a platform for the nation's talented engineering graduates to solve real-world engineering problems and also get due recognition for it. Students are given an opportunity to use their futuristic ideas to come up with creative solutions.

Awards & Recognition: L&T Technology Services was recognized as the Company of the Year by the Indo American Chamber of Commerce (IACC) in 2016. The IACC also awarded the company as the Best Green Office Space of the year for its eco-friendly campuses. In March 2017, L&T Technology Services was conferred with the Golden Peacock National Quality Award, 2017, as a recognition of the company's consistent focus in enabling new technologies for global businesses. We have also won the Dataquest Vertical Warrior Award in IT/ ITeS for innovative use of digital technology earlier in 2017.

Our delivery centres are ISO 9001:2008-certified. Our Aerospace & Medical Devices practices are AS 9100C and ISO 13485:2003 certified. Also our Embedded Systems & Software activities are assessed at Maturity Level 5 of SEI's CMMi® Development.

Partnerships and Alliances: Our Recent global alliances include a Digital Engineering Transformation partnership with Microsoft Corporation to deliver Microsoft Azure Engineering Solutions for global enterprises across industries. This strategic partnership enables enterprises around the world to leverage our cutting-edge IP-led Digital Engineering solutions hosted on Microsoft's Azure enterprise cloud-first, mobile-first infrastructure.

We have also partnered with UTC Climate, Controls & Security and Otis, units of United Technologies Corp. to create an innovation laboratory focused on integrated buildings, smart homes and cold chain technologies. Other notable alliances and partnerships include AUTOSAR, Tele2, National Instruments, Sierra Wireless & Thing Worx.

IV. Significant Factors affecting our Results of Operations

This section sets out certain key factors that our management believes have historically affected our results of operations during the year under review, or which could affect our results of operations in the future:

SINCE INCEPTION, WE HAVE FILED FOR 57 PROPRIETARY PATENTS AND HAVE CO-AUTHORED 197 PATENTS WITH OUR CUSTOMERS.

Exchange rate fluctuations: Though our reporting currency is in Rupees, we transact a significant portion of our business in several other currencies. Although we partly benefit from a natural hedge for our foreign currency revenues against our foreign currency expenses, we also have an exposure to foreign exchange rate risk in respect of revenues or expenses entered into in a currency where corresponding expenses or revenues are denominated in different currencies. Such transactions are denominated in currencies such as US Dollar, Euro, Japanese Yen, etc. In addition, the overall competitiveness of the Indian ER&D industry in the global market is also significantly dependent on favourable exchange rates.

Manpower Utilization: Our profitability and the cost of providing our services are affected by the utilization of our employees. We define utilization as total billed hours divided by total available/billable hours.

If we are not able to maintain high employee utilization, our profitability may suffer, arising out of loss or reduction of business from customers. Our ability to forecast demand for our services and thereby maintain an appropriate headcount in each of our geographies and workforces, our overall employee satisfaction and ability to manage attrition also affects our profitable growth.

Blended Utilisation

Composition of Revenue portfolio: Our offshore revenues consist of revenues from ER&D services performed at our customers' premises or from our Delivery Centres in India. Our onsite revenues consist of revenues from ER&D services performed at customers' premises or from our Delivery Centres outside India. Our profit margins are typically higher if work is performed offshore as compared to onsite. Accordingly, the mix of ER&D services performed onsite and offshore has an impact on our ability to achieve higher profit margins. The following table shows the proportionate contribution from our onsite and offshore export service revenue on consolidated basis for the periods indicated:

Revenue Mix

Our revenues are generated principally from services provided on either a time-and- materials or a fixed-price basis. For contracts on a time-and-materials basis, we charge our customers on the basis of the hourly billable rates of our employees. For such contracts, our profits and margins are affected by the utilization rates of our employees (with higher utilization typically driving higher revenues) and the recovery rates of the fees billed to our clients.

Pursuant to the order dated April 1, 2016 of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay sanctioning the Scheme of Arrangement for reduction in the face value of the equity shares of the Company, the Company reduced the face value of its equity shares from ₹ 40 each to ₹ 2 each. Therefore, with effect from April 1, 2016, the cumulative number of equity shares of the Company pursuant to the sub-division was 75,000,000 equity shares of ₹ 2 each.

Consequent to the reduction of the face value of the equity shares of the Company from ₹ 40 to ₹ 2 each, an amount of ₹ 2,850 million was transferred to the securities premium account of the Company.

Subsequently, the Company allotted 26,690,392 equity shares of ₹ 2 each on June 3, 2016 to its Promoter, Larsen & Toubro Limited, by way of a rights issue at a premium of ₹ 279 per equity share, for a total consideration of ₹ 7,500 million (the "L&T Allotment"). From the proceeds received for the L&T Allotment, all 750,000,000 preference shares outstanding as at April 1, 2016, of face value of ₹ 10 each were redeemed in May 2016.

Consequently, the issued, subscribed and paid-up equity share capital of the Company aggregates to ₹ 203 million consisting of 101,690,392 equity shares of ₹ 2 each. There are no outstanding preference shares as on date.

Additions:

Additions to the gross block in the year ended March 31, 2017 amounted to ₹599 million. The Company has been investing in infrastructure facilities on account of computers, office equipment, expansion of development centres and overseas offices, in line with business growth.

Deductions:

During the year, the company disposed various assets with a gross block of ₹99 million, mainly on vacancy of an office space in Bangalore location in India.

6. Non-current Assets

(₹ million)

	As at March 31, 2017	As at March 31, 2016
Other financial assets	227	250
Other non-current assets	96	112
	323	362

The company's non-current assets decreased from ₹362 million as at March 31, 2016 to ₹323 million as at March 31, 2017 primarily on account of decrease in investment in fixed deposit to the extent of ₹23 million.

7 . Deferred Tax Asset (Net)

(₹ million)

	As at March 31, 2017	As at March 31, 2016
Deferred tax asset (Net)	323	1,061

Deferred tax liability or asset is recognised on timing differences between the income accounted in financial statements and the taxable income for the year, and quantified using the tax rates and laws enacted or substantively enacted as on the Balance Sheet date.

Other deferred tax assets are recognised and carried forward to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

Consequent to the assessment order for financial year 2013-14 where in goodwill was allowed as deductible expenditure in Income Tax, we have readjusted our tax provisions for earlier years considering goodwill as deductible expenditure. Accordingly, we have created deferred tax liability on goodwill which is the major reason for the reduction in deferred tax asset.

8. Trade Receivables

Trade receivables amounted to ₹7,106 million (net of provision for doubful debts amounting to ₹166 million) as at March 31, 2017, compared to ₹7,259 million (net of provision for doubtful debts amounting to ₹349 million) as at March 31, 2016. The day's sales outstanding stood at 78 days as at March 31, 2017 as compared to 81 days as at March 31, 2016.

9. Cash & Bank

The bank balances in India include both rupee accounts and foreign currency accounts. The bank balances in overseas accounts are maintained to meet the expenditure of the overseas operations.

Deposits with banks represent surplus money deployed in form of deposits and collaterals kept against open ended bank guarantees issued to customers. The cash & bank balance stood at ₹674 million as at March 31, 2017 from ₹834 million as at March 31, 2016.

10. Current Assets

(₹ million)

	As at March 31, 2017	As at March 31, 2016
Investments	1,946	555
Loans	1	-
Other financial assets	1,308	518
Other current assets	3,554	2,483
	6,809	3,556

The current investments comprises of investments in mutual funds which rose substantially during the year from ₹555 million as at March 31, 2016 to ₹1946 million as at March 31, 2017.

Other financial assets consisting advance to employees, security deposits, forward contract receivables, etc. which increased from ₹518 million as at March 31, 2016 to ₹1308 million as at March 31, 2017 primarily on account of forward contract receivable amounting to ₹933 million as at March 31, 2017.

Other current asset increased mainly due to increase in unbilled revenue by 825 million. Unbilled revenue primarily comprises of costs and earnings in excess of billings to the clients on fixed-price, and time-and-material contracts. Unbilled revenue stood at ₹2,295 million as at March 31, 2017 as against ₹1,470 million at March 31, 2016.

VII. Financial Year 2017 compared to Financial Year 2016

1. Income

Our total income comprises of revenue from operations and other income.

Our total income increased by 5% to ₹33,074 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 from ₹31,507 million for the year ended March 31, 2016, primarily due to an increase in our revenue from operations partly offset by a decrease in other income.

Revenue from Operations

Our revenue from continuing operations increased by 5.9% to ₹32,483 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 from ₹30,662 million for the year ended March 31, 2016, primarily as a result of growth in our revenues in our Transportation and Industrial product vertical.

Our USD revenue from operations comprise revenues denominated in USD, in addition to amounts in foreign currencies across our operations, that are denominated in INR and then converted into USD using the exchange rates for the relevant period. Such revenues increased by 3.4% to USD 484.4 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 from USD 468.4 million for the year ended March 31, 2016.

Other Income

Our other income primarily consists of income from foreign exchange gains, investments in mutual funds, interest received, net gain on fair value of investment and miscellaneous income. Our other income decreased to ₹591 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 from ₹845 million for the year ended March 31, 2016. This was primarily due to decrease in foreign exchange gain to ₹418 million in the year ended March 31, 2017 as compared to foreign exchange gain of ₹712 million in the year ended March 31, 2016.

The Company designates foreign exchange forward contracts as hedge instruments in respect of foreign exchange risks. These hedges are accounted for as cash flow hedges. The Company uses hedging instruments that are governed by the policies of the Company which are approved by the Board of Directors, which provide written principles on the use of such financial derivatives consistent with the risk management strategy of the Company.

The hedge instruments are designated and documented as hedges at the inception of the contract.

The effectiveness of hedge instruments to reduce the risk associated with the exposure being hedged is assessed and measured at inception and on an ongoing basis. The ineffective portion of designated hedges are recognised immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

The effective portion of change in the fair value of the designated hedging instrument is recognised in the other comprehensive income and accumulated under the heading cash flow hedge reserve.

Hedge accounting is discontinued when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated or no longer qualifies for hedge accounting. Any gain or loss recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity till that time remains and is recognised in statement of profit and loss when the forecasted transaction ultimately affects the profit or loss. When a forecasted transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss accumulated in equity is transferred to the statement of profit and loss.

2. Expenses

Our expenses include employee benefit expenses, other operating expenses, finance costs, depreciation and amortization and tax expenses. Our total expenses increased by 5.5% to ₹28,824 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 from ₹27,321 million for the year ended March 31, 2016, primarily as a result of an increase in employee benefit expenses, which was attributable to the growth of our operations and annual increase in salaries.

Employee Benefit Expenses

Employee benefit expenses comprise salaries (including overseas staff expenses); share based payment, staff welfare; contributions to provident funds and contributions to gratuity funds.

Our employee benefit expenses increased by 6.5% to ₹20,958 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 (which represented 63.4% of our total income for such year) from ₹19,681 million for the year ended March 31, 2016 (which represented 62.5% of our total income for such year). This is primarily as a result of increase in salaries, including overseas staff expenses, to ₹20,305 million from ₹19,270 million on account of annual increments and increase in the headcount from 9,406 as at March 31, 2016 to 10,463 as at March 31, 2017 and share based payment amounting to ₹193 million for the year ended March 31, 2017.

Other Operating Expenses

Other operating expenses primarily comprises of Subcontracting & Component charges, technical & consultancy charges, cost of computer software, rent & establishment expense, travelling & conveyance, legal & professional charges, overheads charges & miscellaneous expenses.

Our other operating expenses decreased by 1.7% to ₹5,678 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 (which represented 17.1% of our total income for such year) from ₹5,787 million for the year ended March 31, 2016 (which represented 18.3% of our total income for such year).

Finance Costs

Finance costs comprise bank interest paid & interest on bill discounting.

Our finance costs decreased by 16.0 % to ₹21 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 from ₹25 million for the year ended March 31, 2016, due to repayment of loans during the year.

Depreciation and Amortization

Tangible and intangible assets are amortised over periods corresponding to their estimated useful lives.

Our depreciation on tangible assets decreased by 6.5% to ₹347 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 from ₹371 million for the year ended March 31, 2016, and our amortisation of intangible assets increased by 27.6% to ₹278 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 from ₹218 million for the year ended March 31, 2016.

Profit before Extraordinary Items and Tax

As a result of the above mentioned factors, our profit before extraordinary items and tax was ₹5,792 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 (which represented 17.5% of our total income for such year) and ₹5,425 million for the year ended March 31, 2016 (which represented 17.2% of our total income for such year).

Tax Expenses

Tax expenses comprise of current tax and deferred tax. Current income tax is the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities in accordance with the applicable tax laws in relevant jurisdictions. Deferred income tax reflects the impact of timing differences between taxable income and accounting income.

Our current tax increased by 1.4% to ₹1,421 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 from ₹1,402 million for the year ended March 31, 2016.

Our deferred tax charge for the year ended March 31, 2017 was ₹121 million as against our deferred tax credit for the year ended March 31, 2016 of ₹163 million

Our total tax expense has increased by 24.5% to ₹1,542 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 from ₹1,239 million for the year ended March 31, 2016. The increase is on account of higher effective tax rate and increase in profit before tax. Increase in effective tax rate is on account of lower SEZ exemption as some SEZ units moved from 100% exemption to 50% exemption during the year.

Net Profit after Tax

As a result of the foregoing factors, our net profit was ₹4,250 million for the year ended March 31, 2017 and ₹4,186 million for the year ended March 31, 2016.

Earnings per Share (EPS)

Our Basic EPS before extraordinary items has decreased by 3.9% to ₹42.08 per share in the year ended March 31, 2017 from ₹43.78 per share in the year ended March 31, 2016. However, the diluted EPS has increased by 22.8% to ₹39.64 per share in the year ended March 31, 2017 from ₹32.29 per share in the year ended March 31, 2016. The reduction in basic EPS is on account of fresh issue of 26,690,392 equity shares on June 3, 2016.The weighted average number of potential equity shares on account of employee options are 26,09,438 for the year ended March 31, 2017.

VIII. Segment Reporting

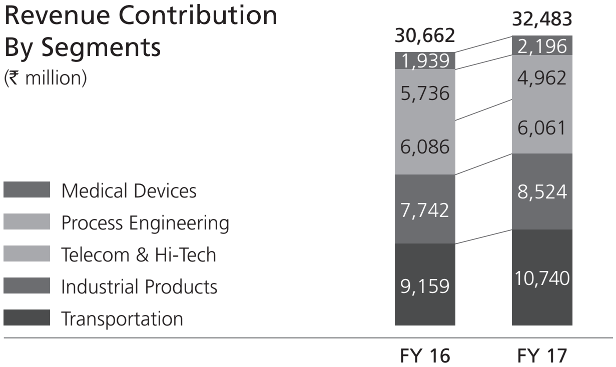
Our segmental reporting comprises of business and geographic segmentation.

Business segmentation

LTTS operates in five industry segments namely Transportation, Industrial products, Telecom & Hitech, Process industry and Medical devices. We also provide two horizontal service offerings – Embedded systems and Mechanical which caters to all the vertical segments.

Revenue Contribution By Segments

(₹ million)



1: Transportation:

Transportation segment partners with OEMs and Tier 1 suppliers serving aerospace, automotive, rail, commercial vehicles, off-highway and polymer segments. The segment delivers end-to-end services from concept to detailed design through manufacturing and sourcing support and helps OEMs develop cost effective vehicles.

Transportation segment is our largest segment by revenue contributing nearly one third (33.1% in FY17) of the company's total revenue. However the segment has a low operating profit profile due to margins of our subsidiaries L&T Thales Technology Services Private Limited and L&T Technology Services LLC. The segment has seen a 17% revenue growth in FY17 over FY16 majorly on account of growth in the aerospace sector as well as automotive sector which saw key deal wins including a large deal win for design, implementation and management of continuous integration framework for a European Luxury OEM and support in development of an instrument cluster for a leading Japanese Tier-1.

2: Industrial Products:

Industrial Products engineering partners with OEM customers across building automation, home and office products, energy, process control and machinery. This segment offers end-to-end product development counsel, leveraging expertise spanning software, electronics, connectivity, mechanical engineering, industrial networking protocols, user interface/user experience (UI/UX), test frameworks and enterprise control solutions.

The Industrial products segment is the second largest segment in terms of revenue contribution (26.2% in FY17) and has grown by 10% in Rupee terms in FY17 over FY16 on account of addition of new logos as well as some significant big wins from the existing customer base. The emergence and development of technologies such as IoT, Edge Analytics, Industry 4.0, Energy Storage, Smart City, and Hybrid Power Generation System has steered a growth in the segment's performance over the year.

3: Telecom & Hi-tech:

Telecom & Hi-tech segment caters to OEM/ODMs, Chipset vendors, Telecom carriers and ISVs delivering end-to-end embedded software design and development, hardware platform design and development, product maintenance, enhancement & sustenance, Testing & Validation, System Integration for communication and related solutions & systems and field implementation services.

The telecommunication industry continues to seek differentiation through network quality and breadth of service portfolio. The need to keep up with the new technologies has become paramount which has led one of the top clients to face business challenges resulting in a ramp down in this segment due to which the revenue has remained stagnant in the current year as compared to the previous year. However despite of stagnancy in revenue, the segment's operating profits have marginally improved due to higher operational efficiencies in FY17 as compared to FY16.

4: Process Engineering:

Process engineering segment provides end to end engineering services for leading plant operators across the globe. The industry span and services are broadly for chemical, consumer packaged goods (FMCG) and energy and utility sector clients.

The current year has witnessed degrowth (13.5% drop in FY17 as compared to FY16) in the segment's revenue primarily in US and Europe region. The chemical industry has gone into consolidation mode which has resulted in lesser number of Greenfields coming up. Due to drop in oil prices and weak global demand amid concerns over slowing economic growth around the world has affected the capital expenditure spend of energy majors, thereby resulting in degrowth of this segment.

5: Medical Devices:

Medical Devices engineering is a dedicated practice that is revolutionizing delivery of healthcare by providing product development solutions across a variety of Class I, II and III devices, with concept design, embedded systems, hardware and software, mechanical engineering services, application software, value analysis and value engineering, manufacturing engineering and regulatory compliance. The medical device industry is comprised of diagnostic, life sciences, surgical, cardiovascular, home healthcare, general medical and other devices.

The medical device industry is undergoing strategic change with the focus moving from diagnosis to prevention. There has been unprecedented growth in innovative and improved technologies, which has led to higher number of projects from the existing customer base in North America, Europe and the rest of the world region. The medical devices segment's revenue has thus grown by 13.3% in FY17 over FY16.

The following table shows a breakdown of our revenue by our business segments for the periods indicated:

(₹ million)

	As at March 31, 2017		As at March 31, 2016
	(₹ million)	% to Revenue from operations	(₹ million)	% to Revenue from operations

ANNEXURE 'B'TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

(Referred to in paragraph 2(f) of our report of even date)

Report on the internal financial controls under clause (i) of sub-section 3 of section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of L&T Technology Services Limited ('the Company') as of March 31, 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's responsibility for internal financial controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of internal financial controls over financial reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

NOTES FORMING PART OF THE ACCOUNTS

1. CORPORATE INFORMATION

L&T Technology Services Limited (referred to as "the Company") is a leading global pure-play Engineering, Research and Development (ER&D) services company. ER&D services are a set of services provided to manufacturing, technology and process engineering companies, to help them develop and build products, processes and infrastructure required to deliver products and services to their end customers.

The Company is a public company incorporated and domiciled in India and has its registered office at L&T House, N.M. Marg, Ballard Estate, Mumbai 400 001. As at March 31, 2017, Larsen & Toubro Limited, the holding company owns 89.77% of the Company's equity share capital.

The unconsolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2017 were approved for issue by the Board of Directors on May 3, 2017.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Statement of compliance

In accordance with the notification issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, the Company has adopted Indian Accounting Standards (referred to as "Ind AS") notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 with effect from April 1, 2016. Previous period financials have been restated to Ind AS. In accordance with Ind AS 101 First-time Adoption of Indian Accounting Standard, the Company has presented a reconciliation from the presentation of financial statements under Accounting Standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 ("Previous GAAP") to Ind AS of Shareholders' equity as at March 31, 2016 and April 1, 2015 and of the comprehensive net income for the year ended March 31, 2016.

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Ind AS as notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 read with section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013.

b) Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

c) Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS requires the management of the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities, disclosures relating to contingent liabilities as at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expense for the periods presented.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected.

d) Presentation of financial statements

The balance sheet and the statement of profit and loss are prepared in the format prescribed in the schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"). The cash flow statement has been prepared and presented as per the requirements of Ind AS 7 "Cash Flow Statements". The disclosure requirements with respect to items in balance sheet and statement of profit and loss, as prescribed in the schedule III to the Act, are presented by way of notes forming part of accounts along with the other notes required to be disclosed under the notified Ind AS.

e) Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts which are on time and material basis are recognized when services are rendered and related costs are incurred.

Revenue from services performed on "fixed-price" basis is recognized using the proportionate completion method.

Unbilled revenue represents value of services performed in accordance with the contract terms but not billed.

f) Employee benefits

i. Short term employee benefits

All employee benefits falling due wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short term employee benefits. The benefits like salaries, wages, and short term compensated absences and performance incentives are recognized in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

ii. Post-employment benefits

a) Defined contribution plan:

The Company's superannuation fund and state governed provident fund scheme are classified as defined contribution plans. The contribution paid / payable under the schemes is recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

b) Defined benefit plans:

The provident fund scheme managed by trust, employee's gratuity fund scheme managed by LIC and post-retirement medical benefit scheme are the Company's defined benefit plans. Wherever applicable, the present value of the obligation under such defined benefit plans is determined based on actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method, which recognizes each period of service as giving rise to additional unit of employee benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash-flows. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plans, is based on the market yields on government bonds as at the balance sheet date, having maturity periods approximating to the terms of related obligations. In case of funded plans, the fair value of the plan assets is reduced from the gross obligation under the defined benefit plans to recognize the obligation on net basis.

Gains or losses on the curtailment or settlement of any defined benefit plan are recognized when the curtailment or settlement occurs. Past service cost is recognised as expense at the earlier of the plan amendment or curtailment and when the Company recognizes related restructuring costs or termination benefits.

Actuarial gains and losses are recognized immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Other changes in net defined benefit obligation like current service cost, past service cost, gains and losses on curtailment and net interest expense or income are recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

iii. Long term employee benefits:

The obligation for long term employee benefits like long term compensation absences is recognized in the similar manner as in the case of defined benefit plans as mentioned in (ii) (b) above.

g) Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short term highly liquid investments with original maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

h) Employee stock ownership scheme

In respect of stock options granted pursuant to the Company's Stock Options Scheme, the excess of fair value of the share over the exercise price is treated as discount and accounted as employee compensation cost over the vesting period. The amount recognised as expense each year is arrived at based on the number of grants expected to vest. If a grant lapses after the vesting period, the cumulative discount recognised as expense in respect of such grant is transferred to general reserve.

i) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation (other than freehold land) and impairment loss, if any.

Depreciation is provided for property, plant and equipment so as to expense the cost over their estimated useful lives based on evaluation. The estimated useful lives and residual value are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

The estimated useful lives are as mentioned below:

Asset class	Useful life (years)
Plant and equipment	8
Air-condition and refrigeration	12
Canteen equipment	8
Laboratory equipment	8
Electrical installations	10
Computers	3
Office equipment	4
Furniture and fixtures	10
Cars	7
Leasehold improvements	Lease period

Depreciation is not recorded on capital work-in-progress until construction and installation are complete and the asset is ready for its intended use.

j) Intangible assets and amortisation

Intangible assets purchased are measured at cost or fair value as of the date of acquisition, as applicable, less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment, if any.

Intangible assets consist of computer software and technical know-how which are amortised over the useful life as given below:

Asset class	Useful life (years)
Specialised software	6
Technical knowhow	4

k) Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of consideration paid over the net value of assets acquired. Goodwill is not amortised, however tested for impairment at regular interval. Refer note O (b) for accounting policy on impairment of assets.

l) Financial Instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value measured on initial recognition of financial asset or financial liability.

Non-derivative financial assets:

Financial assets at amortised cost

Financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost if these financial assets are held within a business model whose objective is to hold these assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. Financial assets at amortised cost are represented by trade receivables, cash and cash equivalents, employee and other advances and eligible current and non-current assets.

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

Financial assets are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if these financial assets are held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows that give rise on specified dates to solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding and by selling financial assets.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets are measured at fair value through profit or loss unless it is measured at amortised cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income on initial recognition. The transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are immediately recognised in profit or loss.

Non-derivative financial liabilities:

Financial liabilities are initially recognised at fair value, and subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method. For trade and other payables maturing within 1 year from balance sheet date, the carrying amount approximate fair value due to short maturity of these instruments.

Derivative financial instrument

Cash flow hedge

The Company designates foreign exchange forward contracts as hedge instruments in respect of foreign exchange risks. These hedges are accounted for as cash flow hedges.

The Company uses hedging instruments that are governed by the policies of the Company which are approved by the Board of Directors, which provide written principles on the use of such financial derivatives consistent with the risk management strategy of the Company.

The hedge instruments are designated and documented as hedges at the inception of the contract.

The effectiveness of hedge instruments to reduce the risk associated with the exposure being hedged is assessed and measured at inception and on an ongoing basis. The ineffective portion of designated hedges are recognised immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

The effective portion of change in the fair value of the designated hedging instrument is recognised in the other comprehensive income and accumulated under the heading cash flow hedge reserve.

Hedge accounting is discontinued when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated or no longer qualifies for hedge accounting. Any gain or loss recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity till that time remains and is recognised in statement of profit and loss when the forecasted transaction ultimately affects the profit or loss. When a forecasted transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss accumulated in equity is transferred to the statement of profit and loss.

m) Investment in subsidiaries

Investment in subsidiaries are measured at cost as per Ind AS 27 - Separate Financial Statements.

n) Leases

(a) Finance leases:

Assets acquired under lease where the Company has substantially all the risk and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Such assets are capitalised at inception of lease at the lower of fair value or present value of minimum lease payments and a liability is created for an equivalent amount. Each lease rental paid is allocated between the liability and the interest cost so as to obtain a constant periodic rate of interest on the outstanding liability for each period.

(b) Operating leases

Assets acquired on leases where a significant portion of the risk and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Lease rentals are charged to the statement of profit and loss on accrual basis.

o) Impairment of assets

a) Trade receivables

The Company assesses at each date of statement of financial position whether a financial assets or group of financial assets is impaired. In accordance with IndAS 109, the company applies expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss. As a practical expedient, the company uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss on portfolio of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of trade receivables. ECL impairment loss allowances (or reversal) recognized during the period is recognized as an expense/income respectively in the statement of profit and loss. Provision for ECL is presented as deduction from carrying amount of trade receivables.

b) Non-financial assets

Tangible and intangible assets

Property, plant and equipment and intangible assets (other than goodwill) are evaluated for recoverability whenever there is any indication that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount (i.e. higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash generating unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or CGU) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or CGU) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss

Goodwill is tested for impairment annually and if events or changes in circumstances indicate that an impairment loss may have occurred. In the impairment test, the carrying amount of the cash generating unit, including goodwill, is compared with its fair value. When the carrying amount of the reporting unit exceeds its fair value, a goodwill impairment loss is recognised, up to a maximum amount of the goodwill related to the cash generating unit.

p) Foreign currencies

The functional currency of the Company is Indian rupee (₹).

Income and expenses in foreign currencies are recorded at exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction. Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate prevailing on the balance sheet date and exchange gains and losses arising on settlement and restatement are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured in terms of historical cost in foreign currencies are not retranslated.

q) Income-tax

Income tax expense comprises current tax expense and the net change in the deferred tax asset or liability during the year. Current and deferred taxes are recognised in statement of profit and loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Current income taxes

The current income tax expense includes income taxes payable by the Company and its branches in India and overseas. The current tax payable by the Company in India is Indian income tax payable for their worldwide income after taking credit for tax relief available for export operations in Special Economic Zones (SEZs).

Current income tax payable by overseas branches of the Company is computed in accordance with the tax laws applicable in the jurisdiction in which the respective branch operates. The taxes paid are generally available for set off against the Indian income tax liability of the Company's worldwide income.

Advance taxes and provisions for current income taxes are presented in the balance sheet after off-setting advance tax paid and income tax provision arising in the same tax jurisdiction and where the relevant tax paying units intends to settle the asset and liability on a net basis.

Deferred income taxes

Deferred income tax is recognised using the balance sheet approach. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognised for deductible and taxable temporary differences arising between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount, except when the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss at the time of the transaction.

Deferred income tax asset are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax asset to be utilised.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which the temporary differences are expected to be received or settled.

For operations carried out in SEZs, deferred tax assets or liabilities, if any, have been established for the tax consequences of those temporary differences between the carrying values of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases that reverse after the tax holiday ends.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when the Company has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Deferred tax assets include Minimum Alternative Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws in India, which is likely to give future economic benefits in the form of availability of set off against future income tax liability. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as deferred tax asset in the balance sheet when the asset can be measured reliably and it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with the asset will be realised.

The Company recognises interest levied related to income tax assessments in interest expenses.

r) Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognized for liabilities that can be measured only by using a substantial degree of estimation, if

a) The Company has a present obligation as a result of a past event;

b) A probable outflow of resources is expected to settle the obligation; and

c) The amount of the obligation can be reliably estimated

Contingent liability is disclosed in the case of

a) A present obligation arising from a past event when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; or

b) A possible obligation unless the probability of outflow of resources is remote

Contingent assets are neither recognized nor disclosed.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

s) Commitment

Commitments are future liability for contractual expenditure. Commitment are classified and disclosed as follows:

a. Estimated amount of contracts remaining to be executed on capital account and not provided for,

b. Other non-cancellable commitments, if any, to the extent they are considered material and relevant in the opinion of management.

Other commitments related to sales/procurements made in the normal course of business are not disclosed to avoid excessive details.

t) Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit for the period is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

u) Earnings per equity share

Basic earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the Company by the weighted average numbers of the equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per equity share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

3. FIRST TIME ADOPTION OF IND AS

Transition to Ind AS

These standalone financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2017 are the first the Company has prepared in accordance with Ind AS.

The accounting policies set out in note 2 have been applied in preparing financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2017, the comparative information presented in these financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2016 and in preparation of opening Ind AS balance sheet at April 1, 2015 (the Company's date of transition to Ind AS). In preparing its opening Ind AS balance sheet the company has adjusted amount reported previously in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting standards notified under Companies(Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 (as amended) and other relevant provisions of the act (previous GAAP). An explanation of how transition from previous GAAP to Ind AS has affected the Company's financials position, financial performance and cash flow is set out in following tables and notes.

3.1 Exemptions and exceptions availed

a) Ind AS 101 permits a first time adopter to elect to continue with carrying value for all of its property, plant and equipment as recognised in the financial statements as at date of transition to Ind AS, measured as per previous GAAP and use that as deemed cost as at date of transition after making necessary adjustments. Accordingly, company has elected to measure all of its property, plant and equipment at their previous GAAP carrying value.

3.8 Notes to first time adoption of Ind AS

a) Deferred tax assets (net)

Tax adjustments include deferred tax impact on account of differences between previous GAAP and Ind AS which are mainly gain on fair valuation of investment, expected credit loss allowance & employee benefit provisions. Further, Minimum Alternated Tax (MAT) balance was grouped under short term loans and advances under previous GAAP which has been presented under deferred tax assets as per Ind AS.

b) Current investments

As per Ind AS, investments in liquid mutual funds have been revalued at fair value which was being accounted at cost under previous GAAP. The resulting fair value changes of these investments have been recognised in profit and loss.

c) Trade receivables

Under previous GAAP, provisions were made for specific receivables if collection was doubtful. Under Ind AS 109, the Company has applied expected credit loss model for recognising allowance for doubtful debt. Expected credit loss model reflects an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined by evaluating a range of possible outcomes and also includes loss for the time value of money.

d) Other bank balances and other financial assets

Fixed deposits were all classified under “Cash & Bank” category under previous GAAP. Under Ind AS, the Company has classified fixed deposits into current and non-current based on maturity duration. Accordingly, fixed deposits having maturity date after 12 months from reporting date have been classified as non-current financial assets.

e) Other financial assets & other non current assets

Under previous GAAP, interest free lease security deposits (that are refundable in cash on completion of lease term) are recorded at their transaction value. Under Ind AS, financial assets are required to be recognised at fair value. Accordingly, the Company has measured the security deposits at fair value under Ind AS. The difference between fair value and transaction value of security deposit has been recognised as prepaid rent and is being expensed on straight line basis over term of lease. The Company also recognizes interest income using internal rate of return through its profit and loss over the life of the deposit.

f) Short term loans, financial assets and other current assets

Under previous GAAP, the financial guarantee given on behalf of subsidiary was disclosed by way of contingent liability in the standalone financial statements of the Company. As per Ind AS 109, para 5.1.1 the Company has recognised the financial guarantee at fair value at inception. Under previous GAAP, specific classification of various assets under head “financial assets” was not made. Under Ind-AS, assets covered by nature as defined under Ind AS 32 have been regrouped from short term loans to financial asset category. Assets classified as non-financial in nature have been regrouped under other current assets.

g) Other financial liabilities and other current liabilities

Constructive obligation is not defined under previous GAAP due to which certain employee related expenses were recognised as and when they occur. Under Ind AS 37, the same is covered under definition of constructive obligation and all such employee related expenses needs to be provided for. Under previous GAAP, specific classification of various liabilities under head “financial liabilities” was not made and no liability were presented under category “financial liabilities”. Under Ind-AS 32, financial liability has been defined and accordingly, liabilities covered by nature as defined under Ind AS 32 has been regrouped from other current liabilities to financial liabilities category. Liability classified as non-financial in nature has been regrouped under other current liability. Consequent to transition, all employee relevant liabilities has been classified under financial liability as per new disclosure requirements. Interest accrued but no due in respect of short term borrowings regrouped from other current liability to borrowing as per disclosure requirements of Ind AS.

h) Short term provisions and Tax liabilities (net)

Under previous GAAP, current year tax liability/asset was disclosed under category "short term provisions" or "short term advance". However, as per Ind AS disclosure requirements, current year tax liabilities and advances needs to be adjusted and net balance to be disclosed separately.

i) Hedge Accounting impact on other income

Under previous GAAP, the Company was accounting the premia income over the period of the forward contract. However, under Ind AS, the Company does not account the premia incoma. As per Ind-AS109, changes in the fair value of the derivative hedging instrument which are designated as "Cash flow hedges" have been recognized under Other Comprehensive Income and held in Hedging Reserve (net of taxes) to the extent the hedges are effective.

j) Remeasurement of post employment benefit obligations

As per Ind AS, re-measurement of defined benefit plans has been disclosed under "Other Comprehensive Income" (OCI), which was being debited to statement of profit and loss under previous GAAP.

k) Amortisation of prepaid rent & notional interest income on lease deposits

Impact of Ind AS transition on lease deposit has been covered under note (e). Accordingly, lease deposits were fair valued and notional interest income is recognised on lease deposit using internal rate of return over life of deposit.

l) Accounting of cash discount given to customers

Under previous GAAP, cash discounts were accounted as finance cost. Under Ind AS, cash discounts are reduced from the revenue from operations.

m) Current year income tax charge

Consequent to Ind AS adjustments which are mainly on account of post employment benefit obligations and tax impact on premia/exchange gain / loss reversal, respective tax adjustments have been made in the statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2016.

n) Other Comprehensive Income

As per Ind AS, re-measurement of defined benefit plans and effective portions of gains and losses on cash flow hedges have been disclosed under "Other Comprehensive Income" (OCI). The re-measurement of defined benefit plans was being earlier recognised in the statement of profit and loss under previous GAAP.

18.3 The Company consolidated 300,000,000 equity shares of ₹ 10/- each to 75,000,000 equity shares of ₹ 40/-each with effect from January 13, 2016. Pursuant to the order dated April 1, 2016 of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay sanctioning the Scheme of Arrangement for reduction in the face value of the equity shares of the Company, the Company reduced the face value of its equity shares from ₹ 40 each to ₹ 2 each. Therefore, with effect from April 1, 2016, the cumulative number of equity shares of the Company pursuant to the sub-division was 75,000,000 equity shares of ₹ 2 each.

Consequent to the reduction of the face value of the equity shares of the Company from ₹ 40 to ₹ 2 each, an amount of ₹ 2,850 million was transferred to the securities premium account of the Company. Subsequently, the Company allotted 26,690,392 equity shares of ₹ 2 each on June 3, 2016 to its Promoter, Larsen & Toubro Limited, by way of a rights issue at a premium of ₹ 279 per equity share, for a total consideration of ₹ 7,500 million (the "L&T Allotment"). From the proceeds received for the L&T Allotment, all 750,000,000 preference shares outstanding as at April 1, 2016, of face value of ₹ 10 each were redeemed in May 2016.

Consequently, the issued, subscribed and paid-up equity share capital of the Company aggregates to ₹ 203 million consisting of 101,690,392 equity shares of ₹ 2 each. There are no outstanding preference shares as on date.

18.4 In the period of five years immediately preceding March 31, 2017:

(i) Fair value hierarchy

This section explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are (a) recognised and measured at fair value and (b) measured at amortised cost and for which fair values are disclosed in the financial statements. To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Company has classified its financial instruments into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standard. An explanation of each level follows underneath the table.

Level 1 - Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).

Level 3 - Inputs for the assets or liabilities that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

There were no transfers between the levels during the year.

The Company's policy is to recognise transfers into and transfers out of fair value hierarchy levels as at the end of the reporting period.

(ii) Valuation technique used to determine fair value

Specific valuation technique used to value financial instruments include :

- the use of quoted market prices or dealer quotes for similar instruments
- the fair value of forward foreign exchange contracts is determined using forward exchange rates at the balance sheet date.
- the fair value of remaining financial instrument is determined using discounted cash flow analysis.

(iii) Valuation processes

The finance department of the Company includes a team that performs the valuations of financial assets and liabilities required for financial reporting purposes, including level 3 fair values. The fair valuation of level 1 and level 2 classified assets and liabilities are readily available from the quoted prices in the open market and rates available in secondary market respectively. The valuation method applied for various financial assets and liabilities are as follows -

- Quoted price in the primary market (NAV) considered for the fair valuation of the current investment i.e. Mutual fund. Gain/(loss) on fair valuation is recognised in Profit and Loss.
- The carrying amounts of trade receivable, trade payable, cash and bank balances, short term loans and advances, statutory dues/receivable, short term borrowing, employee dues are considered to be the same as their fair value due to their short-term nature.
- The fair value of premium receivable on financial guarantee contract is derived by discounting premium receivable over the period of contract. Thereafter, the same is carried at the amount initially recognised less the cumulative amortisation of income over the period of the contract.

39. SHARE BASED PAYMENTS

(a) Employee stock option plan (ESOP)

The establishment of the ESOP scheme, 2016 was done pursuant to the resolutions passed by the Board and the Shareholders on January 21, 2016 for issue of options to eligible employees which may result in issue of not more than 6,000,000 equity shares. In terms of the ESOP Scheme, 2016, the Company can grant options aggregating to not more than 8.0% of the paid up equity share capital of the Company as on April 1, 2016. The eligible employees include permanent employees (including executive directors and non-executive directors, but excluding the independent directors) of the Company, its subsidiaries, or holding company. However, unless otherwise decided by the Board, in the event the subsidiaries or the holding company have implemented a stock option scheme, the employees of such entities will not be eligible for grant of options under the ESOP Scheme, 2016. Further, the employees (i) holding 10.0% of the outstanding share capital of the Company at any time after the commencement of the ESOP Scheme, 2016, or (ii) who are promoters or persons belonging to promoter group, or directors, who either by themselves or through their relatives or any body corporate, directly or indirectly, hold more than 10.0% of the outstanding equity shares of the Company, will not be eligible for grant of options under the ESOP Scheme, 2016

The objective of the ESOP Scheme, 2016 is to reward those employees who contribute significantly to the Company's profitability and shareholder's value as well as encourage improvement in performance and retention of talent.

The vesting of options granted under the ESOP Scheme, 2016 will commence one year after the date of grant of options at the rate of 20.0% of options granted each year, or at such other rates as may be fixed by the Board and may extend up to five years from the date of grant of options, unless otherwise varied in accordance with the employee stock option rules to be framed under the ESOP Scheme, 2016. The exercise period for the options granted under the ESOP Scheme, 2016 would be seven years (84 months) from the date of grant of options or six years from the date of first vesting or three years (36 months) from the date of retirement/death, whichever is earlier, subject to any change as may be approved by the Board. The exercise price may be decided by the Board, in such manner, during such period, in one or more tranches and on such terms and conditions as it may deem fit, provided that the exercise price per option shall not be less than the par value of the equity share of our Company and shall not be more than the market price as defined in the SEBI ESOP Regulations and shall be subject to compliance with accounting policies under the ESOP Regulations. The number of shares to be allotted on exercise of options should not exceed the total number of unexercised vested options that may be exercised by the employee.

Further, on resignation / termination of the eligible employees, only the vested options would be exercisable. All other grants if unvested for any reason whatsoever shall be deemed lapsed. Such eligible employee is required to exercise the options within a period of 90 days from the last date of employment or such other period as may be decided by the Board at the time of such separation. In the event an eligible employee retires or is permanently incapacitated, all unvested options will vest in the said employee immediately. The eligible employee has to exercise options within a period of three years from the date of retirement or the date of permanent incapacitation, as the case may be, or such other period as may be decided by the Board. In case of voluntary or pre-mature retirement, the eligible employee will exercise only the vested options within 180 days from the last date of employment. All other unvested options will lapse. However, the Board will have the discretion to vest the unvested options in deserving cases and where the employee has crossed the age of 55 years. The retiring age for non-executive directors shall be 75 years or as may be decided by Board and on attainment of which, all the unvested options of the nonexecutive directors shall be vested with them immediately. In event of death of the eligible employee, unvested options shall be vested immediately in the nominees or legal heirs, as the case may be, and in the event of death of any of the nominees, his share shall vest in the surviving nominees or legal heirs, pro-rata.

Options granted on August 28, 2016 includes 50,000 options alloted to key managerial personnel.

Weighted average remaining contractual life of options outstanding at the end of period.	2.32 Years	-	-

(i) Fair value of options granted

The fair value at grant date of options granted during the year ended 31-03-2017 was INR 281 (31-03-2016 - Nil). The fair value of grant date is determined using the Black Scholes Model which takes into account the exercise price, term of option, share price at grant date and expected price volatility of the underlying share, the expected dividend yeild and the risk free interest rate for the term of the option.

The model inputs for options granted during the year ended 31-03-2017 included:

a) weighted average exercise price: INR 2 (31-03-2016 - Nil)*

b) grant date : 28-07-2016 and 27-08-2016

c) expiry date: 27-07-2023 & 26-08-2023 (31-03-2016 - Nil)

d) weighted average share price at grant date: INR 281 (31-03-2016 - Nil)#

e) weighted average expected price volatility of company's share: 25.17% (31-03-2016 - Nil)

f) weighted average expected dividend yield over life of option: 18.5% (31-03-2016 - Nil)

g) weighted average risk-free interest: 6.95% (31-03-2016 - Nil)

The expected price volatility is based on the historic volatility (based on the remianing life of the options), ajusted for any expected changes to future volatility due to publicly available information.

* The first vesting is due on 27-07-2017.

As the Company was not listed on the date of grant, price at grant date has been taken as per the valuation done by a category 1 merchant banker.

41. DIVIDENDS

Dividends paid during the year ended March 31, 2017 include an amount of 7.95 per equity share towards interim dividend for the year ended March 31, 2017 and an amount of 0.13 per preference share towards dividend on preference shares. Dividends paid during the year ended March 31, 2016 include an amount of 14.32 per equity share towards interim dividend for the year ended March 31, 2016 and an amount of 1 per preference share towards dividend on preference shares.

The dividends declared by the holding Company are based on the profits available for distribution as reported in the financial statements of the holding Company. Accordingly, the retained earnings reported in these financial statements may not be fully distributable. On May 3, 2017, the Board of Directors of the holding Company have proposed a final dividend of ₹ 4 per share in respect of the year ended March 31, 2017 subject to the approval of shareholders at the Annual General Meeting. If approved, the dividend would result in a cash outflow of ₹ 490 Mn inclusive of dividend distribution tax of ₹ 83 Mn.

42. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Market risk management

The Company regularly reviews its foreign exchange forward and option positions and interest rate swaps, both on a standalone basis and in conjunction with its underlying foreign currency and interest rate related exposures. The Company follows cash flow hedge accounting for highly probable forecasted exposures (HPFE) hence the movement in mark to market (MTM) of the hedge contracts undertaken for such exposures is likely to be offset by contra movements in the underlying exposures values. However, till the point of time that the HPFE becomes an on-balance sheet exposure, the changes in MTM of the hedge contracts will impact the balance sheet of the Company. The Company manages its exposures normally for a period of up to three years based on the estimated exposures over that period. As the period increases, the cash flows hedged as a percentage of the total expected cash flows diminish, as there is increased uncertainty of the total cash flows materializing over a longer period of time. The recognition of the gains and losses related to these instruments may not always coincide with the timing of gains and losses related to the underlying economic exposures and, therefore, may adversely affect the Company's financial condition and operating results. Hence, the Company monitors the potential risk arising out of the market factors like exchange rates, interest rates, price of traded investment products etc. on a regular basis. For on balance sheet exposures, the Company monitors the risks on net un-hedged exposures.

Price risk

The Company's investment policy and strategy are focused on preservation of capital and supporting the Company's liquidity requirements. The Company uses a combination of internal and external management to execute its investment strategy and achieve its investment objectives. The Company typically invests in money market funds, under a limits framework which governs the credit exposure to any one issuer as defined in its investment policy. To provide a meaningful assessment of the price risk associated with the Company's investment portfolio, the Company performed a sensitivity analysis to determine the impact of change in prices of the securities that would have on the value of the investment portfolio assuming a 0.25% move in debt funds and debt securities Based on the investment position a hypothetical 0.25% change in the fair market value of debt securities would result in a value change of +/- 3 INR Mn. as of March 31, 2017 and +/- 0.9 INR Mn. as of March 31, 2016. The investments in money market funds are for the purpose of liquidity management only and are held only overnight and hence not subject to any material price risk.

Foreign currency risk

In general, the Company is a net receiver of foreign currency. Accordingly, changes in exchange rates, and in particular a strengthening of the Indian Rupee, will negatively affect the Company's net sales and gross margins as expressed in Indian Rupees.

The Company may enter into foreign currency forward contracts with financial institutions to protect against foreign exchange risks associated with certain existing assets and liabilities, certain firmly committed transactions, forecasted future cash flows and net investments in foreign subsidiaries. The Company's practice is to hedge a portion of its material net foreign exchange exposures with tenors in line with the projected exposure based on future business growth. However, the Company may choose not to hedge certain foreign exchange exposures for a variety of reasons, including but not limited to accounting considerations and the prohibitive economic cost of hedging particular exposures. The Company may also not hedge 100% given the uncertainty with business projections and hence the exposure gets hedged progressively in lower amounts.

To provide a meaningful assessment of the foreign currency risk associated with the Company's foreign currency derivative positions against off balance sheet exposures and unhedged portion of on-balance sheet exposures, the Company uses a multi-currency correlated value-at-risk ("VAR") model. The VAR model uses a Monte Carlo simulation to generate thousands of random market price paths for foreign currencies against Indian rupee taking into account the correlations between them. The VAR is the expected loss in value of the exposures due to overnight movement in spot exchange rates, at 95% confidence interval. The VAR model is not intended to represent actual losses but is used as a risk estimation tool. The model assumes normal market conditions and is a historical best fit model. The overnight VAR for the Company at 95% confidence level is 140.9 INR Mn. as of March 31, 2017 and 69.9 INR Mn. as of March 31, 2016.

Actual future gains and losses associated with the Company's investment portfolio and derivative positions may differ materially from the sensitivity analyses performed as of March 31, 2017 due to the inherent limitations associated with predicting the timing and amount of changes in foreign currency exchanges rates and the Company's actual exposures and position.

Credit/counter-party risk

The principal credit risk that the Company is exposed to is non-collection of trade receivables and late collection of receivables leading to credit loss. The risk is mitigated by reviewing creditworthiness of the prospective customers prior to entering into contract and post contracting, through continuous monitoring of collections by a dedicated team.

The Company reviews trade receivables on periodic basis and makes provision for doubtful debts if collection is doubtful. The Company also calculates the expected credit loss (ECL) for non-collection and for delay in collection of receivables. The Company makes additional provision if the ECL amount is higher than the provision made for doubtful debts. In case the ECL amount is lower than the provision made for doubtful debts, the Company retains the provision made for doubtful debts without any adjustment.

The provision for doubtful debts including ECL allowances for non-collection of receivables and delay in collection, on a combined basis, was Rupees 155 million as at March 31, 2017 and Rupees 348 million as at March 31, 2016. The movement in allowances for doubtful accounts comprising provision for both non-collection of receivables and delay in collection is as follows

(₹ million)

	2016-17	2015-16
Opening balance of allowances for doubtful accounts	348	253
Allowances recognized (reversed)	(193)	95
Closing balance of allowances for doubtful accounts	155	348

The percentage of revenue from its top five customers is 24.2% for 2016-17 (24.2% for 2015-16).

The counter-party risk that the Company is exposed to is principally for financial instruments taken to hedge its foreign currency risks. The counter-parties are mainly banks and the Company has entered into contracts with the counterparties for all its hedge instruments.

The Company invests its surplus funds in liquid investments and mitigates the risk of counter-party failure by investing with institutions having good credit rating.

Liquidity risk management

The Company manages liquidity risk by maintaining sufficient cash and marketable securities and by having access to funding through an adequate amount of committed credit lines.

Management regularly monitors the position of cash and cash equivalents vis-à-vis projections. Assessment of maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities including debt financing plans and maintenance of balance sheet liquidity ratios are considered while reviewing the liquidity position.

The Company has no borrowings as on March 31, 2017 but it has credit facilities with banks that will help it to generate funds for the business if required. The contractual maturities of financial assets and financial liabilities is as follows

Total tax expense as per books of accounts	1,506	1,231

The applicable Indian statutory tax rate for fiscal 2017 and fiscal 2016 is 34.61%.

The foreign tax expenses are due to income taxes payable overseas, principally in the United States of America. In India, the Company has benefited from certain tax incentives that the Government of India has provided to the export of software for the units registered under the Special Economic Zones Act, 2005(SEZ). SEZ units which began the provision of services on or after April 1, 2005 are eligible for a deduction of 100 percent of profits or gains derived from the export of services for the first five years from the financial year in which the unit commenced the provision of services and 50 percent of such profits or gains for further five years. Upto 50 percent of such profits or gains is also available for a further five years subject to creation of a Special Economic Zone re-investment reserve out of the profit of the eligible SEZ units and utilization of such reserve by the Company for acquiring new plant and machinery for the purpose of its business as per the provisions of the Income tax Act, 1961.

General descriptions of defined benefit plans:

a.) Gratuity plan

The Company makes contributions to the Employees' Group Gratuity-cum-Life Assurance Scheme of the Life Insurance Corporation of India, a funded defined benefit plan for qualifying employees. The scheme provides for lump sum payment to employees at retirement, death while in employment or termination of employment of an amount equivalent to 15 days salary for every completed year of service or part thereof in excess of six months, provided the employee has completed five years in service.

b.) Post-retirement medical benefit plan

The post-retirement medical benefit plan provides for reimbursement of health care costs to certain categories of employees post their retirement. The reimbursement is subject to an overall ceiling limit sanctioned at the time of retirement. The ceiling limits are based on cadre of the employee at the time of retirement.

c.) Self-managed provident fund plan

The Company's provident fund plan is managed by its holding company through a Trust permitted under the Provident Fund Act, 1952. The plan envisages contribution by employer and employees and guarantees interest at the rate notified by the Provident Fund Authority. The contribution by employer and employee together with interest are payable at the time of separation from service or retirement whichever is earlier. The benefit under this plan vests immediately on rendering of service.

46. SEGMENT REPORTING

(a) Description of segments and principal activities

The Company’s management examines the Company’s performance from industry perspective and has identified five reportable segments of its business:

1: Transportation: The transportation segment partners with OEMs and Tier 1 suppliers serving aerospace, automotive, rail, commercial vehicles, off-highway and polymer segments. The segment delivers end-to-end services from concept to detailed design through manufacturing and sourcing support and helps OEMs develop cost effective vehicles.

2: Process Engineering: Process engineering segment provides end to end engineering services for leading plant operators across the globe. This segment works across the lifecycle of the project covering concept and basic engineering to detail engineering and start-up support.

3: Industrial Products: Industrial Products engineering partners with OEM customers across building automation, home and office products, energy, process control and machinery. This segment offers end-to-end product development counsel, leveraging expertise spanning software, electronics, connectivity, mechanical engineering, industrial networking protocols, user interface/user experience (UI/UX), test frameworks and enterprise control solutions.

4: Medical Devices: Medical Devices engineering is a dedicated practice that is revolutionizing delivery of healthcare by providing product development solutions across a variety of Class I, II and III devices, with concept design, embedded systems, hardware and software, mechanical engineering services, application software, value analysis and value engineering, manufacturing engineering and regulatory compliance.

5: Telecom: Telecom segment caters to OEM/ODMs, Chipset vendors, Telecom carriers and ISVs delivering end-to-end embedded software design and development, hardware platform design and development, product maintenance, enhancement & sustenance, Testing & Validation, System Integration for communication and related solutions & systems and field implementation services.

The management primarily uses a measure of earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation (EBITDA, see below) to assess the performance of the operating segments.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the members of L&T Technology Services Limited

Report on the consolidated Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) financial statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated Ind AS financial statements of L&T Technology Services Limited ('the Holding Company') and its subsidiaries (the Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as 'the Group'), which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2017, the consolidated statement of profit and loss (including consolidated other comprehensive income), the consolidated cash flow statement and the consolidated statement of changes in equity for the year then ended, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (herein after referred to as 'consolidated Ind AS financial statements').

Management's responsibility for the consolidated Ind AS financial statements

The Holding Company's board of directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these consolidated Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance including consolidated other comprehensive income, consolidated cash flows and consolidated changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Ind AS prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with relevant rules issued thereunder.

The respective board of directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated Ind AS financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit of the consolidated Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated Ind AS financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the consolidated Ind AS financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the consolidated Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated Ind AS financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of reports of other auditor on separate financial statements and on the other financial information of the subsidiary, the aforesaid consolidated Ind AS financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at March 31, 2017, its consolidated financial performance including consolidated other comprehensive income, its consolidated cash flows and its consolidated changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Other matters

We did not audit the financial statements of a subsidiary, whose financial statements reflect total assets of ₹ 875 million and net assets of ₹ (450) million as at March 31, 2017 and total revenues of ₹ 1,573 million and net cash inflows of ₹ 48 million for the year ended on that date, as considered in the consolidated financial statements. These financial statements have been audited by other auditor whose reports have been furnished to us by management and our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, in so far as it relates to the amounts and disclosures included in respect of these subsidiaries and our report in terms of section 143(3) and (11) of the Act, insofar as it relates to the aforesaid subsidiary is based solely on the reports of the other auditor.

This subsidiary is located outside India and its financial statements and other financial information have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in its country and which has been audited by other auditors under generally accepted auditing standards applicable in its country. The Company's management has converted the financial statements of this subsidiary located outside India from accounting principles generally accepted in its country to accounting principles generally accepted in India. We have audited these conversion adjustments made by the Company's management. Our opinion in so far as it relates to the balances and affairs of this subsidiary located outside India is based on the report of other auditors and the conversion adjustments prepared by the management of the Company and audited by us.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, and our report on other legal and regulatory requirements below, is not modified in respect of the above matters with respect to our reliance on the work done and the reports of the other auditor.

Report on other legal and regulatory requirements

1. As required by Section 143(3) of the Act, we report that:

   a) we have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit of the aforesaid consolidated financial statements;

   b) in our opinion, proper books of account as required by law relating to preparation of the aforesaid consolidated financial statements have been kept so far as it appears from our examination of those books and the reports of the other auditor;

   c) the consolidated balance sheet, the consolidated statement of profit and loss, the consolidated cash flow statement and consolidated statement of changes in equity dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of account;

   d) In our opinion, the aforesaid consolidated Ind AS financial statements comply with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act, read with rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 and Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 (as amended);

   e) on the basis of the written representations received from the directors of the Holding Company as on March 31, 2017 taken on record by the board of directors of the Holding Company and the reports of the statutory auditors of its subsidiary companies incorporated in India, none of the directors of the Group companies, incorporated in India is disqualified as on March 31, 2017 from being appointed as a director in terms of section 164(2) of the Act;

   f) With respect to the adequacy of the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company and the operating effectiveness of such controls, refer to our separate report in 'Annexure A'; and

   g) With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us:

      i. the consolidated financial statements disclose the impact of pending litigations on the consolidated financial position of the Group - refer note 34 of the consolidated financial statements;

      ii. the Group did not have any material foreseeable losses on long-term contracts including derivative contracts;

      iii. there were no amounts which were required to be transferred to the Investor Education and Protection Fund by the Holding Company and its subsidiary company incorporated in India – refer note 47 of the consolidated financial statements; and

      iv. The Company has provided requisite disclosures in its consolidated financial statements as to holdings as well as dealings in Specified Bank Notes during the period from 8 November 2016 to 30 December 2016 and are in accordance with the books of accounts maintained by the Company- refer Note 39 to the consolidated Ind AS financial statements.

ANNEXURE 'A' TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT OF EVEN DATE ON THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF L&T TECHNOLOGY SERVICES LIMITED

(Referred to in paragraph 1(f) of our report of even date)

Report on the internal financial controls under clause (i) of sub-section 3 of section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act')

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of L&T Technology Services Limited ('the Holding Company') and its Subsidiaries ('the Holding Company and its Subsidiaries together reffered to as 'the Group') as at March 31, 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's responsibility for internal financial controls

The respective board of directors of the of the Holding company and its subsidiary company which is incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ('the Guidance Note') issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors' responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable, to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involved performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of internal financial controls over financial reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that: (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company and its Subsidiary Company incorporated in India has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.

1. CORPORATE INFORMATION

L&T Technology Services Limited, along with its subsidiaries (herein after referred to as the "Group"), is a leading global pure-play Engineering, Research and Development (ER&D) services company. ER&D services are a set of services provided to manufacturing, technology and process engineering companies, to help them develop and build products, processes and infrastructure required to deliver products and services to their end customers.

The Company is a public company incorporated and domiciled in India and has its registered office at L&T House, N.M. Marg, Ballard Estate, Mumbai 400 001. As at March 31, 2017, Larsen & Toubro Limited, the holding company owns 89.77% of the Company's equity share capital.

The consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended March 31, 2017 were approved for issue by the Board of Directors on May 3, 2017.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Statement of compliance

In accordance with the notification issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, the Group has adopted Indian Accounting Standards (referred to as "Ind AS") notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 with effect from April 1, 2016. Previous period financials have been restated to Ind AS. In accordance with Ind AS 101 First-time Adoption of Indian Accounting Standard, the Company has presented a reconciliation from the presentation of financial statements under Accounting Standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 ("Previous GAAP") to Ind AS of Shareholders' equity as at March 31, 2016 and April 1, 2015 and of the comprehensive net income for the year ended March 31, 2016.

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Ind AS as notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 read with section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013.

b) Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

c) Principles of consolidation

i. The financial statements of the Parent Company and its subsidiaries have been consolidated on a line-by-line basis by adding together the book values of the like items of assets, liabilities, income and expense, after eliminating intra-group balances and the unrealised profits/losses on intra-group transactions, and are presented to the extent possible, in the same manner as the Parent Company's independent financial statements.

ii. Goodwill on consolidation represents the difference between the Group's share in the net worth of a subsidiary and the cost of acquisition at each point of time of making the investment in the subsidiary. For this purpose, the Group's share of net worth is determined on the basis of the latest financial statements, prior to the acquisition, after making necessary adjustments for material events between the date of such financial statements and the date of respective acquisition. Goodwill arising on consolidation is not amortised, however, it is tested for impairment. In the event of cessation of operations of a subsidiary, the unimpaired goodwill is written off fully.

iii. Non-controlling interest represents that part of the net profit or loss and net assets of subsidiaries attributable to interests which are not owned, directly or indirectly, by the Group.

d) Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS requires the management of the Group to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities, disclosures relating to contingent liabilities as at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expense for the periods presented.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected.

e) Presentation of financial statements

The balance sheet and the statement of profit and loss are prepared in the format prescribed in the schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act"). The cash flow statement has been prepared and presented as per the requirements of Ind AS 7 "Cash Flow Statements". The disclosure requirements with respect to items in balance sheet and statement of profit and loss, as prescribed in the schedule III to the Act, are presented by way of notes forming part of accounts along with the other notes required to be disclosed under the notified Ind AS.

f) Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts which are on time and material basis are recognized when services are rendered and related costs are incurred.

Revenue from services performed on "fixed-price" basis is recognized using the proportionate completion method.

Unbilled revenue represents value of services performed in accordance with the contract terms but not billed.

g) Employee benefits

i. Short term employee benefits

All employee benefits falling due wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short term employee benefits. The benefits like salaries, wages, and short term compensated absences and performance incentives are recognized in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

ii. Post-employment benefits

a) Defined contribution plan:

The Company's superannuation fund and state governed provident fund scheme are classified as defined contribution plans. The contribution paid / payable under the schemes is recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

b) Defined benefit plans:

The provident fund scheme managed by trust, employee's gratuity fund scheme managed by LIC and post-retirement medical benefit scheme are the Company's defined benefit plans. Wherever applicable, the present value of the obligation under such defined benefit plans is determined based on actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method, which recognizes each period of service as giving rise to additional unit of employee benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash-flows. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plans, is based on the market yields on government bonds as at the balance sheet date, having maturity periods approximating to the terms of related obligations. In case of funded plans, the fair value of the plan assets is reduced from the gross obligation under the defined benefit plans to recognize the obligation on net basis.

Gains or losses on the curtailment or settlement of any defined benefit plan are recognized when the curtailment or settlement occurs. Past service cost is recognised as expense at the earlier of the plan amendment or curtailment and when the Company recognizes related restructuring costs or termination benefits.

Actuarial gains and losses are recognized immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Other changes in net defined benefit obligation like current service cost, past service cost, gains and losses on curtailment and net interest expense or income are recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

iii. Long term employee benefits:

The obligation for long term employee benefits like long term compensation absences is recognized in the similar manner as in the case of defined benefit plans as mentioned in (ii) (b) above.

h) Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short term highly liquid investments with original maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

i) Employee stock ownership scheme

In respect of stock options granted pursuant to the Company's Stock Options Scheme, the excess of fair value of the share over the exercise price is treated as discount and accounted as employee compensation cost over the vesting period. The amount recognised as expense each year is arrived at based on the number of grants expected to vest. If a grant lapses after the vesting period, the cumulative discount recognised as expense in respect of such grant is transferred to general reserve.

j) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation (other than freehold land) and impairment loss, if any.

Depreciation is provided for property, plant and equipment so as to expense the cost over their estimated useful lives based on evaluation. The estimated useful lives and residual value are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

The estimated useful lives are as mentioned below

Asset class	Useful life (years)
Plant and equipment	8
Air-condition and refrigeration	12
Canteen equipment	8
Laboratory equipment	8
Electrical installations	10
Computers	3
Office equipment	4
Furniture and fixtures	10
Cars	7
Leasehold improvements	Lease period

Depreciation is not recorded on capital work-in-progress until construction and installation are complete and the asset is ready for its intended use.

k) Intangible assets and amortisation

Intangible assets purchased are measured at cost or fair value as of the date of acquisition, as applicable, less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment, if any.

Intangible assets consist of computer software and technical know-how which are amortised over the useful life as given below:

Asset class	Useful life (years)
Specialised software	6
Technical knowhow	4
Customer contracts and relationships	7

l) Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of consideration paid over the net value of assets acquired. Goodwill is not amortised, however tested for impairment at regular interval. Refer note O (b) for accounting policy on impairment of assets.

m) Financial Instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value measured on initial recognition of financial asset or financial liability.

Non-derivative financial assets:

Financial assets at amortised cost

Financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost if these financial assets are held within a business model whose objective is to hold these assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. Financial assets at amortised cost are represented by trade receivables, cash and cash equivalents, employee and other advances and eligible current and non-current assets.

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

Financial assets are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if these financial assets

are held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows that give rise on specified dates to solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding and by selling financial assets.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets are measured at fair value through profit or loss unless it is measured at amortised cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income on initial recognition. The transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are immediately recognised in profit or loss.

Non-derivative financial liabilities:

Financial liabilities are initially recognised at fair value, and subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method. For trade and other payables maturing within 1 year from balance sheet date, the carrying amount approximate fair value due to short maturity of these instruments.

Derivative financial instrument

Cash flow hedge

The Company designates foreign exchange forward contracts as hedge instruments in respect of foreign exchange risks. These hedges are accounted for as cash flow hedges.

The Company uses hedging instruments that are governed by the policies of the Company which are approved by the Board of Directors, which provide written principles on the use of such financial derivatives consistent with the risk management strategy of the Company.

The hedge instruments are designated and documented as hedges at the inception of the contract.

The effectiveness of hedge instruments to reduce the risk associated with the exposure being hedged is assessed and measured at inception and on an ongoing basis. The ineffective portion of designated hedges are recognised immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

The effective portion of change in the fair value of the designated hedging instrument is recognised in the other comprehensive income and accumulated under the heading cash flow hedge reserve.

Hedge accounting is discontinued when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated or no longer qualifies for hedge accounting. Any gain or loss recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity till that time remains and is recognised in statement of profit and loss when the forecasted transaction ultimately affects the profit or loss. When a forecasted transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss accumulated in equity is transferred to the statement of profit and loss.

n) Investment in subsidiaries

Investment in subsidiaries are measured at cost as per Ind AS 27 - Separate Financial Statements.

o) Leases

(a) Finance leases:

Assets acquired under lease where the Company has substantially all the risk and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Such assets are capitalised at inception of lease at the lower of fair value or present value of minimum lease payments and a liability is created for an equivalent amount. Each lease rental paid is allocated between the liability and the interest cost so as to obtain a constant periodic rate of interest on the outstanding liability for each period.

(b) Operating leases

Assets acquired on leases where a significant portion of the risk and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Lease rentals are charged to the statement of profit and loss on accrual basis.

p) Impairment of assets

a) Trade receivables

The Company assesses at each date of statement of financial position whether a financial assets or group of financial assets is impaired. In accordance with IndAS 109, the company applies expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss. As a practical expedient, the company uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss on portfolio of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of trade receivables. ECL impairment loss allowances (or reversal) recognized during the period is recognized as an expense/income respectively in the statement of profit and loss. Provision for ECL is presented as deduction from carrying amount of trade receivables.

b) Non-financial assets

Tangible and intangible assets

Property, plant and equipment and intangible assets (other than goodwill) are evaluated for recoverability whenever there is any indication that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount (i.e. higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash generating unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or CGU) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or CGU) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss

Goodwill is tested for impairment annually and if events or changes in circumstances indicate that an impairment loss may have occurred. In the impairment test, the carrying amount of the cash generating unit, including goodwill, is compared with its fair value. When the carrying amount of the reporting unit exceeds its fair value, a goodwill impairment loss is recognised, up to a maximum amount of the goodwill related to the cash generating unit.

q) Foreign currencies

The functional currency of the Company is Indian rupee.

Income and expenses in foreign currencies are recorded at exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction. Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate prevailing on the balance sheet date and exchange gains and losses arising on settlement and restatement are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured in terms of historical cost in foreign currencies are not retranslated.

r) Income-tax

Income tax expense comprises current tax expense and the net change in the deferred tax asset or liability during the year. Current and deferred taxes are recognised in statement of profit and loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Current income taxes

The current income tax expense includes income taxes payable by the Company and its branches in India and overseas. The current tax payable by the Company in India is Indian income tax payable for their worldwide income after taking credit for tax relief available for export operations in Special Economic Zones (SEZs).

Current income tax payable by overseas branches of the Company is computed in accordance with the tax laws applicable in the jurisdiction in which the respective branch operates. The taxes paid are generally available for set off against the Indian income tax liability of the Company's worldwide income.

Advance taxes and provisions for current income taxes are presented in the balance sheet after off-setting advance tax paid and income tax provision arising in the same tax jurisdiction and where the relevant tax paying units intends to settle the asset and liability on a net basis.

Deferred income taxes

Deferred income tax is recognised using the balance sheet approach. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognised for deductible and taxable temporary differences arising between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount, except when the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss at the time of the transaction.

Deferred income tax asset are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax asset to be utilised.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which the temporary differences are expected to be received or settled.

For operations carried out in SEZs, deferred tax assets or liabilities, if any, have been established for the tax consequences of those temporary differences between the carrying values of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases that reverse after the tax holiday ends.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when the Company has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Deferred tax assets include Minimum Alternative Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws in India, which is likely to give future economic benefits in the form of availability of set off against future income tax liability. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as deferred tax asset in the balance sheet when the asset can be measured reliably and it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with the asset will be realised.

The Company recognises interest levied related to income tax assessments in interest expenses.

s) Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognized for liabilities that can be measured only by using a substantial degree of estimation, if

a) The Company has a present obligation as a result of a past event;

b) A probable outflow of resources is expected to settle the obligation; and

c) The amount of the obligation can be reliably estimated

Contingent liability is disclosed in the case of

a) A present obligation arising from a past event when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; or

b) A possible obligation unless the probability of outflow of resources is remote

Contingent assets are neither recognized nor disclosed.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

t) Commitment

Commitments are future liability for contractual expenditure. Commitment are classified and disclosed as follows:

a. Estimated amount of contracts remaining to be executed on capital account and not provided for,

b. Other non-cancellable commitments, if any, to the extent they are considered material and relevant in the opinion of management.

Other commitments related to sales/procurements made in the normal course of business are not disclosed to avoid excessive details.

u) Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit for the period is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

v) Earnings per equity share

Basic earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the Company by the weighted average numbers of the equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per equity share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

w) The list of subsidiaries included in the consolidated financial statements is as under:

3. FIRST TIME ADOPTION OF IND AS

Transition to Ind AS

These financial statements, for the year ended March 31, 2017, are the first the group has prepared in accordance with Ind AS.

The accounting policies set out in note 2 have been applied in preparing financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2017, the comparative information presented in these financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2016 and in preparation of opening Ind AS balance sheet at April 1, 2015 (the group's date of transition to Ind AS). In preparing its opening Ind AS balance sheet the group has adjusted amount reported previously in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting standards notified under Companies(Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 (as amended) and other relevant provisions of the act (previous GAAP). An explanation of how transition from previous GAAP to Ind AS has affected the group's financials position, financial performance and cash flow is set out in following tables and notes.

3.1 Exemptions and exceptions availed

a) Ind AS 101 permits a first time adopter to elect to continue with carrying value for all of its property, plant and equipment as recognised in the financial statements as at date of transition to Ind AS, measured as per previous GAAP and use that as deemed cost as at date of transition after making necessary adjustments. Accordingly, group has elected to measure all of its property, plant and equipment at their previous GAAP carrying value.

b) In respect of business combinations, Ind AS 101 provides the option to apply Ind AS 103 prospectively from transition date or from a specific date prior to transition date. This provides relief from full retrospective application that would require restatement of all business combinations prior to transition date. The group has elected to apply Ind AS 103 prospectively to business combination occurring after its transition date. Business combination occurring prior to transition date have not been restated.

c) Ind AS 101 allows first time adopter not to apply Ind AS 21 Effects of changes in foreign exchange rates retrospectively for business combinations that occurred before the date of transition to Ind AS. In such cases where the entity does not apply Ind AS 21 retrospectively fair value adjustments and goodwill, the entity treats them as assets and liabilities of acquirer and not as acquiree. The group has elected to apply this exemption.

d) Ind AS 110 requires entities to attribute the profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income to the owners of parent and to the non controlling interests. The requirement needs to be followed even if this results in non controlling interest having a deficit balance. Ind AS 101 requires the above requirement to be followed prospectively from date of transition. Consequently, group has applied above requirement prospectively from date of transition.

Analysis of changes in cash and cash equivalents for purpose of standalone statement of cash flow under Ind AS

(₹ million)

Particulars	Note	March 31, 2016	March 31, 2015
Cash and cash equivalent as per previous GAAP		865	1,154
Regrouping of bank deposits having maturity after 12 months	f)	(31)	-
Cash and cash equivalent as per Ind AS		834	1,154

3.8 Notes to first time adoption of Ind AS

a) Deferred tax assets (net)

Tax adjustments include deferred tax impact on account of differences between previous GAAP and Ind AS which are mainly gain on fair valuation of investment, expected credit loss allowance & employee benefit provisions. Further, Minimum Alternated Tax (MAT) balance was grouped under short term loans and advances under previous GAAP which has been presented under deferred tax assets as per Ind AS.

b) Current investments

As per Ind AS, investments in liquid mutual funds have been revalued at fair value which was being accounted at cost under previous GAAP. The resulting fair value changes of these investments have been recognised in profit and loss.

c) Trade receivables

Under previous GAAP, provisions were made for specific receivables if collection was doubtful. Under Ind AS 109, the Group has applied expected credit loss model for recognising allowance for doubtful debt. Expected credit loss model reflects an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined by evaluating a range of possible outcomes and also includes loss for the time value of money.

d) Other bank balances and other financial assets

Fixed deposits were all classified under "Cash & Bank" category under previous GAAP. Under Ind AS, the Group has classified fixed deposits into current and non-current based on maturity duration. Accordingly, fixed deposits having maturity date after 12 months from reporting date have been classified as non-current financial assets.

e) Other financial assets & other non current assets

Under previous GAAP, interest free lease security deposits (that are refundable in cash on completion of lease term) are recorded at their transaction value. Under Ind AS, financial assets are required to be recognised at fair value. Accordingly, the Group has measured the security deposits at fair value under Ind AS. The difference between fair value and transaction value of security deposit has been recognised as prepaid rent and is being expensed on straight line basis over term of lease. the Group also recognizes interest income using internal rate of return through its profit and loss over the life of the deposit.

f) Short term loans, financial assets and other current assets

Under previous GAAP, the financial guarantee given on behalf of subsidiary was disclosed by way of contingent liability in the standalone financial statements of the Group. As per Ind AS 109, para 5.1.1 the Group has recognised the financial guarantee at fair value at inception. Under previous GAAP, specific classification of various assets under head "financial assets" was not made. Under Ind-AS, assets covered by nature as defined under Ind AS 32 have been regrouped from short term loans to financial asset category. Assets classified as non-financial in nature have been regrouped under other current assets.

g) Other financial liabilities and other current liabilities

Constructive obligation is not defined under previous GAAP due to which certain employee related expenses were recognised as and when they occur. Under Ind AS 37, the same is covered under definition of constructive obligation and all such employee related expenses needs to be provided for. Under previous GAAP, specific classification of various liabilities under head "financial liabilities" was not made and no liability were presented under category "financial liabilities". Under Ind-AS 32, financial liability has been defined and accordingly, liabilities covered by nature as defined under Ind AS 32 has been regrouped from other current liabilities to financial liabilities category. Liability classified as non-financial in nature has been regrouped under other current liability. Consequent to transition, all employee relevant liabilities has been classified under financial liability as per new disclosure requirements. Interest accrued but no due in respect of short term borrowings regrouped from other current liability to borrowing as per disclosure requirements of Ind AS.

h) Short term provisions and Tax liabilities (net)

Under previous GAAP, current year tax liability/asset was disclosed under category "short term provisions" or "short term advance". However, as per Ind AS disclosure requirements, current year tax liabilities and advances needs to be adjusted and net balance to be disclosed separately.

i) Hedge Accounting impact on other income

Under previous GAAP, the Group was accounting the premia income over the period of the forward contract. However, under Ind AS, the Group does not account the premia income. As per Ind-AS109, changes in the fair value of the derivative hedging instrument which are designated as "Cash flow hedges" have been recognized under Other Comprehensive Income and held in Hedging Reserve (net of taxes) to the extent the hedges are effective.

j) Remeasurement of post employment benefit obligations

As per Ind AS, re-measurement of defined benefit plans has been disclosed under "Other Comprehensive Income" (OCI), which was being debited to statement of profit and loss under previous GAAP.

k) Amortisation of prepaid rent & notional interest income on lease deposits

Impact of Ind AS transition on lease deposit has been covered under note (e). Accordingly, lease deposits were fair valued and notional interest income is recognised on lease deposit using internal rate of return over life of deposit.

l) Accounting of cash discount given to customers

Under previous GAAP, cash discounts were accounted as finance cost. Under Ind AS, cash discounts are reduced from the revenue from operations.

m) Current year income tax charge

Consequent to Ind AS adjustments which are mainly on account of post employment benefit obligations and tax impact on premia/exchange gain / loss reversal, respective tax adjustments have been made in the statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2016.

n) Other Comprehensive Income

As per Ind AS, re-measurement of defined benefit plans, effective portions of gains and losses on cash flow hedges and foreign currency translation reserve have been disclosed under "Other Comprehensive Income" (OCI). The re-measurement of defined benefit plans was being earlier recognised in the statement of profit and loss under previous GAAP.

This section explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are (a) measured and measured at fair value and (b) measuread at amortised cost and for which fair values are disclosed in the financial statements. To provide and indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the group has classified its financial instruments into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standard. An explanantion of each level follows underneath the table.

Level 1 - Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).

Level 3 - Inputs for the assets or liabilities that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

There were transfers between levels 1 and 2 during the year.

The group’s policy is to recognise transfers into and transfers out of fair value hierarchy levels as at the end of the reporting period.

(ii) Valuation technique used to determine fair value

Specific valuation technique used to value financial instruments include :

- the use of quoted market prices or dealer quotes for similar instruments
- the fair value of forward foreign exchange contracts is determined using forward exchange rates at the balance sheet date.
- the fair value of remaining financial instrument is determined using discounted cash flow analysis.

(iii) Valuation processes

The finance department of the group includes a team that performs the valuations of financial assets and liabilities required for financial reporting purposes, including level 3 fair values. The fair valuation of level 1 and level 2 classified assets and liabilities are readily available from the quoted prices in the open market and rates available in secondary market respectively. The valuation method applied for various financial assets and liabilities are as follows -

- Quoted price in the primary market (NAV) considered for the fair valuation of the current investment i.e Mutual fund. Gain/(loss) on fair valuaiton is recognised in Profit and Loss.
- The carrying amounts of trade receivable, trade payable, cash and bank balances, short term loans and advances, statutory dues/receiable, short term borrowing, employee dues are considered to be the same as their fair value due to their short-term nature.

- The fair value of premuim receivable on financial guarantee contract is derived by discounting premuim receivable over the period of contract.Thereafter, the same is carried at the amount initially recognised less the cumulative amortisation of income over the period of the contract.

38. SHARE BASED PAYMENTS

(a) Employee option plan

The establishment of the ESOP scheme, 2016 was done pursuant to the resolutions passed by the Board and the Shareholders on January 21, 2016 for issue of options to eligible employees which may result in issue of not more than 6,000,000 equity shares. In terms of the ESOP Scheme, 2016, the Company can grant options aggregating to not more than 8.0% of the paid up equity share capital of the Company as on April 1, 2016. The eligible employees include permanent employees (including executive directors and non-executive directors, but excluding the independent directors) of the Company, its subsidiaries, or holding company. However, unless otherwise decided by the Board, in the event the subsidiaries or the holding company have implemented a stock option scheme, the employees of such entities will not be eligible for grant of options under the ESOP Scheme, 2016. Further, the employees (i) holding 10.0% of the outstanding share capital of the Company at any time after the commencement of the ESOP Scheme, 2016, or (ii) who are promoters or persons belonging to promoter group, or directors, who either by themselves or through their relatives or any body corporate, directly or indirectly, hold more than 10.0% of the outstanding equity shares of the Company, will not be eligible for grant of options under the ESOP Scheme, 2016

The objective of the ESOP Scheme, 2016 is to reward those employees who contribute significantly to the Company's profitability and shareholder's value as well as encourage improvement in performance and retention of talent.

The vesting of options granted under the ESOP Scheme, 2016 will commence one year after the date of grant of options at the rate of 20.0% of options granted each year, or at such other rates as may be fixed by the Board and may extend up to five years from the date of grant of options, unless otherwise varied in accordance with the employee stock option rules to be framed under the ESOP Scheme, 2016. The exercise period for the options granted under the ESOP Scheme, 2016 would be seven years (84 months) from the date of grant of options or six years from the date of first vesting or three years (36 months) from the date of retirement/death, whichever is earlier, subject to any change as may be approved by the Board. The exercise price may be decided by the Board, in such manner, during such period, in one or more tranches and on such terms and conditions as it may deem fit, provided that the exercise price per option shall not be less than the par value of the equity share of our Company and shall not be more than the market price as defined in the SEBI ESOP Regulations and shall be subject to compliance with accounting policies under the ESOP Regulations. The number of shares to be allotted on exercise of options should not exceed the total number of unexercised vested options that may be exercised by the employee.

Further, on resignation / termination of the eligible employees, only the vested options would be exercisable. All other grants if unvested for any reason whatsoever shall be deemed lapsed. Such eligible employee is required to exercise the options within a period of 90 days from the last date of employment or such other period as may be decided by the Board at the time of such separation. In the event an eligible employee retires or is permanently incapacitated, all unvested options will vest in the said employee immediately. The eligible employee has to exercise options within a period of three years from the date of retirement or the date of permanent incapacitation, as the case may be, or such other period as may be decided by the Board. In case of voluntary or pre-mature retirement, the eligible employee will exercise only the vested options within 180 days from the last date of employment. All other unvested options will lapse. However, the Board will have the discretion to vest the unvested options in deserving cases and where the employee has crossed the age of 55 years. The retiring age for non-executive directors shall be 75 years or as may be decided by Board and on attainment of which, all the unvested options of the nonexecutive directors shall be vested with them immediately. In event of death of the eligible employee, unvested options shall be vested immediately in the nominees or legal heirs, as the case may be, and in the event of death of any of the nominees, his share shall vest in the surviving nominees or legal heirs, pro-rata

(i) Fair value of options granted

The fair value at grant date of options granted during the year ended 31-03-2017 was INR 281 (31-03-2016 - Nil). The fair value of grant date is determined using the Black Scholes Model which takes into account the exercise price, term of option, share price at grant date and expected price volatility of the underlying share, the expected dividend yeild and the risk free interest rate for the term of the option.

The model inputs for options granted during the year ended March 31, 2017 included:

a) weighted average exercise price: INR 2 (March 31, 2016 - Nil) *

b) grant date : July 28, 2016 and August 27, 2016

c) expiry date: July 27, 2023 & August 26, 2023 (March 31, 2016 - Nil)

d) weighted average share price at grant date: INR 281 (March 31, 2016 - Nil) #

e) weighted average expected price volatility of company's share: 25.17% (March 31, 2016 - Nil)

f) weighted average expected dividend yield over life of option: 18.5% (March 31, 2016 - Nil)

g) weighted average risk-free interest: 6.95% (March 31, 2016 - Nil)

The expected price volatility is based on the historic volatility (based on the remianing life of the options), ajusted for any expected changes to future volatility due to publicly available information.

* The first vesting is due on 27-07-2017.

As the Company was not listed on the date of grant, price at grant date has been taken as per the valuation done by a category 1 merchant banker.

40. DIVIDENDS

Dividends paid during the year ended March 31, 2017 include an amount of 7.95 per equity share towards interim dividend for the year ended March 31, 2017 and an amount of 0.13 per preference share towards dividend on preference shares. Dividends paid during the year ended March 31, 2016 include an amount of 14.32 per equity share towards interim dividend for the year ended March 31, 2016 and an amount of 1 per preference share towards dividend on preference shares.

The dividends declared by the holding Company are based on the profits available for distribution as reported in the financial statements of the holding Company. Accordingly, the retained earnings reported in these financial statements may not be fully distributable. On May 3, 2017, the Board of Directors of the holding Company have proposed a final dividend of ₹ 4 per share in respect of the year ended March 31, 2017 subject to the approval of shareholders at the Annual General Meeting. If approved, the dividend would result in a cash outflow of ₹ 490 Mn inclusive of dividend distribution tax of ₹ 83 Mn.

41. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Market risk management

The Group regularly reviews its foreign exchange forward and option positions and interest rate swaps, both on a standalone basis and in conjunction with its underlying foreign currency and interest rate related exposures. The Group follows cash flow hedge accounting for highly probable forecasted exposures (HPFE) hence the movement in mark to market (MTM) of the hedge contracts undertaken for such exposures is likely to be offset by contra movements in the underlying exposures values. However, till the point of time that the HPFE becomes an on-balance sheet exposure, the changes in MTM of the hedge contracts will impact the balance sheet of the Group. The Company manages its exposures normally for a period of up to three years based on the estimated exposures over that period. As the period increases, the cash flows hedged as a percentage of the total expected cash flows diminish, as there is increased uncertainty of the total cash flows materializing over a longer period of time. The recognition of the gains and losses related to these instruments may not always coincide with the timing of gains and losses related to the underlying economic exposures and, therefore, may adversely affect the Group's financial condition and operating results. Hence, the Group monitors the potential risk arising out of the market factors like exchange rates, interest rates, price of traded investment products etc. on a regular basis. For on balance sheet exposures, the Group monitors the risks on net un-hedged exposures.

Price risk

The Group's investment policy and strategy are focused on preservation of capital and supporting the Group's liquidity requirements. The Group uses a combination of internal and external management to execute its investment strategy and achieve its investment objectives. The Group typically invests in money market funds, under a limits framework which governs the credit exposure to any one issuer as defined in its investment policy. To provide a meaningful assessment of the price risk associated with the Group's investment portfolio, the Group performed a sensitivity analysis to determine the impact of change in prices of the securities that would have on the value of the investment portfolio assuming a 0.25% move in debt funds and debt securities Based on the investment position a hypothetical 0.25% change in the fair market value of debt securities would result in a value change of +/- 3 INR Mn. as of March 31, 2017 and +/- 0.9 INR Mn. as of March 31, 2016. The investments in money market funds are for the purpose of liquidity management only and are held only overnight and hence not subject to any material price risk.

Foreign currency risk

In general, the Group is a net receiver of foreign currency. Accordingly, changes in exchange rates, and in particular a strengthening of the Indian rupee, will negatively affect the Group's net sales and gross margins as expressed in Indian rupees.

The Group may enter into foreign currency forward contracts with financial institutions to protect against foreign exchange risks associated with certain existing assets and liabilities, certain firmly committed transactions, forecasted future cash flows and net investments in foreign subsidiaries. The Group's practice is to hedge a portion of its material net foreign exchange exposures with tenors in line with the projected exposure based on future business growth. However, the Group may choose not to hedge certain foreign exchange exposures for a variety of reasons, including but not limited to accounting considerations and the prohibitive economic cost of hedging particular exposures. The Group may also not hedge 100% given the uncertainty with business projections and hence the exposure gets hedged progressively in lower amounts.

To provide a meaningful assessment of the foreign currency risk associated with the Group's foreign currency derivative positions against off balance sheet exposures and unhedged portion of on-balance sheet exposures, the Group uses a multi-currency correlated value-at-risk ("VAR") model. The VAR model uses a Monte Carlo simulation to generate thousands of random market price paths for foreign currencies against Indian rupee taking into account the correlations between them. The VAR is the expected loss in value of the exposures due to overnight movement in spot exchange rates, at 95% confidence interval. The VAR model is not intended to represent actual losses but is used as a risk estimation tool. The model assumes normal market conditions and is a historical best fit model. The overnight VAR for the Group at 95% confidence level is 145.4 INR Mn. as of March 31, 2017 and 72.8 INR Mn. as of March 31, 2016.

Actual future gains and losses associated with the Group's investment portfolio and derivative positions may differ materially from the sensitivity analyses performed as of March 31, 2017 due to the inherent limitations associated with predicting the timing and amount of changes in foreign currency exchanges rates and the Group's actual exposures and position.

Credit/counter-party risk

The principal credit risk that the Group is exposed to is non-collection of trade receivables and late collection of receivables leading to credit loss. The risk is mitigated by reviewing creditworthiness of the prospective customers prior to entering into contract and post contracting, through continuous monitoring of collections by a dedicated team.

The Group reviews trade receivables on periodic basis and makes provision for doubtful debts if collection is doubtful. The Group also calculates the expected credit loss (ECL) for non-collection and for delay in collection of receivables. The Group makes additional provision if the ECL amount is higher than the provision made for doubtful debts. In case the ECL amount is lower than the provision made for doubtful debts, the Group retains the provision made for doubtful debts without any adjustment.

The provision for doubtful debts including ECL allowances for non-collection of receivables and delay in collection, on a combined basis, was Rupees 166 million as at March 31, 2017 and Rupees 349 million as at March 31, 2016. The movement in allowances for doubtful accounts comprising provision for both non-collection of receivables and delay in collection is as follows:

(₹ million)

	2016-17	2015-16
Opening balance of allowances for doubtful accounts	349	253
Allowances recognized (reversed)	(183)	96
Closing balance of allowances for doubtful accounts	166	349

The percentage of revenue from its top five customers is 23.2% for 2016-17 (22.8% for 2015-16).

The counter-party risk that the Group is exposed to is principally for financial instruments taken to hedge its foreign currency risks. The counter-parties are mainly banks and the Group has entered into contracts with the counterparties for all its hedge instruments.

The Group invests its surplus funds in liquid investments and mitigates the risk of counter-party failure by investing with institutions having good credit rating.

Liquidity risk management

The Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining sufficient cash and marketable securities and by having access to funding through an adequate amount of committed credit lines.

Management regularly monitors the position of cash and cash equivalents vis-à-vis projections. Assessment of maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities including debt financing plans and maintenance of balance sheet liquidity ratios are considered while reviewing the liquidity position. The contractual maturities of financial assets and financial liabilities is as follows:

General descriptions of defined benefit plans:

a.) Gratuity plan

The Company makes contributions to the Employees' Group Gratuity-cum-Life Assurance Scheme of the Life Insurance Corporation of India, a funded defined benefit plan for qualifying employees. The scheme provides for lump sum payment to employees at retirement, death while in employment or termination of employment of an amount equivalent to 15 days salary for every completed year of service or part thereof in excess of six months, provided the employee has completed five years in service.

b.) Post-retirement medical benefit plan

The post-retirement medical benefit plan provides for reimbursement of health care costs to certain categories of employees post their retirement. The reimbursement is subject to an overall ceiling limit sanctioned at the time of retirement. The ceiling limits are based on cadre of the employee at the time of retirement.

c.) Self-managed provident fund plan

The Company's provident fund plan is managed by its holding company through a Trust permitted under the Provident Fund Act, 1952. The plan envisages contribution by employer and employees and guarantees interest at the rate notified by the Provident Fund Authority. The contribution by employer and employee together with interest are payable at the time of separation from service or retirement whichever is earlier. The benefit under this plan vests immediately on rendering of service.

COMPANY'S POLICY ON DIRECTOR APPOINTMENT AND REMUNERATION

A. Background and Objectives

Section 178 of the Act and Regulation 19 read with Part D of Schedule II of the Listing Regulations, as amended from time to time, requires the Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("NRC") to formulate a policy relating to the remuneration for the Directors, KMPs, Senior Management and other employees of the Company and recommend the same for approval of the Board. Further, Section 178(4) of the Act stipulates that the policy is required to be disclosed in the Board's Report.

Further, Section 134 of the Act stipulates that the Board's Report is required to include a statement on Company's policy on Directors' appointment and remuneration including criteria for determining qualifications, positive attributes, independence of director and remuneration for KMPs and other employees.

The Board of Directors has, based on the recommendation of the NRC of the Company, approved the policy on Directors' appointment and remuneration for Directors, KMP and other employees.

B. Brief Framework of the Policy

The objective of this Policy is

a) to determine inter-alia, qualifications, positive attributes and independence of a Director;

b) to guide on matters relating to appointment and removal of Directors and Senior Management;

c) to lay down criteria/evaluate performance of the Directors; and

d) to guide on determination of remuneration of the Directors, KMPs and other employees

C. Appointment of Director(s) – Criteria Identification

The NRC identifies and ascertains the integrity, professional qualification, expertise and experience of the person, who is proposed to be appointed as a director and appropriate recommendation is made to the Board with respect to his/her appointment.

Appointment of Independent Directors is subject to the provisions of Section 149 of the Act read with Schedule IV and rules thereunder and Listing Regulations. The NRC satisfies itself that the proposed person satisfies the criteria of independence as stipulated under Section 149(6) of the Act and Listing Regulations, before their appointment as an Independent Director.

No person is eligible to be appointed as a Director, if he/she is subject to any disqualifications as stipulated under the Act or any other law(s) for the time being in force.

Appointment of Managing Director and Whole-time Director is subject to provisions of Sections 196, 197, 198 and 203 of the Act read with Schedule V and rules there under. The NRC ensures that a person does not occupy position as a Managing Director/Whole-time Director beyond the age of seventy years, unless the appointment is approved by a Special Resolution passed by the Company in general meeting. No re-appointment is made earlier than one year before the expiry of term.

D. Evaluation criteria of Directors and Senior Management/KMPs/Employees

- Non-Executive Directors/Independent Directors

  The NRC carries out evaluation of performance of Independent Directors/Non-Executive Directors every year ending March 31st on the basis of the following criteria:

  - ➢ Membership & Attendance - Board and Committee meetings;
  - ➢ Contribution during such meetings;
  - ➢ Active participation in strategic decision making;
  - ➢ Inputs to executive management on matters of strategic importance; and
  - ➢ Such other matters, as the NRC/Board may determine from time to time.

- Executive Directors

  The NRC carries out evaluation of performance of Executive Directors ("EDs") every year ending March 31st. The evaluation is on the basis of Key Performance Indicators ("KPI"), which are identified well in advance for EDs and weights assigned for each measure of performance keeping in view the distinct roles of ED. The identified KPI for EDs are approved by the Board, pursuant to recommendation of the NRC, if required.

- Senior Management/KMPs/Employees

  The HR Department carries out the evaluation of the aforementioned persons every year ending March 31st, with the Department Head(s)/ Management concerned. KPI are identified well in advance at the commencement of the financial year. Performance benchmarks are set and evaluation of employees is done by the respective reporting Manager(s)/ Management to determine whether the performance benchmarks are achieved. The payment of remuneration/annual increment to the aforementioned persons is determined after the satisfactory completion of evaluation process.

  The HR Department of the Company is authorized to design the framework for evaluating the EDs/KMPs/Senior Management Personnel/Employees. The objective of carrying out the evaluation by the Company is to identify and reward those with exceptional performances during any financial year. Training and Development Orientation programs on a need basis are provided to employees, whose performance during any financial year does not meet the benchmark criteria.

E. Criteria for Remuneration

NRC while determining the criteria for remuneration for Directors, KMPs/Senior Management and other employees ensures that:

- ➢ the level and composition of remuneration is reasonable and sufficient to attract, retain and motivate Directors of the quality required to run the Company successfully;
- ➢ relationship of remuneration to performance is clear and meets appropriate performance benchmarks; and
- ➢ remuneration to Directors, KMPs and Senior Management involves a balance between fixed and incentive pay reflecting short and long-term performance objectives appropriate to the working of the Company and its goals.

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

Pursuant to the provisions of the Act and the provisions of the Listing Regulations, the Board has carried out an annual evaluation of its own performance, performance of the Directors individually and the Committees of the Board.

Manner of Evaluation

The NRC and the Board have laid down the manner in which formal annual evaluation of the performance of the Board, its Committees and individual directors has to be made.

1) in the preparation of the annual accounts, the applicable accounting standards have been followed along with proper explanation relating to material departures, if any;

2) the Directors have selected such accounting policies and applied them consistently and made judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent so as to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2017 and of the profit of the Company for that period;

3) the Directors have taken proper and sufficient care for the maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting fraud and other irregularities;

4) the Directors have prepared the annual accounts on a going concern basis;

5) the Directors have laid down internal financial controls to be followed by the Company and that such internal financial controls are adequate and operating effectively; and

6) the Directors have devised proper systems to ensure compliance with the provisions of all applicable laws and that such systems were adequate and operating effectively.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS AND THEIR ADEQUACY

The Company has an internal control system, commensurate with the size, scale and complexity of its operations. Testing of such systems forms a part of review by the Internal Audit function. The scope and authority of the Internal Audit function is defined in the Internal Audit Charter.

The Internal Audit department of LTFS monitors and evaluates the efficacy and adequacy of the internal control system in the Company, and its compliance with operating systems, accounting procedures and policies of the Company. Based on the report of the Internal Audit function, process owners undertake corrective action, if any, in their respective areas and thereby strengthen the controls. Significant audit observations and corrective actions thereon are presented to the Audit Committee ("AC") from time to time.

MEETINGS

The details of the Board meetings held during FY 2016-17 are disclosed in the Corporate Governance Report appended to this Report.

COMPOSITION OF AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Company has constituted an AC in terms of the requirements of the Act, Regulation 18 of Listing Regulations and RBI Regulations. The details of the same are disclosed in the Corporate Governance Report.

VIGIL MECHANISM

Pursuant to Rule 7 of the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 read with Section 177(9) of the Act, the Company has framed and adopted the Vigil Mechanism Framework to enable directors and employees to report genuine concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of Code of Conduct.

Under this framework, the Company has set up a "Whistle Blower Investigation Committee". The Chairperson of this Whistle Blower Investigation Committee is the Chief Ethics Officer of the Company responsible for receiving, validating, investigating and reporting to the AC on this matter. The Chief Internal Auditor of LTFS is acting as 'Chief Ethics Officer'.

The objective of this mechanism is to maintain a redressal system which can process all complaints concerning questionable accounting practices, internal controls or fraudulent reporting of financial information.

The mechanism framed by the Company is in compliance with the requirements of the Act and Listing Regulations and available on the website of the Company at http://www.ltfs.com/investors.html.

PARTICULARS OF LOANS GIVEN, INVESTMENTS MADE, GUARANTEES GIVEN OR SECURITY PROVIDED BY THE COMPANY

Details of loans, guarantees and investments covered under the provisions of Section 186 of the Act are given in the Notes to the Financial Statements.

PARTICULARS OF CONTRACTS OR ARRANGEMENTS WITH RELATED PARTIES

The Board of Directors has approved the Policy on transactions with related parties ("RPT policy"), pursuant to the recommendation of the AC. In line with the requirements of the Act, RBI Regulations and Listing Regulations, the Company has formulated the RPT Policy which is also available on the Company's website at http://www.ltfs.com/investors.html. The Policy intends to ensure that proper reporting, approval and disclosure processes are in place for all transactions between the Company and the related parties.

Key features of the RPT Policy are as under:

➢ All transactions with related parties ("RPTs") are referred to the AC of the Company for approval irrespective of its materiality. The AC, on the recommendation of the management, approves certain RPTs which would occur on a regular basis or at regular intervals. The AC, at the end of each year, appraises the position of the approved transactions to ensure that all necessary requirements are being complied with.

➢ All RPTs which are not at arm's length and / or which are not in the ordinary course of business are presented to the Board for an appropriate decision.

All RPTs that were entered into during FY 2016-17 were on arm's length basis and were in the ordinary course of business. There were no materially significant RPTs by the Company with Promoters, Directors, KMP or Body Corporate(s), which had a potential conflict with the interest of the Company at large. Accordingly, the disclosure of RPTs as required under the provisions of Section 134(3)(h) of the Act in Form AOC-2 is not applicable. The Directors draw attention of the Members to Note No. 24.4 to the Financial Statements which sets out related party disclosures.

RISK MANAGEMENT FRAMEWORK

The Company and its subsidiaries have a risk management framework and Board members are informed about risk assessment and minimization procedures and periodical review to ensure management controls risk by means of a properly designed framework. The AC is kept apprised of the proceedings of the meetings of the Risk Management Committee and also apprised about the risk management framework at subsidiaries.

AUDITORS' REPORT

The Auditors' Report to the Members for the year under review does not contain any qualification. The Notes to the Accounts referred to in the Auditors' Report are self-explanatory and therefore do not call for any further clarifications under Section 134(3)(f) of the Act.

SECRETARIAL AUDIT

for the financial year ended March 31, 2017

[Pursuant to section 204(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 and rule No.9 of the Companies (Appointment and Remuneration of Managerial Personnel) Rules, 2014]

To,

The Members,

L&T FINANCE HOLDINGS LIMITED

I have conducted the secretarial audit of the compliance of applicable statutory provisions and the adherence to good corporate practices by L&T FINANCE HOLDINGS LIMITED (hereinafter called the Company). Secretarial Audit was conducted in a manner that provided me a reasonable basis for evaluating the corporate conducts/ statutory compliances and expressing my opinion thereon.

Based on my verification of the Company's books, papers, minute books, forms and returns filed and other records maintained by the Company and also the information provided by the Company, its officers, agents and authorized representatives during the conduct of secretarial audit, I hereby report that in my opinion, the Company has, during the audit period covering the financial year ended on March 31, 2017, complied with the statutory provisions listed hereunder and also that the Company has proper Board-processes and compliance-mechanism in place to the extent, in the manner and subject to the reporting made hereinafter:

I have examined the books, papers, minute books, forms and returns filed and other records maintained by the Company for the financial year ended on March 31, 2017, according to the provisions of:

(i) The Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') and the rules made thereunder;

(ii) The Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 ('SCRA') and the rules made thereunder;

(iii) The Depositories Act, 1996 and the Regulations and Bye-laws framed thereunder;

(iv) Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 and the rules and regulations made thereunder to the extent of Foreign Direct Investment, Overseas Direct Investment and External Commercial Borrowings;

(v) The following Regulations and Guidelines prescribed under the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 ('SEBI Act'), as applicable:-

a) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011;

b) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992; presently, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015;

c) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2009;

d) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Employee Stock Option Scheme and Employee Stock Purchase Scheme) Guidelines, 1999; presently, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Share Based Employee Benefits) Regulations, 2014;

e) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue and Listing of Debt Securities) Regulations, 2008;

f) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Registrars to an Issue and Share Transfer Agents) Regulations, 1993 regarding the Companies Act and dealing with client;

g) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Delisting of Equity Shares) Regulations, 2009; and

h) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Buyback of Securities) Regulations, 1998;

(vi) Other specific business/industry related laws that are applicable to the Company, viz. -

➢ NBFC – CIC – The Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 and all applicable Laws, Rules, Regulations, Guidelines, Circulars, Notifications, etc.

I have also examined compliance with the applicable clauses of the following:

i. Secretarial Standards issued by The Institute of Company Secretaries of India;

ii. The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and the Listing Agreements entered into by the Company with Stock Exchange(s), applicable as follows:

  a. Equity Shares listed on BSE Limited and National Stock Exchange of India Limited;

  b. The Cumulative Compulsorily Redeemable Non-Convertible Preference Shares (CCRPS) listed on BSE Limited.

During the period under review the Company has complied with the provisions of the Act, Rules, Regulations, Guidelines, Standards, etc. mentioned above.

I further report that the Board of Directors of the Company is duly constituted with proper balance of Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors, and Independent Directors. Effective March 21, 2017, the woman director on the Board of the Company has resigned and the process for selection of suitable candidate for the vacancy so created has been initiated by the Company. The changes in the composition of the Board of Directors or Committees thereof that took place during the period under review were carried out in compliance with the provisions of the Act.

Adequate notice is given to all directors to schedule the Board meetings, agenda and detailed notes on agenda were sent at least seven days in advance, and a system exists for seeking and obtaining further information and clarifications on the agenda items before the meeting and for meaningful participation at the meeting. Majority decision is carried through while the dissenting members' views are captured and recorded as part of the minutes.

I further report that, I was informed, there are adequate systems and processes in the Company commensurate with the size and operations of the Company to monitor and ensure compliance with applicable laws, rules, regulations and guidelines.

VIII. PENALTIES/PUNISHMENT/COMPOUNDING OF OFFENCES(Under Companies Act , 2013): NONE

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

[Pursuant to the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015]

A. L&T Finance Holdings Limited ("the Company") Philosophy on Corporate Governance

At L&T Financial Services ("LTFS"), we believe that corporate governance is a continuous journey towards sustainable value creation for all the stakeholders, which is driven by our values. Our Corporate Governance principles are a reflection of our culture, our policies, our relationship with stakeholders and our commitment to values. The Board of Directors ("Board") helps ensure that we have appropriate governance arrangement in place, both to support our operations and protect our Members' interest. As a good corporate citizen, the Company is committed to sound corporate practices based on conscience, openness, fairness, professionalism and accountability in building confidence of its various stakeholders in it thereby paving the way for its long term success.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India ("SEBI") had issued the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Listing Regulations") with an aim to consolidate and streamline the provisions of listing agreements for different segments of capital markets such as equity shares (including convertible instruments), non-convertible debt securities, etc. and disclosure norms in relation thereto. The Listing Regulations mandated by SEBI have been fully complied with. A Report on compliance with the Listing Regulations as prescribed by SEBI is given below:

B. Board of Directors

The members of the Board of the Company are eminent personalities from various fields and are entrusted with the responsibility of management, general affairs, direction and performance of the Company. The Board is responsible for and committed to sound principles of Corporate Governance in the Company.

1. Composition of Board:

The Company is in compliance with the provisions of Section 149 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") and Regulation 17 of the Listing Regulations. As on the date of this Report, the Board consists of nine Directors comprising five Independent Directors, one Executive Director, two Non-Executive Directors and one Nominee Director. The Woman Director on the Board of the Company resigned effective March 21, 2017 and the Company is taking steps to fill up the vacancy. Mr. Y. M. Deosthalee will retire from the Chairmanship and the Board effective May 31, 2017 and Mr. S. V. Haribhakti will take over as the Non-Executive Chairman from June 1, 2017. Commensurate with the size of the Company, complexity and nature of various underlying businesses, the composition of the Board represents an optimal mix of professionalism, knowledge and experience and enables the Board to discharge its responsibilities and provide effective leadership to the businesses carried on through its subsidiaries.

All the Independent Directors have confirmed to the Board that they meet the criteria for Independence in terms of the definition of 'Independent Director' stipulated under Regulation 16(1)(b) of the Listing Regulations and Section 149(6) of the Act. These confirmations have been placed before the Board. None of the Independent Directors hold office as an Independent Director in more than seven equity listed companies as stipulated under Regulation 25 of the Listing Regulations. Further, no Whole-time Director of the Company is serving as an Independent Director in any company. None of the Directors of the Company is inter-se related to each other.

Board Procedure:

The Board meets at regular intervals to discuss and decide on Company / business policy and strategy apart from other Board business. The Board meetings (including Committee meetings) of the Company as well as of its subsidiaries are scheduled in advance and a tentative annual calendar of the Board and Committee meetings is circulated to the Directors in advance to facilitate them to plan their schedule and to ensure meaningful participation in the meetings. However, in case of a special and urgent business need, the Board's approval is taken by passing resolution(s) by circulation, as permitted by law, which is noted in the subsequent Board meeting.

The business / department heads communicate with the Company Secretary in advance with regard to matters requiring the approval of the Board to enable inclusion of the same in the agenda for the Board meetings. The detailed agenda together with the relevant attachments is circulated amongst the Directors in advance. All major agenda items are backed by comprehensive background information to enable the Board to take informed decisions.

Where it is not practicable to circulate any document in advance or if the agenda is of a confidential nature, the same is tabled at the meeting. In special and exceptional circumstances, consideration of additional or supplementary items is taken up with the approval of the Chair and majority of Directors (including atleast one Independent Director). Senior Management Personnel are invited to the Board / Committee meeting(s) to provide additional inputs for the items being discussed by the Board / Committee(s) thereof as and when necessary. The Board members interact with the Chief Executive of the various operating subsidiary companies frequently at the Board meetings.

Further, presentations are made on business operations to the Board by the respective Chief Executives of various businesses of LTFS. Additionally, presentations are made on various matters including the financial statements, operations related issues, the regulatory environment or any other issue which the Board wants to be apprised of.

The Company Secretary is responsible for preparation of the agenda and convening of the Board and Committee meetings. The Company Secretary attends all the meetings of the Board and its Committees, advises / assures the Board on compliance and governance principles and ensures appropriate recording of minutes of the meetings.

With a view to leveraging technology and reducing paper consumption, the Company has adopted a web-based application for transmitting Board / Committee agenda and minutes. The Directors of the Company receive the agenda in electronic form through this application, which can be accessed only through i-Pad. The application meets the high standards of security and integrity that is required for storage and transmission of Board / Committee agenda in electronic form.

The draft minutes of the proceedings of the meetings of the Board / Committee(s) are circulated to all the members of the Board or the Committee for their perusal, within fifteen days from the date of the conclusion of the Meeting. Comments, if any, received from the Directors are incorporated in the minutes. The minutes are approved by the members of the Board / Committee(s) and confirmed.

2. Meeting of Independent Directors:

Section 149(8) of the Act read with Schedule IV of the Act requires the Independent Directors of the Company to hold at least one meeting in a year, without the attendance of non-independent directors and members of the management. The Independent Directors of the Company met on April 6, 2016 and October 25, 2016, pursuant to the provisions of the Act and the Listing Regulations.

Remuneration Policy:

The remuneration of the Board members is based on the Company's size, its economic and financial position, industrial trends and compensation paid by peer companies. The compensation reflects each Board member's responsibility and performance. The Directors on the Board who are in the services of Larsen & Toubro Limited / LTFS draw remuneration from Larsen & Toubro Limited / LTFS and are not paid any commission or sitting fees for attending the meetings of the Board and / any Committee of the Company.

While the Company pays remuneration to Executive Director(s) by way of salary, perquisites, retirement benefits (fixed components) and variable remuneration, the Non-Executive Directors ("NEDs") are paid remuneration by way of commission. The said remuneration is based on the recommendations of the NRC and approval of the Board, subject to the limits approved by the Members.

As required under Schedule V of the Listing Regulations, the criteria for payment to NEDs is available on the website of the Company at https://www.ltfs.com/investors.html. Further, the performance evaluation criteria for Independent Directors as required under Schedule V of Listing Regulations is contained in the Board's Report.

b) Remuneration to Non-Executive Directors

The Company follows a transparent process for determining the remuneration of NEDs. Their remuneration is governed by the role assumed, number of meetings of the Board and the Committees thereof attended by them, active participation in strategic decision making and inputs to executive management on matters of strategic importance. Besides these, the Board also takes into consideration the external competitive environment, track record, individual performance of such Directors and performance of the Company as well as the industry standards in determining the remuneration of NEDs including Independent Directors.

In the backdrop of growing complexities and increasing regulatory requirements, the NEDs have contributed significantly and given constructive and useful feedback from time to time. The commission in respect of NEDs for the year is mentioned below. The commission is paid as per limits approved by the Members, subject to the limit not exceeding 1% p.a. of the profits of the Company.

In addition to the commission, the Company pays sitting fees of ₹ 20,000 per meeting to the NEDs for attending the meetings of the Board and Committees.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

MACRO-ECONOMIC REVIEW

India, a large and the fastest growing economy, continues to be a bright spot in the global landscape. It has been underpinned by strong private consumption and gradual introduction of significant domestic reforms. In FY17, the economy has grown by 7.1% and the foreign exchange reserves have grown to US$ 370 billion. India's Current Account Deficit (CAD) narrowed to 0.7% of it's GDP in FY17, compared with 1.1% in FY16, on the back of a contraction in trade deficit. Foreign Direct Investment inflows touched a new high of US$ 60.1 billion.

The move of demonetising in November 2016, made with the objective to curb black money in circulation, weighed on growth during the second half of FY17. This reflected in relatively weaker growth in manufacturing and rural consumption as well as services sector PMIs (purchase managers indices) in H2, FY17. However, it is expected to have a positive long-term impact on the economy through better tax compliance, increase in Tax-to-GDP ratio and higher tax collections. Continued fiscal consolidation and an anti-inflationary monetary policy stance helped cement macro-economic stability.

OUTLOOK FOR FY18

Major leading indicators suggest that the economic activity is gradually improving. This is driven by improving global demand and a remonetisation-led pick-up in domestic activity. The International Monetary Fund (IMF) expects India to resume the 8% growth path in the medium term. This should happen as soon as the short-term dislocation to consumption from demonetisation passes. The nation is expected to remain the fastest growing economy on the back of high private consumption levels and gradually implemented domestic reforms.

Your Company sees growth picking up significantly, supported by a normal monsoon, modest costs of borrowing, pay hikes for state government employees and stronger export demand. Other growth supportive factors will be Government's continued thrust on physical infrastructure and the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 (RERA), which will pave way for greater transparency and accountability in the real estate sector. The Goods & Services Tax, (GST) implemented in July 2017, will also have long term structural benefits, despite short-term execution and adjustment risks during the course of FY18.

POSSIBLE THREATS

As we get into an environment which is likely to be largely positive over medium to long term, there may be significant roadblocks in the shorter term. The implementation of GST is likely to cause certain short term disturbances. RERA too will cause some turbulence and consolidation in the real estate sector. Despite recent push by the RBI, the resolution of stressed assets in the system is likely to take more time. Also the effect of various loan waivers on credit culture in the rural areas is still to be seen.

Your Company acknowledges these possible negative factors and has a plan to mitigate them through its deep domain knowledge, strong risk framework and an efficient collection mechanism.

RURAL FINANCE

The Company's strength in Rural Finance makes us one of the fastest growing NBFCs in this sector. Your Company is now a single brand under L&T Financial Services (LTFS) offering through multi channels, multiple financing products like Farm Equipment Finance, Two-Wheeler Finance and Microfinance.

Farm Equipment Finance

The tractor industry grew ~15% in FY17 after two continuous years of market contraction. The positive growth was on account of a normal monsoon cycle which has helped reinvigorate the demand in this sector. With monsoons expected to be normal, this industry is expected to grow at ~18-20% this year.

During the year, your Company gained market share, doubling its share of the pie of farm equipment financing to 9.4% in the second half of FY17, from 4.2% in the first half. However, the business witnessed a YoY contraction by 11% in disbursement, along with a book de-growth of 6%. This trend is expected to reverse in the current year which will help excellent growth in both disbursements and book.

Competitive Advantage

- Proven ability to last through the cycles
- Differentiated value proposition for top dealers
- Analytics driven business mix and channel management
- Technology led sourcing and credit decisioning for superior service proposition

Future Strategy

- Create a right portfolio mix across geographies, Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) and distributors

- Digitise the entire process and provide a differentiated value proposition to the Company partners
- Capture higher counter share at chosen dealers through differentiated value proposition

Two-Wheeler Finance

The two-wheeler industry posted a healthy YoY growth of 8%. The market in FY18 is expected to remain stable with a demand influenced by structural factors like a growing middle class segment and urbanisation.

Technology-led sourcing along with analytics driven channel segmentation enabled the Company to gain market share. The Company's domain expertise and in-depth knowledge in chosen geographies have laid the foundation of its strong business growth. A well-established network and tie-ups with OEMs enabled your Company to retain a strong market position. In FY17, the two-wheeler finance business witnessed a YoY growth of 10% in disbursement, along with a book growth of 20%.

Competitive Advantage

- Technology led sourcing and decisioning
- Analytics driven channel selection and differentiated value proposition for top dealers
- Market depth in chosen geographies

Future Strategy

- Enhance TAT proposition through mobility solutions and automated credit decisioning
- Further increase market penetration in our chosen geographies and develop new locations
- Increase market depth by exploring entry into self-financed segment

Microfinance

The microfinance industry has recorded a 26% YoY growth in FY17. However, there has been a trend of decrease in growth since demonetisation. We believe that the decrease is not entirely attributable to demonetisation as other external factors and vested interests also impacted performance in certain geographies. Industry looks to be cautious and a pause in growth can be expected in the short term.

During FY17, your Company launched mobility solutions, aimed towards improving the operational efficiencies and making the disbursement process simpler. This move enabled your Company to achieve the highest single-month disbursement of ~ ₹ 470 crs. in September, 2016. The Company continued its key initiatives of enhancing customer reach, building scalability, and managing risks effectively, attaining process excellence and cost excellence. Microfinance business witnessed a YoY growth of 39% in disbursement, along with a book growth of 59%.

The post demonetisation period was marked with increased delays in repayments in certain geographies. While the situation has improved significantly from March 2017 onwards, your Company expects stress in some areas to continue for some more time. In line with its conservative polices, your Company has made adequate loan loss provisions in FY17 and will look to continue to do so based on how the situation develops.

Competitive Advantage

- Robust risk management framework
- Best in Industry productivity through differentiated business model
- Proven ability to scale rapidly
- An efficient and technology enabled delivery channel

Future Strategy

- Transform Microfinance into a steady state retail business by moving further towards a technology and analytics-driven platform
- Expand into under penetrated new geographies to further enhance customer reach
- Further strengthen risk management framework, processes and systems

WHOLESALE FINANCE

Your Company is focussed on Infrastructure Project Financing (including Infra Debt Fund), Structured Corporate Finance, Debt Capital Market and Supply Chain Financing. The Company's strength lies in its strong underwriting ability, structuring and syndication capabilities.

Infrastructure Financing

Over the last year, the Government of India introduced several policy changes targeted at speeding up the infrastructure development in the country. The Renewable Energy sector reported a record capacity addition of over 11 gigawatts (GW) in FY17, an increase of around 60% over 7.1 GW reported in FY16. The outlook for the road sector has improved through improvements in dispute resolution framework, focus on EPC contracts and generating financial resources for future road construction.

The infrastructure book in its focus sectors of renewables, roads and transmission showed a healthy growth. The infrastructure lending platform saw its fee income doubling in FY17 through larger underwriting and advisory mandates. This was ably supported by the down-selling desk which doubled its down-sell quantum in this year. The Infrastructure Debt Fund (IDF) also increased its asset base to over ₹ 4,000 crs. Considering the stress in the overall infra sector, the Company proactively made accelerated provisions over and above the regulatory requirements in order to strengthen the balance sheet. Infrastructure Finance business witnessed a YoY growth of 21% in disbursement, along with a book growth of 19%. In FY17, your Company was awarded as the "Best Finance Company in Renewable Energy" at the annual "Central Board of Irrigation & Power Awards".

Competitive Advantage

- In depth sector knowledge, efficient transaction processing and management capabilities
- Superior advice to customers through all stages of the project life cycle
- Minimal turnaround time
- An operational IDF platform

Future Strategy

- Broaden the sectoral expertise and develop framework for new sectors
- Leverage successful PE interface in renewables for entry into new sectors
- Sharper focus on selection and structuring of project parameters

Structured Corporate Finance

In FY17, bank credit slowed down to a 60-year low of 5.1% on the back of lower credit demand and increased reliance on the bond market for debt requirement.

Despite the above trend, your Company's structured corporate finance expanded its asset base in FY17 with persistent focus on both growth and profitability. The growth trajectory has been backed by robust origination ability and detailed appraisal process. The structured corporate finance asset size showed a healthy 28% growth and doubling of disbursement numbers in FY17.

Competitive Advantage

- Robust origination ability and exhaustive appraisal process
- Expanded product suite with introduction of IPO funding in response to conducive market environment

Future Strategy

- Deliver steady state high spreads along with high fee income through superior structuring of financing solutions

Debt & Capital Market (DCM)

Your Company's DCM business invests in select infra project issuances and financial institutions. Additionally DCM entered structured finance segment in FY17.

The DCM desk doubled its disbursements, sell downs and profitability to demonstrate excellent investment and portfolio management philosophy.

Competitive Advantage

- Credit focussed approach to the business
- Large ticket size underwriting capability

Future Strategy

- Aim to take sole / anchor investor positions thereby positioning LTFS as a significant player

Supply Chain Finance

During FY17, your Company tied up with marquee names in the distribution business of information technology and mobility segment. The supply chain business showed consistent disbursements while increasing the profitability through increase in margins and opex control.

Supply Chain Finance business witnessed a YoY growth of 10% in disbursement, however, along with a book degrowth of 7%.

HOUSING FINANCE

Your Company has identified housing finance as one of its core business based on the long term growth prospects of this industry. The Company's products in this sector include Home loans, Loan Against Property and Real Estate Finance.

Home Loans & Loan Against Property (LAP)

The housing finance industry growth slowed to 16% in FY17 from 19% in FY16, with the overall housing credit at ₹14.4 lakh crs. in FY17 (₹12.4 lakh crs. in FY16). While this slowdown was across the industry, the decline was higher for banks because of operational constraints caused by demonetisation. The growth in the sector was also impacted by a slowdown in new project launches with buyers deferring their purchase decisions, with an expectation of a downward revision in prices.

At beginning of FY17, your Company realigned its focus towards disbursing loans to self-employed customers. Despite challenging market situations, your Company's Home Loan and LAP book grew by 21% during the year, touching a new milestone of ₹ 7,500 crs.

Competitive Advantage

- Sharpened proposition to strengthen the product offering to self-employed customers
- Streamlined processes to deliver faster sanctions and disbursement TAT to the customer

Future Strategy

- Achieve best in class TAT through digitisation and automation
- Use of analytics for direct sourcing and cross selling
- Drive operational efficiency through focus on key locations and manpower productivity

Real Estate Finance

Real Estate is transitioning towards a more regulated industry with the introduction of Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 (RERA). Demonetisation also had a temporary negative impact on the sector. Demand in residential, primarily on account of affordable housing segment, is expected to see a revival after a slowdown over the past 2-3 years. In the commercial office segment, major metros have seen strong demand for Grade A office space leading to a higher occupancy and robust rental growth. At the start of FY17, a Real Estate Finance vertical was created to cater to various funding requirements of developers in both residential and commercial spaces. Our objective behind creating this vertical was to establish the LTFS Real Estate business as a key player in the development finance market. Real Estate Finance business achieved loan disbursements of ₹3,841 crs. and a Loan Book of ₹ 4,865 crs.

Competitive Advantage

- Comprehensive product suite to address top developers' funding requirements
- Robust risk management and early warning signal mechanism
- Strong processes to deliver faster TAT

Future Strategy

- Focus on top real estate developers with the aim to build sustainable relationships
- Build a wider product portfolio and focus on Syndication/Sell down for risk distribution
- Leverage L&T ecosystem for business growth and market intelligence

MUTUAL FUNDS

India's mutual fund industry witnessed a 35% growth during the quarter-ended March 2017, taking the Average Assets Under Management (AAUM) to ₹ 1,829,583 crs., as compared to ₹ 1,353,443 crs. AAUM recorded during the quarter-ended March 2016.

During FY17, the Mutual Fund business continued its previous year's growth momentum. With YoY growth of 39%, the business outperformed the industry growth rate, while maintaining a healthy mix of core assets under equities and fixed income. A strong investment performance, supported by strong inflows into the core products could be expected in FY18.

Competitive Advantage

- Robust performance of the Fund's equity schemes
- Diversified and ever-expanding reach across distribution channels

Future Strategy

- Focus on building core assets to achieve the dual purpose of achieving higher profitability while ensuring stability in overall AUM
- Increase SIP book to ensure steady flows
- Presence in key counters to gain a higher share of assets, thereby widening Company's reach

WEALTH MANAGEMENT

With a Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth hovering over 7-8% and a strong future outlook, India's growth story is making it an increasingly attractive market for wealth management firms. The regulatory environment, too, is evolving, presenting opportunities for established wealth managers to expand their offerings.

FY17 was a turnaround year for the business – from a loss of ₹ 24 crs. in FY16 to a profit of ₹ 5 crs. in FY17. The Average Assets Under Service (AAUS) grew by almost 46% during the year with the Q4-FY17 AAUS being more than ₹ 13,000 crs. Your Company's revenue witnessed a rise of 71% during the year, for FY17 being at ₹ 50 crs.

Competitive Advantage

- Comprehensive services suite including Loan against Shares, Mutual Funds, Real Estate Finance complements the Company's key offerings for High Networth Individuals (HNIs)

- Offerings like Debt Capital Markets significantly strengthen the customer value proposition
- A strong track record of AUS and revenue growth ranks us high amongst the key market players
- Strong partnerships established since inception have enabled Company to service the differing needs of clients across segments, asset classes and markets

Future Strategy

- Focus on Investment advisory and Family office to form new meaningful relationships
- Deepen existing relationships with clients to attain a higher wallet share
- Acquisition of new clients will continue to remain a key area of focus for the business
- Increase sales strength

HUMAN RESOURCES

Your Company has embarked upon the "Transform" journey to LTFH 2.0 with a sharp "Focus" on creating superior shareholder value by "Delivering" top quartile Return on Equity (RoE).

The role of Human Resources has significantly transformed since 2016, from being a function which used to manage the human resources of the Company to being the prime driver of the change in culture required for the successful transformation of the Company. All the initiatives in this area have been designed for transforming the old LTFH into LTFH 2.0.

Your Company firmly believes that any transformation journey needs to be sustainable. While the strategy we have embarked upon for delivering a top quartile RoE is a 4-year strategy, superior value generation for the shareholders will come only if the new way of 'Results not Reasons' becomes a way of life.

As on 31st March 2017, your Company had a total workforce of 10,943 employees across all subsidiaries.

Your Company believes that this journey will become sustainable if we get three aspects right:

- Clarity and Communication of Management Intent
- A well-honed Execution Engine
- A performance oriented Culture

The Company's endeavour is to ensure that its HR processes are completely aligned with the above three aspects and they work towards creating leadership which makes the transformation smooth and sustainable.

Clarity and Communication of Management Intent

The intent of the management is quite clear – to deliver top quartile RoE by profitable growth in the Company's focussed businesses. We take all efforts to make sure that this is communicated clearly across all levels of the organisation. This is done through a series of town halls which are a two-way communication platform between the organisation and employees to share a 360-degree update on the Company's mission of superior shareholder value creation. Also, very clear communication of expected performance and behaviours is ensured. These town halls are organised every quarter end, across cities, departments, functions and grades.

A Well-honed Execution Engine

Your Company's chosen method of ensuring efficient execution is through a series of projects touching each aspect of strategy execution. These projects are towards creating Centres of Excellence in various aspects of the business. We have developed our own unique way of not only ensuring that these contribute to delivering results in line with the decided milestones, but also ensuring that these are used for effective Leadership Development. Each of these projects is headed by a hand-picked middle level executive. This develops the leadership qualities of the person as it requires working with multi-functional teams and also exposes the person to close senior management reviews.

Culture

A culture of 'ownership' and 'Results not Reasons' is the hallmark of LTFH 2.0. In fact, the endeavour of our HR interventions for creating this culture, is to use Culture as a Competitive Advantage. This is done through a right mix of 'Execution Design and Method' and 'Employee Value Proposition'.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The transformation journey embarked by the Company involves rapid growth in our chosen businesses. Having embarked on this transformational journey, the Company recognises the criticality of risk management practices towards a longer term success. We have a robust management framework covering various families of risk like credit risk, portfolio risk, market risk and operational risk.

During FY17, your Company engaged a leading global risk management consultancy to further strengthen its risk management framework. Based on their recommendations, your Company is strengthening its capabilities in the four key areas to ensure that the businesses operate fearlessly within the defined risk appetite and risk tolerance levels.

1. Risk Appetite Statement (RAS)

A robust RAS is set up that acts as a governing framework from board to front line to facilitate trade-offs between risk, value and growth. It helps in effective risk and return management while providing greater clarity and autonomy to businesses.

2. Risk Dashboards & Early Warning Signals (EWS)

Dashboards should provide cross-risk view and are anchored to the Company's Risk Appetite Statement. It leverages risk measurement and analytics to further enhance early warning capabilities and to use those in driving decisions. EWS helps in timely identification of portfolios with increasing risk, enabling timely remedial measures (where applicable) and eventually driving lower NPAs.

3. Treasury Risk Management

This gives the ability to effectively manage the Market Risk (liquidity and interest rate risks) emanating from the core businesses of the Company. A robust governance framework is set up to monitor and manage the Market Risk Operations.

4. Risk-adjusted Pricing

This tool helps in tracking transaction level and portfolio level actual pricing vis-à-vis risk-adjusted pricing. Thus giving more clarity on value creation by products/ portfolios. The pricing tool incorporates weighted average tenor, based on behavioural maturity in order to align with expected cash-flows.

DIGITISATION & ANALYTICS

In line with the theme of "Grow Fearlessly", your Company's Digital & Data Analytics roadmap encompasses achieving multi-fold increase in "Scale", "Cost Effectiveness" and "Customer Experience". In order to enable it for achieving the same, your Company has decided on the following design principles: Biometric based data capturing, Paperless On-boarding, Transact with us on any day in the year.

We have relooked at the existing architecture, to revamp it completely to achieve the digital aspiration that it thrives to achieve. The end state architecture will be modular and agile, enabling your Company to keep pace with changing technology. A strong digital and data analytics roadmap touching every aspect of the customer journey will not only improve the customer experience but also substantially enhance efficiency and productivity.

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) witnessed a transformation during FY17. The Company's over-arching theme of sustainable Livelihoods was revisited to align to the larger needs of the rural ecosystem - through Integrated Water Resource Management (IWRM). LTFS committed itself to come up with long-term innovative solutions benefitting the water-deprived communities. The IWRM programme engaged with communities to implement interventions in order to address their core needs in water and facilitate the rural economy through agriculture and allied activities.

In addition to this, your Company also focussed on Financial Literacy. It helped in spreading the message of financial literacy to rural India, resulting in enhanced absorption of facilities and schemes granted by the Government and other financial institutions.

Thrust areas were re-modelled to rake in the 3S approach which believes in:

- Social Impact through right projects aligned with Company's focussed businesses
- Sustainable development creating right structures
- Achieve scale by collaborating with right partners

Highlights

- Constructing water harvesting structures, known as Dohas
- Creating disaster relief shelters, towards the Tamil Nadu floods
- Nurturing 100 Integrated livelihood development centres in villages
- Initiating remedial education programmes
- Garnering volunteers from the organisation (Boondein) to contribute towards CSR initiatives

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of L&T Finance Holdings Limited

Report on the Standalone Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying standalone financial statements of L&T FINANCE HOLDINGS LIMITED ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2017, the Statement of Profit and Loss and the Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these standalone financial statements based on our audit.

In conducting our audit, we have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit of the standalone financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the standalone financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the standalone financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us and the audit evidence obtained by the branch auditors and other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2017, and its profit and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

ANNEXURE 'A' TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

(Referred to in paragraph 1(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of L&T FINANCE HOLDINGS LIMITED ("the Company") as of March 31, 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

NOTES FORMING PART OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - MARCH 31, 2017

Note - 1 Significant accounting policies

1.1 Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India ('Indian GAAP'), to comply with the Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 and along with the applicable guidelines issued by Reserve Bank of India ("RBI") for Core Investment Companies (CIC) and Non Banking Finance Company (NBFC) as applicable.The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis and under the historical cost convention. The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are consistent with those followed in the previous year.

1.2 Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Indian GAAP requires the Management to make estimates and assumptions considered in the reported amounts of assets and liabilities (including contingent liabilities) as of the date of the financial statements and the reported income and expenses during the reporting year. The management believes that the estimates used in preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Future results could differ due to these estimates and the differences between the actual results and the estimates are recognized in the period in which the results are known/materialize.

1.3 Tangible and Intangible fixed assets

Fixed assets are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation/amortisation and impairment losses, if any. The cost of fixed assets comprises its purchase price net of any trade discounts and rebates, any import duties and other taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from the tax authorities), any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use, other incidental expenses and interest on borrowings attributable to acquisition of qualifying fixed assets up to the date the asset is ready for its intended use.

Fixed assets acquired in full or part exchange for another asset are recorded at the fair market value or the net book value of the asset given up, adjusted for any balancing cash consideration. Fair market value is determined either for the assets acquired or asset given up, whichever is more clearly evident. Fixed assets acquired in exchange for securities of the Company are recorded at the fair market value of the assets or the fair market value of the securities issued, whichever is more clearly evident.

Capital Work in Progress: Projects under which tangible Fixed assets are not yet ready for their intended use are carried at cost, comprising direct cost, related incidental expenses and attributable interest.

Intangible assets not ready for the intended use on the date of Balance Sheet are disclosed as "Intangible assets under development".

1.4 Revenue recognition

- Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured and there exists reasonable certainty of its recovery.
- Interest income on deposits and debentures is recognised on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.
- Profit/loss on sale of investments is recognised at the time of actual sale/redemption.
- Dividend income is recognized when the Company's right to receive dividend is established by the reporting date.

1.5 Depreciation/Amortisation

Depreciation/Amortization on fixed assets is calculated on a straight-line which reflect the management's estimate of the useful lives of respective fixed assets and are lesser than or equal to the useful life of the assets as prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013.

- Fixed assets costing ₹ 5,000/- or less are fully depreciated in the year of installation.
- Depreciation is charged for the full month in the month of purchase/sale even used for part of the month.

1.6 Investments

The Company being regulated as a Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC) by the RBI, investments

are classified under two categories i.e. Current and Long Term and are valued in accordance with the RBI guidelines and the Accounting Standard (AS) 13 on 'Accounting for Investments'.

'Long Term Investments' are carried at acquisition / amortised cost. A provision is made for diminution, other than temporary.

Current investments are valued scrip-wise and depreciation / appreciation is aggregated for each category. Net appreciation in each category, if any, is ignored, while net depreciation is provided for. Long-term investments are carried at cost. However, provision for diminution in value is made to recognize a decline other than temporary in the value of the investments.

1.7 Leases

Where the Company is lessee

Lease arrangements where the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset substantially vest with the lessor are recognised as operating leases. Lease rentals under operating leases are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

1.8 Retirement and other employee benefits

Short term employee benefits:

All employee benefits falling due wholly within twelve months of rendering the services are classified as short-term employee benefits. Benefits such as salaries, short term compensated absences etc. and estimatedvariable remuneration are recognized in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

Post employmentbenefits:

(a) Defined contribution plans:

The Company's provident fund, pension and superannuation scheme are defined contribution plans. The contribution paid/ payable under the scheme is recognized during the year in which the employee renders the related services.

(b) Defined benefit plan

The Company's gratuity scheme is defined benefit plan.The employee gratuity obligation is determined based on actuarial valuation using Projected Unit Credit method which recognizes each year of service as giving rise to additional unit of employee benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows. The discount rate used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plans, is based on the market yield on government securities of a maturity period equivalent to the weighted average maturity profile of the related obligations at the balance sheet date.

Actuarial gains and losses are recognised immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

1.9 Income taxes

Current tax is determined as the amount of tax payable in respect of taxable income for the year as determined in accordance with the provision of Income Tax Act, 1961.

Deferred tax is recognised on timing differences, between taxable income and accounting income that originated in one period and is capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax assets are recognised with regard to all deductible timing differences to the extent it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which deductible timing differences can be utilised. When the Company carries forward unused tax losses and unabsorbed depreciation, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent there is virtual certainty backed by convincing evidence that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which deferred tax assets can be realised. The carrying amounts of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced by the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or a part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) credit is recognised as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal Income Tax during the specified period. In the year in which the MAT credit becomes eligible to be recognised as an asset in accordance with the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI, the said assets is created by way of a credit to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

1.10 Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent assets are not recognised.

1.11 Employee stock option schemes

In respect of stock options granted pursuant to the Company's Stock Options Scheme, the intrinsic value of the options (excess of the market price of the share over the exercise price of the option) is treated as discount and accounted as employee compensation cost over the vesting period.

1.12 Share and Debenture issue expense

Expenses incurred on issue of share/debenture are charged-off against the securities premium account in accordance with the provisions of section 52 of the Companies Act, 2013.

1.13 Cash flow statements

The Cash Flow Statement is prepared in accordance with indirect method as explained in the Accounting Standard on Cash Flow Statements (AS) 3 prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013.

1.14 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and Bank Balances that have insignificant risk of change in value including term deposits, which have original durations up to three months, are included in cash and cash equivalents in the Cash Flow Statement.

1.15 Earnings per share

Basic and diluted earnings per share are computed in accordance with Accounting Standard-20

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss after tax for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per equity share are computed using the weighted average number of equity shares and dilutive potential equity shares outstanding during the year, except where the results are anti-dilutive.

1.16 Impairment of Assets

Tangible fixed assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of the asset's net selling price or its value in use.

1.17 Commitments

Commitments are future liabilities for contracted expenditure. Commitments are classified and disclosed as follows:-

a. Estimated amount of contracts remaining to be executed on capital account are not provided for.

b. Other non cancellable commitmentsif any to the extent they are considered material and relevant in the opinion of the management.

1.18 Extraordinary and exceptional items

Income or expenses that arise from events or transactions that are clearly distinct from the ordinary activities of the Company are classified as extraordinary items. Specific disclosure of such events/transactions is made in the financial statements. Similarly, anyexternal event beyond the control of the Company, significantly impacting income or expense, is also treated as extraordinary itemand disclosed as such.

On certain occasions, the size, type or incidence of an item of income or expense, pertaining to the ordinary activities of the Company, is such that its disclosure improves an understanding of the performance of the Company. Such income or expense is classified as an exceptional item and accordingly disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of L&T Finance Holdings Limited

Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of L&T FINANCE HOLDINGS LIMITED (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company") and its subsidiaries (the Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as "the Group") and its associate, comprising of the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2017, the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss, the Consolidated Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the consolidated financial statements").

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of these consolidated financial statements in terms of the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance and consolidated cash flows of the Group including its Associate in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act. The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associate are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and its associate and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; the selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. In conducting our audit, we have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Holding Company's preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Holding Company's Board of Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of the Other Matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, and based on the consideration of reports of other auditors on separate financial statements of the subsidiaries and associate referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the consolidated state of affairs of the Group and its associate as at 31st March, 2017, and their consolidated profit and their consolidated cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Other Matters

(a) We did not audit the financial statements of 8 subsidiaries whose financial statements/ financial information reflect total assets of ₹ 111,513.12 lakh as at March 31, 2017, total revenues of ₹ 45,176.86 lakh and net cash inflows amounting to ₹ 3,113.61 lakh for the year ended on that date, as considered in the consolidated financial statements. The consolidated financial statements also include the Group's share of net profit of ₹ 574.64 lakh for the year ended March 31, 2017, as considered in the consolidated financial statements, in respect of an associate, whose financial statements have not been audited by us. These financial statements have been audited by other auditors whose reports have been furnished to us by the Management and our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, in so far as it relates to the amounts and disclosures included in respect of these subsidiaries and associate, and our report in terms of subsection (3) of Section 143 of the Act, in so far as it relates to the aforesaid subsidiaries and associate is based solely on the reports of the other auditors.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, and our report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements below is not modified in respect of the above matters with respect to our reliance on the work done and the reports of the other auditors.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

As required by Section 143(3) of the Act, based on our audit and on the consideration of the report of the other auditors on separate financial statements of the subsidiaries and associate referred in the Other Matters paragraph above we report, to the extent applicable, that:

(a) We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit of the aforesaid consolidated financial statements.

(b) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law relating to preparation of the aforesaid consolidated financial statements have been kept so far as it appears from our examination of those books and the reports of the other auditors.

(c) The Consolidated Balance Sheet, the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss and the Consolidated Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the relevant books of account maintained for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements.

(d) In our opinion, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements comply with the Accounting Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act.

(e) On the basis of the written representations received from the directors of the Holding Company as on March 31, 2017 taken on record by the Board of Directors of the Holding Company and the reports of the statutory auditors of its subsidiary companies and associate company, none of the directors of the Group companies and its associate company is disqualified as on March 31, 2017 from being appointed as a director in terms of Section 164 (2) of the Act.

(f) With respect to the adequacy of the internal financial controls over financial reporting and the operating effectiveness of such controls, refer to our separate Report in "Annexure A", which is based on the auditors' reports of the Holding company, subsidiary companies and associate company. Our report expresses an unmodified opinion on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the Holding company's, subsidiary company's and associate company's internal financial controls over financial reporting.

(g) With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditor's) Rules, 2014, as amended, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us:

i. The consolidated financial statements disclose the impact of pending litigations on the consolidated financial position of the Group and its associate.

ii. The Group and its associate did not have any material foreseeable losses on long-term contracts including derivative contracts.

iii. There were no amounts which were required to be transferred to the Investor Education and Protection Fund by the Holding Company, and its subsidiary companies and associate company.

iv. To the best of our information and according to the information and explanations given to us, we report that, except where, for reasons explained in note no. 31.17 to the consolidated financial statements, the disclosures by certain subsidiaries of the Group with regard to the Specified Bank Notes ("SBNs") were restricted to readily available information and also considering that certain amounts directly deposited into the bank accounts of those entities by their customers for which information relating to SBNs was not available with those entities were classified as "Permitted receipts/ Other Denomination Notes", the Parent Company has provided requisite disclosures in the consolidated financial statements as regards the Group entities' holding and dealings in SBNs , as defined in the Notification S.O. 3407(E) dated 8th November, 2016, of the Ministry of Finance, during the period from November 9, 2016 to December 30, 2016. Based on audit procedures performed by us and the representations provided to us by the management, we report that the disclosures are in accordance with the relevant books of accounts maintained by those entities for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements, which, as the case may be, were produced before us and the other auditors by the managements of the respective Group entities.

ANNEXURE 'A' TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

(Referred to in paragraph 1(f)under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended March 31, 2017, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of L&T FINANCE HOLDINGS LIMITED (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company") and its subsidiary companies and its associate company as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding company, its subsidiary companies and its associate company, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective Companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Holding Company, its subsidiary companies and its associate company based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the Standards on Auditing, prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by other auditors of the subsidiary companies and associate company, in terms of their reports referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls system over financial reporting of the Holding Company, its subsidiary company and its associate company.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of the reports of other auditors referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, the Holding Company, its subsidiary companies and its associate company, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Other Matters

Our aforesaid report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting insofar as it relates to 8 subsidiary companies and an associate company is based solely on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such companies incorporated in India.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of the above matters.

NOTES FORMING PART OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - MARCH 31, 2017

1. Significant accounting policies.

1.1 Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India ('Indian GAAP'), to comply with the Accounting Standards prescribed under Accounting Standards under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 and along with the applicable guidelines issued by Reserve Bank of India ("RBI") for Core Investment Companies (CIC) and Non Banking Finance Company (NBFC) as applicable. The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis and under the historical cost convention. The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are consistent with those followed in the previous year.

1.2 Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Indian GAAP requires the Management to make estimates and assumptions considered in the reported amounts of assets and liabilities (including contingent liabilities) as of the date of the financial statements and the reported income and expenses during the reporting year. The management believes that the estimates used in preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Future results could differ due to these estimates and the differences between the actual results and the estimates are recognized in the period in which the results are known/materialize.

1.3 Revenue Recognition

(a) Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured and there exists reasonable certainty of its recovery.

(b) Interest from interest-bearing assets is recognised on an accrual basis over the life of the asset. Interest and other dues in the case of non-performing loans is recognised upon realisation, as per the income recognition and asset classification norms prescribed by the RBI.

(c) Revenues from the various services that the Company renders are recognised when the following criteria are met: persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the services have been rendered, the fee or commission is fixed or determinable, and collectability is reasonably assured.

(d) Dividend is accounted when the right to its receipt is established.

(e) Guarantee fees is recognised on pro-rata basis over the period of the guarantee.

(f) Investment management fees are recognised on an accrual basis in accordance with the Investment Management Agreement and SEBI Regulations, based on average Assets Under Management ("AUM") of L&T Mutual Fund schemes over the period of the agreement in terms of which services are performed.

(g) Portfolio management fees are recognised on an accrual basis in accordance with Portfolio Management Agreement entered into with respective clients over the period of the agreement in terms of which the services are rendered.

1.4 Tangible and Intangible Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation/amortisation and impairment losses, if any. The cost of fixed assets comprises its purchase price net of any trade discounts and rebates, any import duties and other taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from the tax authorities), any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use, other incidental expenses and interest on borrowings attributable to acquisition of qualifying fixed assets up to the date the asset is ready for its intended use.

Fixed assets acquired in full or part exchange for another asset are recorded at the fair market value or the net book value of the asset given up, adjusted for any balancing cash consideration. Fair market value is determined either for the assets acquired or asset given up, whichever is more clearly evident. Fixed assets acquired in exchange for securities of the Company are recorded at the fair market value of the assets or the fair market value of the securities issued, whichever is more clearly evident.

Capital Work in Progress: Projects under which tangible Fixed assets are not yet ready for their intended use are carried at cost, comprising direct cost, related incidental expenses and attributable interest.

Intangible assets not ready for the intended use on the date of Balance Sheet are disclosed as " Intangible assets under development".

1.5 Depreciation and amortisationon Fixed Assets

- Depreciation/amortisation on fixed assets is calculated on a straight-line which reflect the management's estimate of the useful lives of respective fixed assets and are lesser than or equal to the useful life as prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013.
- Leasehold improvements is amortized over the period of lease term.
- Fixed assets costing ₹ 5,000/- or less are fully depreciated in the year of purchase.
- Depreciation is charged for the full month in the month of purchase/sale even used for part of the month.

1.6 Investments

Investments, which are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than one year from the date on which such investments are made, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments.

Current investments are valued scrip-wise and depreciation / appreciation is aggregated for each category. Net appreciation in each category, if any, is ignored, while net depreciation is provided for. Long-term investments are carried at cost. However, provision for diminution in value is made to recognize a decline other than temporary in the value of the investments.

Investments have been accounted as per Accounting Standard (AS) 13 on "Accounting for Investments".

1.7 Advances

Advances are classified under four categories i.e. (i) Standard Assets, (ii) Sub-standard Assets, (iii) Doubtful Assets and (iv) Loss Assets in accordance with the RBI Guidelines.

In respect of Loans and Debentures / Bonds in the nature of an advance, where interest is not serviced, provision for diminution is made as per the parameter applicable to Non-Performing Advances.

Provision on restructured advances / corporate debt restructure advances is made at in accordance with the guidelines issued by the RBI.

Provision on Standard Assets is made as per the provisioning policy of the Company subject to minimum as stipulated in RBI Guidelines or where additional specific risks are identified by the management, based on such identification.

1.8 Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs include interest, amortisation of ancillary costs incurred and exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent they are regarded as an adjustment to the interest cost. Interest cost in connection with the borrowing of funds to the extent not directly related to the acquisition of qualifying assets are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss over the tenure of the loan.

1.9 Leases

Where the company is lessee

Finance leases, which effectively transfer to the company substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalized at the inception of the lease term at the lower of the fair value of the leased property and present value of minimum lease payments.

Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are recognized as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

Operating leases, where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased item, are classified as operating leases.

Where the company is lessor

Leases in which the company transfers substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the asset are classified as finance leases. Assets given under finance lease are recognized as a receivable at an amount equal to the net investment in the lease. After initial recognition, the company apportions lease rentals between the principal repayment and interest income so as to achieve a constant periodic rate of return on the net investment outstanding in respect of the finance lease. The interest income is recognized in the statement of profit and loss. Initial direct costs such as legal costs, brokerage costs, etc. are recognized immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

Leases in which the company does not transfer substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Assets subject to operating leases are included in fixed assets. Lease income on an operating lease is recognized in the statement of profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Costs, including depreciation, are recognized as an expense in the statement of profit and loss. Initial direct costs such as legal costs, brokerage costs, etc. are recognized immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

1.10 Retirement and Other Employee Benefits

- Short Term Employee Benefits:

All employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering the services are classified as short-term employee benefits. Benefits such as salaries, short term compensated absences etc. and expected cost of bonus/variable pay are recognized in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

- Post-Employment Benefits:

(a) Defined Contribution Plans:

The Company's superannuation scheme, state governed provident fund scheme are defined contribution plans. The contribution paid/ payable under the scheme is recognized during the period in which the employee renders the related services.

(b) Defined Benefit Plans:

The employee's gratuity fund scheme and provident fund scheme managed by trust are the company's defined benefit plans. Wherever applicable the present value of the obligation under such defined benefit plans is determined based on actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method, which recognizes each period of services as giving rise to additional unit of employee benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plans, is based on the market yields on Government securities of a maturity period equivalent to the weighted average maturity profile of the related obligation at the balance sheet date.

Actuarial gains and losses are recognized immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

In case of funded plans, the fair value of the plan assets is reduced from the gross obligation under the defined benefit plans, to recognize the obligation on net basis.

Gains or losses on the curtailment or settlement of any defined benefit plan are recognized when the curtailment or settlement occurs. Past service cost is recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested.

- Long Term Employee Benefits:

The obligation for long term employee benefits such as long term compensated absences is recognised as defined benefits plan.

1.11 Earnings Per Share

Basic and diluted earnings per share are computed in accordance with Accounting Standard-20 – Earnings Per Share. Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss after tax for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per equity share are computed using the weighted average number of equity shares and dilutive potential equity shares outstanding during the year, except where the results are anti-dilutive.

1.12 Foreign Currency Transactions, Forward Contracts and Derivatives

Foreign currency transactions are accounted at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of each transaction. Foreign currency monetary items outstanding as at the Balance Sheet date are reported using the closing rate. Gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the statement of Profit and Loss.

The Company has exercised the option granted under notification F.No.17/33/2008/CL-V dated

March 31, 2009, issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs and subsequent Notification No G.S.R.913(E) (F.No. 17/133/2008-CL.V) dated December 29, 2011 and is accordingly, amortising the foreign currency translation differences on long term foreign currency monetary items over the shorter of their maturity period and the balance period upto March 31, 2020. The unamortised balance as at the period end is presented as “Foreign Currency Monetary Item Translation Difference Account” on the assets side of the Balance Sheet.

Premium in respect of forward contracts is charged to statement of Profit and Loss over the period of the contract. Forward contracts outstanding as at the Balance Sheet date are revalued at the closing rate.

Currency interest rate swaps

Currency interest rate swaps in the nature of hedge, booked with the objective of managing the currency and interest rate risk on foreign currency liabilities are recorded on accrual basis and these transactions are not marked to market. The foreign currency balances on account of principal of currency interest rate swaps outstanding as at the Balance Sheet date are revalued using the closing rate.

Cross currency Interest rate swaps in the nature of hedge, taken to manage currency risk as well as interest rate risk on foreign currency liabilities, whereby variable interest rate in foreign currency is swapped for fixed interest rate in Indian rupees or vice-versa. Such Interest rate swaps are marked to market at each reporting date and resultant gain or loss is recognised in Statement of profit and loss.

1.13 Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements relate to L&T Finance Holdings Limited (‘the Company’) and its subsidiary companies. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the following basis:

a) The financial statements of the Company and its subsidiary companies are combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together the book values of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses, after fully eliminating intra-group balances and intra-group transactions in accordance with Accounting Standard (AS) 21 - “Consolidated Financial Statements”

b) The difference between the cost of investment in the subsidiaries, over the net assets at the time of acquisition of shares in the subsidiaries is recognised in the financial statements as Goodwill or Capital Reserve as the case may be.

c) The difference between the proceeds from disposal of investment in subsidiaries and the carrying amount of its assets less liabilities as of the date of disposal is recognised in the consolidated statement of profit and loss being the profit or loss on disposal of investment in subsidiary.

d) Investment in associate companies has been accounted under the equity method as per Accounting Standard (AS) 23“Accounting for Investments in Associates in Consolidated Financial Statements”.

e) The Company accounts for its share in change in net assets of the associates, post-acquisition, after eliminating unrealised profits and losses resulting from transactions between the Company and its associates to the extent of its share, through its statement of profit and loss account to the extent such change is attributable to the associates’ Profit and Loss account and through its reserves for the balance, based on available information.

f) The difference between the cost of investment in the associates and the share of net assets at the time of acquisition of shares in the associates is identified in the financial statements as Goodwill or Capital Reserve as the case may be.

g) As far as possible, the consolidated financial statements are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances and are presented in the same manner as the Company’s separate financial statements.

1.14 Income Taxes

Current tax is determined as the amount of tax payable in respect of taxable income for the year as determined in accordance with the provision of Income Tax Act, 1961.

Deferred tax is recognised on timing differences, between taxable income and accounting income that originated in one period and is capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax assets are recognised with regard to all deductible timing differences to the extent it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which deductible timing differences can be utilised. When the Company carries forward unused tax losses and unabsorbed depreciation, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent there is virtual certainty backed by convincing evidence that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which deferred tax assets can be realised. The carrying amounts of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced by the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or a part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) credit is recognised as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal Income Tax during the specified period. In the year in which the MAT credit becomes eligible to be recognised as an asset in accordance with the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI, the said assets is created by way of a credit to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

1.15 Impairment of Assets

Tangible fixed assets and intangible assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of the asset's net selling price or its value in use.

1.16 Provisions and Contingent Liabilitiesand Contingent Assets

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent assets are not recognised.

1.17 Employee Stock Compensation Cost

The Employees Stock Option Scheme (the Scheme) provides for grant of equity shares of L&T Finance Holdings Limited (the holding company) to employees of the subsidiaries. The scheme provides that employees are granted an option to subscribe to equity share of the holding company that vest in a graded manner. The options may be exercised with in specified period. The holding company follows the intrinsic value method to account for its stock based employee compensation plans. The expense or credit recognized in the statement of profit and loss for a period represents the movement in cumulative expense recognized as at the beginning and end of that period.

1.18 Cash Flow Statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit / (loss) before extraordinary items and tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on the available information.

1.19 Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash comprises cash on hand and demand deposits with banks. Cash equivalents are short-term balances (with an original maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition), highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

1.20 Share and Debenture issue expense

Expenses incurred on issue of share/debenture are charged-off against the securities premium account in accordance with the provisions of section 52 of the Companies Act, 2013.

1.21 Extraordinary and exceptional items

Income or expenses that arise from events or transactions that are clearly distinct from the ordinary activities of the Company are classified as extraordinary items. Specific disclosure of such events/transactions is made in the financial statements. Similarly, any external event beyond the control of the Company, significantly impacting income or expense, is also treated as extraordinary item and disclosed as such.

On certain occasions, the size, type or incidence of an item of income or expense, pertaining to the ordinary activities of the Company, is such that its disclosure improves an understanding of the performance of the Company. Such income or expense is classified as an exceptional item and accordingly disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

a) General description of defined benefit plans:

1. Gratuity Plan:

The Company operates gratuity plan through a trust wherein every employee is entitled to the benefit equivalent to fifteen days salary last drawn for each completed year of service. The same is payable on termination of service, or retirement, whichever is earlier. The benefit vests after five years of continuous service. The Company's scheme is more favorable compared to the obligation under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972.

2. Provident Fund Plan:

One of the subsidiaries manages Provident Fund Plan through a Provident Fund Trust for its employees which is permitted under the Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952. The Plan envisages contributions by employer and employees and guarantees interest at the rate notified by the Provident Fund Authority. The contribution by employer and employee together with interest are payable at the time of separation from service or retirement whichever is earlier. The benefit under this plan vests immediately on rendering of service.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the shareholders
Larsen & Toubro Hydrocarbon International Limited
Al Khobar, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

SCOPE OF AUDIT

We have audited the balance sheet of Larsen & Toubro Hydrocarbon International Limited ("the Company"), a Saudi limited liability company, as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of income, cash flows and changes in shareholders' deficit for the year then ended, and notes 1 to 10 which form an integral part of these financial statements as prepared by the Company in accordance with Article 175 of the Regulations for Companies and presented to us with all the necessary information and explanations. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statements presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

UNQUALIFIED OPINION

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2016, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting standards in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia appropriate to the nature of the Company, and comply with the relevant provisions of the Regulations for Companies and the articles of the Company as these relate to the preparation and presentation of these financial statements.

EMPHASIS OF MATTER

Without qualifying our opinion, we draw attention to note 2 to the financial statements, which states that the Company's net working capital was in deficit by SR 0.34 million at December 31, 2016 (2015: SR 0.17 million), the Company has incurred a net loss of SR 0.20 million for the year then ended and the accumulated losses at December 31, 2016 amounted to SR 0.72 million (2015: SR 0.53 million), which exceeded 50% of the Company's share capital of SR 0.50 million. In compliance with Article 181 of the Regulations for Companies, the shareholders are therefore required to resolve to continue in business and provide support for the Company or liquidate the Company. Subsequent to year end the shareholders have resolved to support the operations of the Company. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon the shareholders' continued adequate financing and profitable future operations. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the assumption that the Company will continue as a going concern and accordingly, do not include any adjustments that might result should the Company not be able to continue as a going concern.

1. ORGANIZATION AND ACTIVITIES

Larsen & Toubro Hyrdocarbon International Limited ("the Company") is a limited liability company registered on 8 Sha'aban 1434H (June 17, 2013) under commercial registration number 2051053464. The share capital of the Company, amounting to SR 500,000, is divided into 500 shares of SR 1,000 each.

The shareholding of the Company as of December 31, 2016 is as follows:

Name	Shareholding
Larsen & Toubro Limited, incorporated in India	90%
Larsen & Toubro International FZE, incorporated in United Arab Emirates	10%

The principal activities of the Company executing contracts of construction and operating oil and gas plants and refineries, petrochemicals, metal industries, water purification, pipelines, industrial projects, supplying technical support services and training related to that under license of Industrial General Authority No. 1220340529932 dated 1 Jumada I, 1434H (March 13, 2013).

The Company did not get any contract during the year ended December 31, 2016 and remain dormant.

2. GOING CONCERN

The Company's net working capital was in deficit by SR 0.34 million at December 31, 2016 (2015: SR 0.17 million), the Company has incurred a net loss of SR 0.20 million for the year then ended and the accumulated losses at December 31, 2016 amounted to SR 0.72 million (2015: SR 0.53 million), which exceeded 50% of the Company's share capital of SR 0.50 million. In compliance with Article 181 of the Regulations for Companies, the shareholder is therefore required to resolve to continue in business and provide support for the Company or liquidate the Company. Subsequent to year end the shareholders have resolved to support the operations of the Company. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon the shareholders' continued adequate financing and profitable future operations. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the assumption that the Company will continue as a going concern and accordingly, do not include any adjustments that might result should the Company not be able to continue as a going concern.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia issued by the Saudi Organization for Certified Public Accountants ("SOCPA"). The following is a summary of significant accounting policies applied by the Company:

Accounting convention

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention.

Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the use of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingencies at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results ultimately may differ from those estimates.

General and administrative expenses

General and administrative expenses include direct and indirect costs not specifically part of contracts cost as required under generally accepted accounting principles. Allocations between general and administrative expenses and contracts cost, when required, are made on a consistent basis.

Intangible asset

Intangible asset represents software purchased by the Company. Software is recognized as an intangible asset and amortized over a period of six years.

Impairment

At each balance sheet date, the Company reviews the carrying amounts of its non-current assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognized as an expense immediately.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized as income immediately.

Provision for obligations

A provision is recognized in the balance sheet when the Company has a legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Foreign currency translation

Foreign currency transactions are translated into Saudi Riyals at the rates of exchange prevailing at the time of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the balance sheet date are translated at the exchange rates prevailing at that date. Gains and losses from settlement and translation of foreign currency transactions are included in the statement of income.

Taxation

Income tax

The Company is subject to the Regulations of the General Authority for Zakat and Income Tax (“GAZT”) in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Any difference in the estimate is recorded when the final assessment is approved, at which time the provision is adjusted.

Deferred tax

Deferred income tax is recognised on all taxable temporary difference at the marginal tax rate for the year where these differences arise and reversed at the marginal rate of tax where these differences will reverse. Deferred income tax assets are recognised for deductible temporary difference to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available while deferred income tax liability is recognised for all taxable temporary differences.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the assets to be recovered.

4. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents include cash and bank balances, demand deposits, and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less. As of December 31, 2016 and 2015, cash and cash equivalents comprised entirely of cash and a bank balance.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the shareholders
Larsen Toubro Arabia
Al-Khobar, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

Scope of Audit

We have audited the balance sheet of Larsen Toubro Arabia ("the Company"), a Saudi limited liability company, as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of income, cash flows and changes in shareholders' deficit for the year then ended, and notes 1 to 24 which form an integral part of these financial statements as prepared by the Company in accordance with Article 175 of the Regulations for Companies and presented to us with all the necessary information and explanations. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statements presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Unqualified Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2016, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting standards in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia appropriate to the nature of the Company, and comply with the relevant provisions of the Regulations for Companies and the articles of the Company as these relate to the preparation and presentation of these financial statements.

Emphasis of Matters

a) We draw your attention to note 2 financial statements which states that the Company's net working capital was in deficit by SR 198.86 million at December 31, 2016 (2015: SR 59.17 million), the Company has incurred a net loss of SR 151.57 million for the year then ended (2015: SR 26.79 million) and the accumulated losses at December 31, 2016 amounted to SR 191.88 million (2015: SR 40.31 million), which exceeded 50% of the Company's share capital of SR 10 million. In compliance with Article 181 of the Regulations for Companies, the shareholder is therefore required to resolve to continue in business and provide support for the Company or liquidate the Company. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon the shareholders' continued adequate financing and profitable future operations. The shareholders have resolved to provide additional financing to the Company to support the continuation of the Company. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the assumption that the Company will continue as a going concern and accordingly, do not include any adjustments that might result should the Company not be able to continue as a going concern.

b) We draw attention to note 20 paragraph "Revenue on construction contracts" and "Construction cost estimates" to the financial statements which states that the Company project costs can vary from initial estimates and the reliance on the total project cost estimate which are based on management's best estimate represents an uncertainty inherent in the revenue recognition process. During the year ended December 31, 2016, estimated cost for the project was revised based on management's best estimate as of that date which resulted into a further loss on the project. While management considers the cost estimates to be based on latest accurate information, cost may change in future.

1. ORGANIZATION AND ACTIVITIES

Larsen Toubro Arabia ("the Company") is a Saudi limited liability company registered on 11 Sha'aban 1433H (July 1, 2012) under commercial registration number 2051049523. The share capital of the Company, amounting to SR 10,000,000, is divided into 10,000 shares of SR 1,000 each.

The shareholding of the Company as of December 31, 2016 is as follows:

Name	Shareholding
Larsen & Toubro Limited, incorporated in India	75%
Mr. Khalil Abdulkareem Nasser Al Fraih, a Saudi National	25%

The principal activities of the Company are management of the construction projects of oil and gas facilities, refineries of petrochemicals, fertilizers and minerals, preparation of detailed engineering designs, the purchase of materials, to carry out projects under its management and to provide services of pipelines installation and maintenance.

The Company's registered office is in Al – Khobar, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

2. GOING CONCERN

The Company's net working capital was in deficit by SR 198.86 million at December 31, 2016 (2015: SR 59.17 million), the Company has incurred a net loss of SR 151.57 million for the year then ended (2015: SR 26.79 million) and the accumulated losses at December 31, 2016 amounted to SR 191.88 million (2015: SR 40.31 million), which exceeded 50% of the Company's share capital of SR 10 million. In compliance with Article 181 of the Regulations for Companies, the shareholder are therefore required to resolve to continue in business and provide support for the Company or liquidate the Company. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon the shareholders' continued adequate financing and profitable future operations. The shareholders have resolved to provide additional financing to the Company to support the continuation of the Company. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the assumption that the Company will continue as a going concern and accordingly, do not include any adjustments that might result should the Company not be able to continue as a going concern.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia issued by the Saudi Organization for Certified Public Accountants. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies applied by the Company:

Accounting convention

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention.

Revenue recognition

Revenue on long-term contracts, where the outcome can be estimated reliably, is recognized under the percentage of completion method by reference to the stage of completion of the contract activity. The stage of completion is measured by calculating the proportion that costs incurred to date bear to the estimated total costs of a contract prepared and approved by the technical estimation department of the Company. When the current estimate of total contract costs and revenues indicate a loss, provision is made for the entire loss on the contract irrespective of the amount of work done. When the outcome of a contract cannot be estimated reliably, revenue is recognized only to the extent of contract costs incurred that is probable will be recoverable and contract costs are recognized as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

Revenue recognized in excess of billings represents the value of work performed but not yet billed as at the yearend. Billing in excess of revenue recognized represents the excess of amounts billed over the value of work performed at the yearend.

General and administrative expenses

General and administrative expenses include direct and indirect costs not specifically part of contract cost as required under generally accepted accounting principles. Allocations between general and administrative expenses and contract cost, when required, are made on a consistent basis.

Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable are carried at original invoice amount less any allowance for doubtful accounts, if any. Any allowance for doubtful accounts is established when there is a significant doubt as to whether the Company will be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of accounts receivable.

Inventory

Inventory comprised of construction material and is stated at the lower of cost (weighted average) or net realizable value.

Provision for obligations

A provision is recognized in the balance sheet when the Company has a legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Accounts payable and other liabilities

Liabilities are recognized for amounts to be paid for goods and services received, whether or not billed to the Company.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Expenditure on maintenance and repairs is expensed, while expenditure for betterment is capitalized. Depreciation is provided over the estimated useful lives of the applicable assets using the straight-line method. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of the estimated useful life or the remaining term of the lease. The estimated rates of depreciation of the principal classes of assets are as follows:

	Year
Plant and machinery	3-15
Furniture and fixtures	3-12
Computers	3-6
Office equipment	3-6

Intangible asset

Intangible asset represents software purchased by the Company. Software purchased is recognized as an intangible asset and amortized over a period of six years.

Impairment

At each balance sheet date, the Company reviews the carrying amounts of its non-current assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognized as an expense immediately.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized as income immediately.

Foreign currency translation

Foreign currency transactions are translated into Saudi Riyals at the rates of exchange prevailing at the time of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the balance sheet date are translated at the exchange rates prevailing at that date. Gains and losses from settlement and translation of foreign currency transactions are included in the statement of income.

End-of-service indemnities

End-of-service indemnities, required by Saudi Arabian labor law, are provided in the financial statements based on the employees' length of service.

Zakat and income tax

The Company is subject to the Regulations of the General Authority for Zakat and Income Tax ("GAZT") in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Zakat and income tax are provided in the financial statements on an accruals basis and charged to the statement of shareholders' deficit. Zakat is computed on the Saudi shareholder's share of the zakat base, while income tax is calculated on the foreign shareholder's share of adjusted net income. Any difference in the estimate is recorded when the final assessment is approved, at which time the provision is cleared.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognized on all taxable temporary differences at the marginal tax rate for the year where these differences arise and reversed at the marginal rate of tax where these differences will reverse. Deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Leasing

Leases are classified as capital leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases. Rentals payable under operating leases are charged to statement of income on a straight-line basis over the term of the operating lease.

Interest in joint operation

A joint arrangement is an arrangement of which two or more parties have joint control.

Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of those sharing control.

A joint operation is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the assets and obligations for the liabilities relating to the arrangement.

The Company recognizes in these financial statements the assets, liabilities, income and expenses it has within the joint operation by combining these with the equivalent items in the financial statements on a line-by-line basis.

4. JOINTLY CONTROLLED OPERATIONS

19. MAJOR CUSTOMER

The Company's majority of the revenue is derived from one contract with Saudi Aramco. Included in accounts receivable at December 31, 2016 is an amount due from Saudi Aramco totaling SR 50.46 million (2015: SR 50.38 million) towards progress billing and retention receivable.

20. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Company's accounting policies, which are described in note 3, the Directors are required to make judgments, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if, the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Critical judgments in applying the Company's accounting policies

The following are the critical judgments, apart from those involving estimations described below, that the management have made in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies and have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the financial statements.

Allowances for accounts receivable, retentions and revenue recognised in excess of billings

Management has estimated the recoverability of accounts receivable, retentions and revenue recognised in excess of billings and has considered the allowance required. Management has estimated the allowance for accounts receivable, retentions and revenue recognised in excess of billings on the basis of prior experience and the current economic environment on the recovery of long outstanding accounts receivable, retentions and revenue recognised in excess of billings. Estimating the amount of the allowance requires significant judgment and the use of estimates related to the amount and timing of estimated losses based on historical loss experience, current disputes, consideration of current economic trends and conditions and contractor/employer-specific factors, all of which may be susceptible to significant change. An allowance is charged to operations based on management's periodic evaluation of the factors previously mentioned, as well as other pertinent factors. To the extent actual outcomes differ from management estimates, additional allowance for doubtful debts or reversal of excess provisions could be made that could adversely or positively affect earnings or the financial position in future periods.

Allowance for inventory obsolescence

Management has estimated the recoverability of inventory balances and considered the allowance required for inventory obsolescence based on the current economic environment and best obsolescence history. Estimating the amount of the allowance for inventory obsolescence requires significant judgment. A provision for inventory obsolescence is charged to costs of revenue based on management's periodic evaluation of the factors previously mentioned, as well as other pertinent factors. To the extent actual outcomes differ from management estimates, additional provision for inventory obsolescence could be required that could adversely affect earnings or financial position in future periods.

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

As described in note 3, the Company estimates the useful lives of property and equipment at the end of each annual reporting period.

Revenue on construction contracts

The Company uses the percentage-of-completion method in accounting for its construction contract revenue. Use of the percentage-of-completion method requires the Company to estimate the proportion of work performed as a proportion of contract costs incurred for work performed to date to the estimated total contract costs. Management considers that this is the most appropriate measure of determining the percentage-of-completion to arrive at the profit to be recognized for the year and to defer profits in excess of the overall estimated contract margin. Since project costs can vary from initial estimates, the reliance on the total project cost estimate represents an uncertainty inherent in the revenue recognition process. Individual project budgets are reviewed regularly with project leaders to ensure that cost estimates are based upon up to date and as accurate information as possible, and take into account any relevant historic performance experience.

Contract variations are recognized as revenues to the extent that it is probable that they will result in revenue which can be reliably measured, which requires the exercise of judgment by management based on prior experience, application of contract terms and relationship with the contract owners.

Claims are recorded as revenue when negotiations have reached to an advance stage such that it is probable, the customer will accept the claim and amount can be measured reliably, which requires the exercise of judgment by management based on prior experience.

Construction cost estimates

The Company uses internal quantity surveyors together with project managers to estimate the costs to complete for construction contracts. Factors such as changes in material prices, labor costs, defects liability costs and other costs are included in the construction cost estimates based on best estimates.

Provision for zakat and income tax

Management has assessed the zakat and income tax position having regard to the local zakat and income tax legislation, decrees issued periodically and conventions. Interpretation of such legislation, decrees, and conventions is not always clear and entails completion of assessment by GAZT.

21. CONTRACT OBLIGATION

In the ordinary course of business, the Company enters into contracts which may provide for assessment of damages for non-performance or delay in completion. The management believes that no significant liabilities exists in excess of the amount provided in the financial statements.

22. OPERATING LEASE ARRANGEMENTS

	2016 SR	2015 SR
Payments under operating leases recognized as an expense during the year	30,914,073	22,852,462

Operating lease payments represent lease payments, payable by the company under non-cancellable operating lease agreements for the leasing of equipment, vehicles, office rental and employees' accommodation. These leases are negotiated for an average period of 1 year.

23. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

At December 31, the Company had the following commitments and contingencies:

	2016 SR	2015 SR
Bank guarantees	196,175,946	306,117,670
Letter of credit	14,832,465	42,422,747

The bank guarantees have been counter guaranteed by Larsen & Toubro International FZE, a subsidiary of Larsen & Toubro Limited, India.

24. FAIR VALUES

The fair values of the Company's financial assets and liabilities approximate their carrying amounts.

ANNEXURE 'B' TO THE AUDITORS' REPORT

(Referred to in paragraph 2 (f) under the heading 'Report on other legal and regulatory requirements' of our report on even date on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") to the members of the Company for the period ended March 31, 2017 of LTH MILCOM PRIVATE LIMITED)

To the Members of LTH MILCOM PRIVATE LIMITED

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of LTH MILCOM PRIVATE LIMITED ("the Company"), as of March 31, 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

AUDITORS' RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing as specified under section 143(10) of the Act to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

MEANING OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

The financial year 2016-17 has been yet another challenging year for the Company in the absence of new domestic orders. The constant focus on exports and timely execution of projects has resulted in increased revenue of 24% for the year. The better utilization of capacity along with implementation of various cost reduction initiatives has resulted in bringing down the losses significantly. The Company is hopeful of bagging few domestic projects in the coming year in-spite of increased competition. The Management's continuous focus on product up-gradation & improvements, cost reduction initiatives, improvements in manufacturing processes and added emphasis on supply chain initiatives has resulted in meeting the customer requirements and helped to remain competitive.

During the year, the Company has hived off its Heavy Casting Unit in order to remain asset light and to improve the cash-flow with a view to clear the long term debts.

During the year, the Company has won the Gold award in India Manufacturing Excellence Awards 2016 by Frost & Sullivan, BEE 2016–Certificate of Merit from National Energy Conservation Award 2016 (Ministry of Power) for efficient energy management, Gold Award in the Annual Convention on Quality Concepts (ACQC-2016) Vadodara Chapter on the theme "Skill Development - Quality Pathway to Overall Success", Par Excellence Award in The National Convention on Quality Concepts-2016, and Best Exhibitor Stall Award at NTPC-Khargone Quality Meet.

The Company has further enhanced the skill levels in Turbine & Generator manufacturing. The Company has focused on localization of Ultra Supercritical Steam Turbine and Generator components and achieved significant milestones during the year. As a part of constant up-gradation of the product, the Company is working on high performance Turbine equipment and the most advanced Ultra-Supercritical Steam Turbines.

CAPITAL & FINANCE

The Total Equity Share Capital as on 31st March, 2017, is ₹ 710.60 Crore. The company has made a part repayment of foreign currency loans of US$ 19.70 Million during the year as per schedule.

PARTICULARS OF CONTRACTS OR ARRANGEMENTS WITH RELATED PARTIES

The Audit Committee and the Board of Directors have approved the Related Party Transactions for the Financial Year 2016-17. All the related party transactions were in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length. A detailed summary is disclosed in note no. 49.12 of notes forming part of Accounts.

APPROPRIATIONS

There were no appropriations made during the year 2016-17.

DIVIDEND

The Board of Directors has not recommended any dividend for the financial year under review.

MATERIAL CHANGES AND COMMITMENTS AFFECTING THE FINANCIAL POSITION OF THE COMPANY, BETWEEN THE END OF THE FINANCIAL YEAR AND THE DATE OF THE REPORT:

There were no material changes and commitments affecting the financial position during the year.

CONSERVATION OF ENERGY, TECHNOLOGY ABSORPTION & FOREIGN EXCHANGE EARNINGS & OUTGO

A. Conservation of Energy

The operations of the Company are energy intensive. The Company has taken various measures to procure energy efficient equipment's and taken utmost care in building the energy efficient state-of-the-art manufacturing facility. The administrative building is accredited with Gold Category by Indian Green Building Council. The Company is in the process of introducing advance ultra-supercritical turbines which are environment friendly. As an on-going manufacturing facility, the Company continuously adopts new technologies and techniques to make infrastructure more energy efficient.

(a) Energy Conservation measures taken:

1) Improving energy effectiveness / efficiency of equipment and systems-

- Use of LED light fixtures for street lighting / Use of LED & T5 Light fixtures in all the Shop Offices
- The factory building designed to use natural light during the day. This includes use of Sky pipe lights on a pilot basis in Stator Coil Shop with great success.
- Arresting leakages in compressed air system by replacing with premium quality Connectors.
- Reduction in Energy consumption in Blade shop by controlling the Air cooler's operation sequentially.
- Reduction of Fixed load by removing Stabilizers on selected CNC machines, since the power quality had increased significantly.
- Reducing Distribution losses in Plant electrical system.
- Installation of 22 Kwp Roof Top Grid connected solar plant in Administration building and 306 Kwp Ground Mounted Grid Connected Solar Plant which is connected to the plant grid. The Company is able to harness 4% of renewable Energy out of total Consumption during the year.
- Installation of 1,000 Litres Capacity Solar Water heater (Flat Plate Collector) on Canteen.
- The installation of UVGI- Ultra Violet Germicidal Irradiation devices for Admin HVAC leads to Energy saving up to 10 %, Improves air quality and AHU maintenance Expenses.
- Installation of Total Descaler for Stator Coil Shop HVAC System, prevents scaling, rusting and algae formation thereby improving heat transfer and Saving Energy.
- Energy savings by installing real time clocks to control operation of centralized AC plant compressors.
- Descaling of Condenser and Installations of Auto-operations (Timer control) for Ventilation System & Air Conditioning plant at Admin Building.
- Close monitoring of AC plants-setting optimum temperatures, controlled usage, Running of HVAC on Fresh Air during winter in Administrative building, etc.
- Use of energy saving devices like time switches, zone controlled AC, auto hibernation for PC's, etc. to reduce energy consumption
- Installation of energy efficient star rated ACs.
- Use of Variable Frequency Drive (VFD) for various applications such as welding positioner, EOT cranes, cooling water Pumps, etc. to improve the motor efficiency and enhance energy saving.
- Stopping air leakages, installing new air solenoid valves in airline to control air combustion, etc.
- Operating computers in Power saver mode.
- Installation of APFC (automatic power factor controller) panels in the power circuit thus improving its power factor and enabling to claim rebate in energy bills.
- Installation of VVVF Drives in new cranes and Transfer trolleys installed in shops. (VVVF Drives present in Long travel and hoist operation in all EOT cranes and motorized transfer trolley).
- Energy conservation through separate set up for Hydro test.
- Installation of Passive harmonic Filter – to reduce the Harmonics generated by HSB 6 MW Active Front End Drive also reduces the Diesel Consumption, Carbon Foot Print and Maintenance cost.
- Installation of lighting energy saver on Lighting Transformer-2.
- Use of timer in welding machine to avoid continuous idle running.

2) Improving energy effectiveness / efficiency of Manufacturing Processes

- Optimization of the operation of higher Efficiency compressors and inter-connections resulting in energy saving.

- Installation of Magnetic resonator – Double resonance Type & Magnetic memory type improves efficiency of Natural gas Fired furnace by improving Overall Combustion Efficiency and also extending life of burners in addition reduces emissions.
- Centralized on / off control for compressors which will operate the compressors based on air consumption.
- Use of Turbo ventilators to extract heat in the non-air-conditioned areas of factory buildings.
- Laying of new 33Kv Power Cables has resulted in reduced diesel consumption.
- Shifting the Blade manufacturing Process from 5 Axis Machines to 4 Axis Machine.
- Process sequence change- Shifting of work center from high power consuming machines to Low Power Consuming Machines.
- Revising the Parameters and CNC Programme to reduce the Cycle time
- Optimization of the operation of two compressors by connecting them with common header resulting in running one compressor instead of two.
- Reduction in idle time of CNC machines (in power ON mode) to auto sleep mode while not in use.
- Reducing the specific Energy consumption (Million K.cal/Tonne) by improving the capacity utilization of Annealing Furnace.
- Optimization of HVAC running hours in Coil shop.
- Process improvements in Blade shop to reduce the specific energy consumption (kWh/Blade).
- Cycle time reduction in forged blades manufacturing by developing new cutting tool.
- Reduction in Energy consumption during HIP Rotor Balancing by changing the design of heating chamber.

(b) Additional investments and proposals, if any, being implemented for reduction of consumption of energy:

- Use of additional Inverter based welding machines for production shops.
- Installation of AIRCO Saver on Split AC to reduce energy Consumption
- Waste heat recovery & insulation improvement in Furnace.
- Commissioning of Chilled water pumps with VFD on closed loop feedback.
- Providing variable air volume (VAV) valves in Admin building

(c) Impact of measures at (a) and (b) above for reduction of energy consumption and consequent impact on the cost of production of goods:

- The measures taken have resulted in savings in cost of production, power consumption, reduction in carbon dioxide emissions & processing time.

(d) Total Energy Consumption and Energy Consumption per unit of production as per Form A in respect of industries Specified in the Schedule is not applicable.

B. Technology

The Company continues to implement new technologies to meet the market needs. Since the manufacturing of newer design products are in the initial stage, all the efforts are in absorbing the technology from the parent company. Most of the efforts pertain to material development and special process improvements. There are no specific R&D activities during the year. No separate record of the expenditure incurred is maintained by the Company.

Technology Absorption, adaptation and innovation

1) Efforts made towards technology absorption, adaptation and innovation:

- Evaluated imported equipment designs / technologies and implemented the state-of-the-art technology through indigenous developments along with alternative materials/components.
- Interaction with external agencies / internal customers /suppliers for exposure to the latest products / designs.
- Participating in national / international conferences, seminars and exhibitions.
- Valuation, adaptation and / or modification of imported designs / technologies to suit indigenous requirements, alternative materials / components.
- Use of state-of-the-art equipment, instrument and software.
- Analyzing feedback from users to improve processes and services.

2) Benefits derived as a result of the above efforts are not quantifiable.

3) Information regarding technology imported during the last 5 years.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT & OUTLOOK

Last financial year the Coal fired Thermal Power sector had an uneventful stretch of time contrary to the expectation of a partial revival. The lean patch of the power sector is continuing, with excess capacities forcing the players to touch new lows in pricing.

Ministry of Power's directives to scrap power plants above 25 years and replace them with Supercritical units is a silver lining to the otherwise gloomy business environment. Moreover the recent announcement of making it mandatory that only Ultra-supercritical units would be ordered beyond 2020 and would be commissioned beyond 2027 is the good news for the struggling high technology equipment manufacturing sector. The challenge raised by the Solar and Renewable sectors notwithstanding, the above announcements give a much needed respite to coal fired thermal power sector.

However, with the coal prices across the globe mellowing down, it gives a silver line to the sector, since power producers have started making profits. Also the domestic coal production levels have surged in the last couple of years which has added to improved availability. This has rejuvenated the sector with private power producers showing interest and the consolidation happening in the power sector.

The stability in the coal prices and availability of coal have made the operations of power plants lucrative to the power producers, which is expected to bring in more investments in the sector. The improvement in transmission thanks to the UDAY scheme and also the continuing economic growth is expected to spruce up the demand of power, which in turn would result in needs for new power plants. Also, Government's decision to extend the Mega Power status to ongoing projects is helpful to the sector.

The company is in a continuous pursuit to reduce costs, product improvisation of bringing in more-efficient models, indigenization, and optimization of facilities. This has made the company one of the most stable manufacturers in the sector, living up to its reputation of delivering quality material in time.

The global orders through its parent, MHPS has compensated for an otherwise passive domestic market. The customers preference for ultra-super critical plants with unit capacities upto 1,000 MW, gives a competitive edge for the company which has a world class manufacturing facility along with robust technology and relevant capabilities.

The Company is confident of meeting the market requirements to manufacture & deliver the cost competitive products in the coming years. The initiatives undertaken by the management are expected to add significantly to our ability to execute complex jobs.

The year 2017-18 is looking prospective with sporadic but concrete proposals coming up for new power plants.

STRATEGIC INITIATIVES

Exports continue to be the thrust area for the company with the Global customers responding to the company's high quality standards & competitiveness. The prospects for exports are increasingly looking good for the coming years.

Company's look-out for additional revenue streams like Repairs & Services and Spares will help in filling the manufacturing slots and contribute in reducing the losses.

SECRETARIAL AUDIT REPORT

FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED March 31, 2017

[Pursuant to section 204(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 and rule No.9 of the Companies (Appointment and Remuneration of Managerial Personnel) Rules, 2014]

To,
The Members,
L&T- MHPS TURBINE GENERATORS PRIVATE LIMITED

I have conducted the secretarial audit of the compliance of applicable statutory provisions and the adherence to good corporate practices by L&T-MHPS TURBINE GENERATORS PRIVATE LIMITED (hereinafter called the Company). Secretarial Audit was conducted in a manner that provided me a reasonable basis for evaluating the corporate conducts/statutory compliances and expressing my opinion thereon.

Based on my verification of the Company's books, papers, minute books, forms and returns filed and other records maintained by the Company and also the information provided by the Company, its officers, agents and authorized representatives during the conduct of secretarial audit, I hereby report that in my opinion, the company has, during the audit period covering the financial year ended on March 31, 2017, complied with the statutory provisions listed hereunder and also that the Company has proper Board-processes and compliance-mechanism in place to the extent, in the manner and subject to the reporting made hereinafter:

I have examined the books, papers, minute books, forms and returns filed and other records maintained by the Company for the financial year ended on March 31, 2017 according to the provisions of:

(i) The Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) and the rules made thereunder;

(ii) The Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 ('SCRA') and the rules made thereunder;

(iii) The Depositories Act, 1996 and the Regulations and Bye-laws framed thereunder;

(iv) Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 and the rules and regulations made thereunder to the extent of Foreign Direct Investment, Overseas Direct Investment and External Commercial Borrowings;

(v) The following Regulations and Guidelines prescribed under the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 ('SEBI Act'), as applicable:-

- a) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011;

- h) The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Buyback of Securities) Regulations, 1998;

(vi) Other specific business/industry related laws applicable to the company, viz.-

- Gas Cylinder Rules, 2004.
- The Static and Mobile Pressure Vessels (Unfired) Rules, 1981.
- Petroleum Act, 1934.

I have also examined compliance with the applicable clauses of the following:

i. Secretarial Standards issued by The Institute of Company Secretaries of India.

ii. The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and the Listing Agreements entered into by the Company with Stock Exchange(s), if applicable. This is not applicable.

During the period under review the Company has complied with the provisions of the Act, Rules, Regulations, Guidelines, Standards, etc. mentioned above.

I further report that the Board of Directors of the Company is not duly constituted with proper balance of Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors and Independent Directors, as per the Articles of Association of the Company. Selection of suitable candidate is in process. The changes in the composition of the Board of Directors or Committees thereof that took place during the period under review were carried out in compliance with the provisions of the Act.

Adequate notice is given to all directors to schedule the Board Meetings, agenda and detailed notes on agenda were sent at least seven days in advance, and a system exists for seeking and obtaining further information and clarifications on the agenda items before the meeting and for meaningful participation at the meeting. Majority decision is carried through while the dissenting members' views are captured and recorded as part of the minutes.

I further report that, I was informed there are adequate systems and processes in the company commensurate with the size and operations of the company to monitor and ensure compliance with applicable laws, rules, regulations and guidelines.

I further report that during the audit period the following events / actions have taken place, which have a major bearing on the company's affairs in pursuance of the above referred laws, rules, regulations, guidelines, standards, etc., like -

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of
L&T-MHPS TURBINE GENERATORS PRIVATE LIMITED

REPORT ON THE IND AS FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

We have audited the accompanying Ind AS financial statements of L&T-MHPS Turbine Generators Private Limited (the 'Company'), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2017, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Statement of Cash Flows and the Statement of Changes in Equity for the year then ended, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE IND AS FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act') with respect to the preparation of these Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs (financial position), profit or loss (financial performance including other comprehensive income), cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) prescribed under Section 133 of the Act.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Ind AS financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these Ind AS financial statements based on our audit.

We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and Rules made thereunder.

We conducted our audit of the Ind AS financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Ind AS financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the Ind AS financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the Ind AS financial statements that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Ind AS financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Ind AS financial statements.

OPINION

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Ind AS financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India including the Ind AS, of the state of affairs (financial position) of the Company as at 31st March, 2017, and its loss (financial performance including other comprehensive income), its cash flows and the changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

1. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2016 (the 'Order') issued by the Central Government of India in terms of Section 143(11) of the Act, we give in the Annexure 'A', a Statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Order.
2. As required by Section 143(3) of the Act, we report that:
   (a) we have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit;
   (b) in our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as it appears from our examination of those books;
   (c) the Balance Sheet, the Statement of Profit and Loss, the Statement of Cash Flows and the Statement of Changes in Equity dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account;
   (d) in our opinion, the aforesaid Ind AS financial statements comply with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act;
   (e) on the basis of the written representations received from the directors as on 31st March, 2017 taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the directors is disqualified as on 31st March, 2017 from being appointed as a director in terms of Section 164 (2) of the Act; and

(f) with respect to the adequacy of the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company and the operating effectiveness of such controls, refer to our separate Report in Annexure 'B';

(g) with respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us:

(1) the Company has disclosed the impact of pending litigations on its financial position in its Ind AS financial statements – (Refer Note 49.6 to the Ind AS financial statements);

(2) the Company did not have any long-term contracts including derivative contracts for which there were any material foreseeable losses;

ANNEXURE 'A' TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

(Referred to in paragraph 1 of our report of even date)

(i) (a) The Company has maintaining proper records showing full particulars, including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets.

(b) As explained to us, these fixed assets have been physically verified by the management in accordance with a phased programme of verification of all the fixed assets over a period of three years, which in our opinion is reasonable, considering the size of the Company and nature of its assets. The frequency of physical verification is reasonable and no material discrepancies were noticed on such verification.

(c) According to the information and explanations given to us, the title deeds of immovable properties are held in the name of the Company.

(ii) As explained to us, inventories have been physically verified by the management during the year. In our opinion, the frequency of such verification is reasonable. The discrepancies noticed on verification between the physical stocks and the book records, which were not material, have been properly dealt with in the books of account.

(iii) According to the information and explanations give to us, the Company has not granted loans, secured or unsecured to companies, firms, limited liability partnerships or other parties covered in the register maintained under Section 189 of the Act. Accordingly, the Paragraph 3(iii) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(iv) According to the information and explanations given to us, the provisions of Sections 185 and 186 of the Act in respect of loans, investments, guarantees and security are not applicable to the Company.

(v) The Company has not accepted any deposits from the public during the year to which the directives issued by the Reserve Bank of India and the provisions of Sections 73 to 76 and other relevant provisions of the Act and the rules framed thereunder apply.

(vi) The maintenance of cost records has been specified by the Central Government under Section 148(1) of the Act. We have broadly reviewed the cost records maintained by the Company pursuant to the Companies (Cost Records and Audit) Rules, 2014, as amended, prescribed by the Central Government under Section 148(1) of the Act in respect of manufacturing of turbine and generators and are of the opinion that prima facie, the prescribed accounts and records have been made and maintained. We have, however, not made a detailed examination of these accounts and records with a view to determine whether they are accurate or complete.

(vii) (a) According to the information and explanations given to us, the Company is regular in depositing undisputed statutory dues including provident fund, employees' state insurance, income tax, sales tax, service tax, duty of customs, duty of excise, value added tax, cess and any other statutory dues, where applicable, to the appropriate authorities. According to the information and explanations given to us, there are no arrears of outstanding statutory dues as at the last day of the financial year for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.

(b) According to the information and explanations given to us and the records examined by us, the particulars of income tax, sales tax, service tax, duty of customs, duty of excise, and value added tax as at 31st March, 2017 which have not been deposited on account of a dispute pending, are as under:

Name of the Statute	Nature of the disputed dues	Amount Rupees*	Period to which the amount relates	Forum where disputes are pending
Value Added Tax Act, 2003	Penalty	29,28,731	F.Y. 2011-12	Deputy Commissioner of Commercial Tax (Appeals)-I

(*net of pre-deposit paid in getting the stay / appeal admitted)

(viii) According to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has not defaulted in repayment of loans or borrowings to financial institutions and banks. The Company has not taken any loans or borrowings from government. The Company has not issued any debentures. Accordingly, the Paragraph 3 (viii) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(ix) According to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has not raised moneys by way of initial public offer or further public offer (including debt instruments) during the year. In our opinion according to the information and explanations given to us, the term loans were applied for the purpose for which they were taken.

(x) During the course of our examination of the books and records of the Company, carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing practices in India, and according to the information and explanations given to us, we have neither come across any fraud by the Company or any fraud on the Company by its officers or employees have been noticed or reported during the year nor have we been informed of such case by management.

(xi) According to the information and explanations given to us, the managerial remuneration has been paid / provided in accordance with the requisite approvals mandated by the provisions of Section 197 read with Schedule V to the Act.

(xii) According to the information and explanations given to us, the Company is not a Nidhi company. Accordingly, the Paragraph 3 (xii) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(xiii) According to the information and explanations given to us, all the transactions with the related parties are in compliance with Sections 177 and 188 of the Act, where applicable and the details of such transactions have been disclosed in the Ind AS financial statements, as required by the applicable accounting standards.

(xiv) According to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has not made any preferential allotment or private placement of shares or fully or partly convertible debentures during the year. Accordingly, the Paragraph 3 (xiv) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(xv) According to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has not entered into any non-cash transactions with directors or persons connected with him during the year. Accordingly, the Paragraph 3 (xv) of the Order is not applicable to the Company.

(xvi) According to the information and explanations given to us, the Company is not required to be registered under Section 45-IA of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

ANNEXURE 'B' TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

(Referred to in paragraph 2(f) of our report of even date)

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS UNDER SECTION 143(3)(I) OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of L&T-MHPS Turbine Generators Private Limited (the 'Company') as of 31st March, 2017 in conjunction with our audit of the Ind AS financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the 'Guidance Note') issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act').

AUDITORS' RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable, to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

MEANING OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that: (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

OPINION

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.
